Young Men's Association, Buffalo,1865 Translation and Music Sebnem Susam-Sarajeva,2016-04-08 Popular and multimodal forms of cultural products are becoming increasingly visible within translation studies research Interest in translation and music however has so far been relatively limited mainly because translation of musical material has been considered somewhat outside the limits of translation studies as traditionally conceived Difficulties associated with issues such as the musicality of lyrics the fuzzy boundaries between translation adaptation and rewriting and the pervasiveness of covert or unacknowledged translations of musical elements in a variety of settings have generally limited the research in this area to overt and canonized translations such as those done for the opera Yet the intersection of translation and music can be a fascinating field to explore and one which can enrich our understanding of what translation is and how it relates to other forms of expression This special issue is an attempt to open up the field of translation and music to a wider audience within translation studies and to an extent within musicology and cultural studies The volume includes contributions from a wide range of musical genres and languages from those that investigate translation and code switching in North African rap and rai and the intertextual and intersemiotic translations revolving around Mahler s lieder in Chinese to the appropriation and after life of Kurdish folk songs in Turkish and the emergence of rock n roll in Russian Other papers examine the reception of Anglo American stage musicals and musical films in Italy and Spain the concept of singability with examples from Scandinavian languages and the French dubbing of musical episodes of TV series The volume also offers an annotated bibliography on opera translation and a general bibliography on translation and music The Routledge Handbook to Spanish Film Music Laura Miranda,2024-09-12 The Routledge Handbook to Spanish Film Music provides a significant contribution to the research and history of Spanish film music exploring the interdependence and ways in which discourses of sound and vision are constructed dialogically in Spanish cinema with contributions from leading international researchers from Spain the USA the UK France and Germany Offering a multifocal and multidisciplinary study between related areas such as music studies film studies and Spanish cultural studies this book is divided into four sections covering the early years of Spanish cinema the 1940s and 1950s in Spanish cinema the first decades of the Franco dictatorship the importance of Fraga Iribarne s slogan Spain is different to promote Spain s new openness to the world in the 1960s and 1970s and Spanish cinema since the arrival of democracy in 1978 including discussion of contemporary Spanish cinema The growing interest in Spanish cinema calls for the publication of studies about

Transnational Spanish Studies Catherine Davies,Rory O'Bryen,2020-06-17 The focus of this book is two fold First it traces the expansive geographical spread of the language commonly referred to as Spanish This has given rise to multiple hybrid formations over time emerging in the clash of multiple cultures languages and religions within and between great empires Roman Islamic Hispano Catholic each with expansionist policies leading to wars huge territorial gains and population movements This long history makes Hispanophone culture itself a supranational trans imperial one long before we witness its various national cultures being refashioned as a result of the transnational processes associated with globalization today Indeed the Spanish language we recognise today was transnational long before it was ever the foundation of a single nation state Secondly it approaches the more recent post national translingual and inter subjective border crossings that characterise the global world today with an eye to their unfolding within this long trans imperial history of the Hispanophone world In doing so it maps out some of the contemporary post colonial decolonial and trans Atlantic inflections of this trans imperial history as manifest in literature cinema music and digital cultures Contributors Christopher J Pountain L P Harvey James T Monroe Rosaleen Howard Mark Thurner Alexander Samson Andrew Ginger Samuel Llano Philip Swanson Claire Taylor Emily Baker Elzbieta Slodowska Francisco J Hernandez Adri n Henriette Partzsch Helen Melling Conrad James and Benjamin Quarshie The Dutch Revolt Through Spanish Eyes Yolanda Rodríguez Pérez,2008 Historical and literary works from the Spanish Golden Age offer a wealth of information about the Spanish view of the conflict in the Netherlands during the Dutch Revolt and the ensuing Eighty Years War 1568 1648 The war in the cold north was to become a fixed component in the lives of the Spaniards of the Golden Age for many years This book reconstructs the images that the Spanish had of the Netherlands and its inhabitants These images are inextricably intertwined with the picture that the Spanish constructed of themselves as participants in the conflict This book follows the developments of these images from the construction of an image of the enemy that reached a climax between 1621 and 1648 and then gradually faded away Which images and representations circulated the most and where did they come from Which rhetoric was used to present them to the public and in which genres and contexts were they disseminated and preserved On the basis of a varied collection of sources war chronicles and plays as well as pamphlets poems historical works and prose writings the author illustrates the appearance of the Netherlands through Spanish eyes during the course of the Eighty Years War Film Nick Deocampo,2017-11-09 This book is a sequel to Cine Spanish Influences on Early Cinema in the Philippines and part of Nick Deocampo s extensive research on Philippine cinema Tracing the beginnings of motion pictures from its Spanish roots this book advances Deocampo s scholarly study of cinema s evolution in the hands of Americans A progressive Spanish reader Carlos
