Lifelong Learning In Public Libraries Principles Programs And People:

Lifelong Learning in Public Libraries Donna L. Gilton, 2012-03-15 Lifelong Learning in Public Libraries demonstrates that public librarians can promote learning by combining the elements of Information Literacy Instruction ILI with traditional practices of public libraries This approach contributes to the information enfranchisement of patrons and enhances the fulfillment of the traditional goals and purposes of libraries Donna L Gilton provides background on ILI and current developments in public library instruction and also examines educational theories and practices derived from the fields of behaviorism cognitive psychology constructivism and educational humanism Additional chapters delve into practices developed to deal with diverse groups and translate the theories and practices that have been outlined into a well coordinated plan The final chapters survey the role of libraries as cultural institutions This book introduces the field of ILI to public librarians in the context of their own traditions and shows the unique ways that ILI can be implemented in public library settings It encourages librarians to rethink practices to incorporate the principles of ILI and will enable public librarians to extend and enrich their instruction on information use Lifelong Learning in Public Libraries is a valuable resource for librarians educators and leaders of public organizations Creating and Promoting Lifelong Learning in Public Libraries Donna L. Gilton, 2016-06-21 Creating and Promoting Lifelong Learning in Public Libraries Tools and Tips For Practitioners is the sequel to Lifelong Learning in Public Libraries Principles Programs and People On the one hand Lifelong Learning in Public Libraries focuses on the information needs and the developmental and psychological characteristics of diverse library users of all ages It endorses the use of ILI to promote lifelong learning in public libraries both by borrowing techniques from academic and school libraries and by building on existing public library traditions of programming and outreach This book also compares lifelong learning in public libraries to informal and nonformal education in museums community organizations and agencies places of worship and other organizations In addition Lifelong Learning in Public Libraries describes basic steps that librarians can execute in order to get started On the other hand Creating and Promoting Lifelong Learning in Public Libraries focuses much more on how public librarians can specifically plan and implement their instruction with chapters on planning for instruction using teaching methodologies teaching with and about technology and bringing ILI together with more traditional public library services programming and activities such as reference and Readers Advisory services bibliotherapy and cultural and literacy programming Changes in ILI standards and comparisons of ILI with basic reading media digital and cultural literacies are also described Both books together should act as basic manuals for public librarians who promote lifelong learning Creating and Promoting Lifelong Learning in Public Libraries also have helpful teaching hints for all librarians and other professionals who teach in a variety of settings Information Literacy and Lifelong Learning John Crawford, Christine Irving, 2013-11-18 This book reviews the role of information literacy IL in developing employability skills personal health management and informal learning from a variety of areas including information policy issues information usage and training needs and skills development Early years education lifelong learning and the role of IL in relevant organisations including government departments skills agencies and professional bodies will also be considered With a UK focus this book also considers the leading role of the US in the development of information literacy policy Case studies and examples of good practise are included and discussed drawn primarily from Europe North America and Australasia also identified examples from other countries Looks at value and impact and discusses policymaking and issues for the future Conveniently brings together a usable text to which people can easily refer to for an overview of a diffuse area No existing book considers this subject area from a UK and European perspective Also aimed at a non traditional readership including educationalists lifelong learning activists and those involved with informal learning activities
