

The background is a painting of a pond at night. A bright, glowing light source, possibly the moon or a distant light, is reflected in the water, creating a shimmering path. The water is dark, and the surrounding trees and foliage are silhouetted against the light. In the lower right foreground, a bicycle is parked on the grassy bank, its reflection visible in the water.

By the end of the book, he brings the vast Texas landscape within grasp of even the most skeptical reader. The Denver Post: Harrigan's observations are not those of an academically trained naturalist but rather the fresh outlook of a city-bred tourist rejoicing in the exhilaration of discovery.
