LifeLines Martin Wroe,Malcolm Doney,2018-11-29 Wisdom on how to live Matt Haig Beautiful wise and playful Brene Brown Some days arrive with questions so vast we feel like strangers on earth Other times our joy makes us feel entirely at home in ourselves So where do we find inspiration for living a good life Drawing on lifelines thrown down by poets thinkers and dreamers the sceptical and the faithful Malcolm Doney and Martin Wroe suggest that how we live may be more important than what we believe How do I make a good decision Can I forgive him Will this darkness pass Do I say something or keep quiet Less of an instruction manual and more of a sketchbook these are lines for living rewarding days Sacred text for the more earthy reader Bono Challenging profound and generous Vanessa Kisuule Wonderful combination of hard won wisdom and memorable quotes Richard Rohr Leonardo da Vinci: The Daedalian Mythmaker , This study is the first to consider the whole body of Leonardo s works with an eye to a comprehensive interpretation that combines both cultural history and the history of ideas According to Maiorino Leonardo s was a mythmaking mode of activity that had a Daedalian range and affected art and technology alike As both artist and inventor Leonardo did not separate reason from experience empiricism from abstraction an attitude Maiorino characterizes as Anti Humanism Rather than accepting the earlier view that the culture of the Renaissance was divided against itself or that it came to be divided he argues that anti Humanism was present from the start in such founders as Petrarch and Alberti and continued to be a current in later authors and artists hence the significance of Leonardo to Humanism and to Baroque and Renaissance culture at large Fly-Fishing with Leonardo da Vinci David Ladensohn,2024-11-05 Leonardo da Vinci was obsessed with water The famed Italian Renaissance artist meticulously drew every aspect of rivers from the nature of water drops to the ways currents create and destroy the earth s surface His obsession led him to become a professional hydraulic engineer and an expert on the physics of water He disproved Aristotle s 1 800 year old theory of the water cycle and developed the one we use today He discovered the nature of erosion and heretically disproved the biblical flood He created beautiful maps and drawings of river currents and of his audacious plans to reroute the Arno River for war and peace It is obvious to David Ladensohn who has been fly fishing for forty years that Leonardo would have made the perfect fishing guide The artist s keen sense of humor and winning personality would have made him a wonderful companion He knew more about how rivers work than any person before him and would have been outstanding at reading the water to figure out where the fish are Beginning with Leonardo s remarkable biography from underprivileged child to celebrity whose company was sought by competing rulers in Italy and France and taking readers through the inspirations that led him to fall in love with waterways Ladensohn makes the connection between the artist s life and his own deep knowledge of the art of fly fishing His adventures have led him to seek out the most unique storied and traveled fly fishing locales in the world including Argentina Mexico Cuba Bhutan Italy Slovenia Australia Canada New Zealand Brazil Costa Rica Bahamas Ireland England and Mongolia Ladensohn s research on Leonardo led him to native rivers in Italy to scholars at Oxford and the inside of Windsor Castle where he studied the finest of Leonardo s original water drawings The illustrations which remain little known even today are reproduced here in color many for the first time Fly Fishing with Leonardo da Vinci is meant to inform and entertain anyone interested in the artist or fly fishing and their unlikely intersection
