The Passion of Al-Hallaj, Mystic and Martyr of Islam, Volume 2 Louis Massignon,2019-08-06 Volume 2 of 4 Encompassing the whole milieu of early Islamic civilization this major work of Western orientalism explores the meaning of the life and teaching of the tenth century mystic and martyr al Hallaj With profound spiritual insight and transcultural sympathy Massignon an Islamicist and scholar of religion penetrates Islamic mysticism in a way that was previously unknown Massignon traveled throughout the Middle East and western India to gather and authenticate al Hallaj's surviving writings and the recorded facts. After assembling the extant verses and prose works of al Hallaj and the accounts of his life and death, Massignon published La Passion d'al Hallaj in 1922. At his death in 1962, he left behind a greatly expanded version published as the second French edition in 1975. It is edited and translated here from the French and the Arabic sources by Massignon's friend and pupil Herbert Mason. Volume 1 gives an account of al Hallaj's life and describes the world in which he lives; volume 2 traces his influence in Islam over the centuries; volume 3 studies Hallajian thought; volume 4 contains a full biography and index. Each volume contains Massignon's copious notes and new translations of original Islamic documents. Herbert Mason is University Professor of Religion and Islamic History at Boston University. He is also a poet and novelist; his version of the Gigamesh epic was a nominee for the National Book Award in 1971.

Bollingen Series XCVIII Originally published in 1972. Life of Muhammad Bashīruddīn Maḥmūd Aḥmad, 1990. A popular edition of an account of the life of the Prophet of Islam described as the most influential man in the history of the world. An orphan beckoned to the Call, persecuted by neighbors driven from his home with a price tag on his head, quickly establishing a strong community of believers ready to die for his teachings and finally returning triumphantly only to forgive his tormentors. This biography does not merely recount the major events and turning points of Muhammad's life but helps the reader draw a code for himself from the many walks of life through which Muhammad traversed. No one can afford to read this detailed and fascinating account and not be influenced by it. Yet Muhammad's life has always been an open book pieced together by followers who observed everything he did. This book certainly opens up this life in a wonderful manner.

Religious Foundations of Western Civilization Jacob Neusner, 2010-08-01. World Religions. Religious Foundations of Western Civilization introduces students to the major Western world religions: Judaism, Christianity, and Islam; their beliefs, key concepts, history, as well as the fundamental role they have played and continue to play in Western culture. Contributors include Jacob Neusner, Alan J. Avery Peck, Bruce D. Chilton, Th. Emil Homerin, Jon D. Levenson, William Scott Green, Seymour Feldman, Elliot R. Wolfson, James A. Brundage, Olivia Remie Constable, and Amila Buturovic. This book provides a superb source of information for scientists and scholars from all disciplines who are trying to understand religion in the context of human cultural evolution.

David Sloan Wilson, Professor, Departments of Biology and Anthropology, Binghamton University, Binghamton, New York. This is the right book at the right time. Globalization, religious revivalism, and international politics have made it more important than ever to appreciate the significant contributions of the Children of Abraham to the formation and development of Western civilization.

Moving in the Shadows Liz Kelly, Yasmin Rehman, Hannana Siddiqui, 2016-04-15 In the UK the number of people who came from a minority ethnic group grew by 53 per cent between 1991 and 2001 from 3.0 million in 1991 to 4.6 million in 2001. Whilst much has been written about the impact of these demographic changes in relation to policy issues, black and minority women and children remain under researched. Recent publications have tended to focus on South Asian women, forced marriage and honour related violence. Moving in the Shadows brings together for the first time in a single volume an examination of violence against women and children within the diverse communities of the UK. Its strength lies in its gendered focus as well as its understanding of the need for an integrated approach to all forms of violence against women whilst foregrounding the experiences of minority women, the communities they are part of and the organizations which have advocated for their rights and given them voice. The chapters contained within this volume explore a set of core themes: the forms and contexts of violence; minority women experience the continuum of violence; the role of culture and faith in the control of women and girls; the types of intervention within multi cultural and social cohesion policies; the impacts of violence on British born and migrant women and girls; and the intersection of race, class, gender and sexuality, highlighting issues of similarity and difference. Taken together they provide a valuable resource for scholars, students, activists, social workers and policy makers working in the field.

The Visual Dynamics of Art, Black Care, and Ethics in South African Art Raél Jero Salley, 2025-02-18 This book interprets relationships between art and ethics in the context of contemporary South African art. Nearly three decades after inaugurating political freedom in a democratic form, the infrastructure of South Africa faces palpable issues and challenges to the social fabric. The social tension involves painful struggles for decolonization and violent debates about the removal of colonial statues, change of colonial names, transformation of universities and curriculum change. This book does critical work in art history, theory, criticism and visual culture by looking from and looking after social differences to interpret the potential impact of contemporary media and mediation. Artists examined include Zanele Muholi, Mphahlele Modise, Kgama Dineo, Seshee Bopape, Hasan and Husain Essop and Kemang Wa Lehulere. This book will be of interest to scholars working in art history, contemporary art, visual culture, art theory, ethics, aesthetics, philosophy of art and African studies.

IslamKotob, Islam in Inter-war Europe Nathalie Clayer, Eric Germain, 2008 Providing the status of Islam in inter war Europe this book states that the Muslim population of Europe in the period from 1918 1939 was not one of isolated islands of belief and practice It suggests that rather there was far more interaction between Muslim communities than had hitherto been imagined

The Atheist Muslim Ali A. Rizvi, 2016-11-22 In much of the Muslim world religion is the central foundation upon which family community morality and identity are built The inextricable embedment of religion in Muslim culture has forced a new generation of non believing Muslims to face the heavy costs of abandoning their parents religion disowned by their families marginalized from their communities imprisoned or even sentenced to death by their governments Struggling to reconcile the Muslim society he was living in as a scientist and physician and the religion he was being raised in Ali A Rizvi eventually loses his faith Discovering that he is not alone he moves to North America and promises to use his new freedom of speech to represent the voices that are usually quashed before reaching the mainstream media the Atheist Muslim In The Atheist Muslim we follow Rizvi as he finds himself caught between two narrative voices he cannot relate to extreme Islam and anti Muslim bigotry in a post 9 11 world The Atheist Muslim recounts the journey that allows Rizvi to criticize Islam as one should be able to criticize any set of ideas without demonizing his entire people Emotionally and intellectually compelling his personal story outlines the challenges of modern Islam and the factors that could help lead it toward a substantive progressive reformation

Wisdom's Journey John Herlihy, 2009-03-31 Why do more than one billion people claim Islam as their religion American convert John Ahmed Herlihy provides his personal answer and takes readers on a journey to the heart of Islam the fastest growing religion in the world Weaving details of Islam s central beliefs and practices its Five Pillars with intimate autobiographical details of his more than thirty years in the religion Herlihy presents readers with an insightful glimpse into a religion that remains so often misunderstood

Islam and Modernity Muhammad Khalid Masud, 2009-08-18 Recent events have focused attention on the perceived differences and tensions between the Muslim world and the modern West As a major strand of Western public discourse has it Islam appears resistant to internal development and remains inherently pre modern However Muslim societies have experienced most of the same structural changes that have impacted upon all societies massive urbanisation mass education dramatically increased communication the emergence of new types of institutions and associations some measure of political mobilisation and major transformations of the economy These developments are accompanied by a wide range of social movements and by complex and varied religious and ideological debates This textbook is a pioneering study providing an introduction to and overview of the debates and questions that have emerged regarding Islam and modernity Key issues are selected to give readers an understanding of the complexity of the phenomenon from a variety of disciplinary perspectives The various manifestations of modernity in Muslim life discussed include social change and the transformation of political and religious institutions gender politics changing legal regimes devotional practices and forms of religious association shifts in religious authority and modern developments in Muslim
