Aproximaciones diversas al texto literario Asociación de profesores de filología francesa de la universidad española. Coloquio,1996 Jewish Studies at the Turn of the Twentieth Century European Association for Jewish Studies. Congress,1999 A cursed book A missing professor Some nefarious men in gray suits And a dreamworld called the Troposphere Ariel Manto has a fascination with nineteenth century scientists especially Thomas Lumas and The End of Mr Y a book no one alive has read When she mysteriously uncovers a copy at a used bookstore Ariel is launched into an adventure of science and faith consciousness and death space and time and everything in between Seeking answers Ariel follows in Mr Y s footsteps She swallows a tincture stares into a black dot and is transported into the Troposphere a wonderland where she can travel through time and space using the thoughts of others There she begins to understand all the mysteries surrounding the book herself and the universe Or is it all just a hallucination With The End of Mr Y Scarlett Thomas brings us another fast paced mix of popular culture love mystery and irresistible philosophical adventure Jewish Studies at the Turn of the Twentieth Century Angel Sáenz-Badillos,Judit Targarona Borrás,2024-01-22 In July of 1998 the European Association for Jewish Studies celebrated its Sixth Congress in Toledo with almost four hundred participants In these Proceedings have been collected 169 papers and communications read during the conference By and large they offer a broad realistic perspective on the advances achievements and anxieties of Judaic Studies at the turn of the 20th century on the eve of the new millennium They represent the point of view of the European scholars enriched with notable contributions by colleagues from other continents One volume ISBN 978 90 04 11554 5 includes papers dealing with Jewish studies on biblical rabbinical and medieval times as well as with some general subjects such as Jewish languages and bibliography A second volume ISBN 978 90 04 11558 3 is dedicated to the Judaism of modern times from the Renaissance to our days The Origin and Meaning of Courtly Love Roger Boase,1977 Razos and Troubadour Songs James J. Wilhelm,Lowry Nelson Jr,2019-06-11 Originally published in 1990 this book contains the full text and translation of razos and troubadour songs The coupling of the razos and songs in this edition is based on the conviction that though the lyrics should first be read on their own it is highly instructive to read the two together as the razo authors intended This allows the reader to attempt to read as a thirteenth century contemporary might have The Troubadour Tensos and Partimens Ruth Harvey,Linda M. Paterson,Anna Radaelli,2010 La música medieval en España María del Carmen Gómez Muntané,2001 Routledge Revivals: Medieval Italy (2004) Christopher Kleinhenz,2017-07-05 First published in 2004 Medieval Italy An Encyclopedia provides an introduction to the many and diverse facets of Italian civilization from the late Roman empire to the end of the fourteenth century It presents in two volumes articles on a wide range of topics including history literature art music urban development commerce and economics social and political institutions religion and hagiography philosophy and science This illustrated A Z reference is a cross disciplinary resource and will be of key interest not only to students and scholars of history but also to those studying a range of subjects as well as the general reader Assembling the Lyric Self Olivia Holmes, 2000 As she moves from an overview to a consideration of particular authors including Guittone d Arezzo and Nicolo de Rossi and manuscripts she both demonstrates the narrative and structural subtlety of many of the works and reveals unsuspected phases in a gradual historical shift BOOK JACKET A Medieval Songbook Elizabeth Eva Leach, Joseph W. Mason, Matthew P. Thomson, 2022 Detailed exploration of an enigmatic manuscript containing the texts to hundreds of songs but no musical notation The medieval songbook known variously as trouv re manuscript C or the Bern Chansonniere Bern Burgerbibliothek Cod 389 is one of the most important witnesses to musical life in thirteenth century France Almost certainly copied in Metz it provides the texts to over five hundred Old French songs and is a unique insight into cultures of song making and copying on the linguistic and political borders between French and German speaking lands in the Middle Ages Notably the names of trouv res including several female poet musicians are found in its margins names which would be unknown today without this evidence However the manuscript has received relatively little scholarly attention partly because the songs musical staves remained empty for reasons now unknown and partly because of where it was copied This collection of essays is the first to consider C on its own terms and from a range of disciplinary perspectives including philology art history literary studies and musicology The contributors explore the process of creating the complex object that is a music manuscript examining the work of the scribes and artists who worked on C and questioning how scribes acquired and organised exemplars for copying The peculiarly Messine flavour of the repertoire and authors is also discussed with contributors showing that C frames the tradition of Old French song from a unique perspective As a whole the volume demonstrates how in this eastern hub of music and poetry poet composers readers and scribes interacted with the courtly song tradition in fascinating and unusual ways

The Poems of the Troubadour Bertran de Born William D. Paden, Tilde Sankovitch, 2023-11-15 Medieval Italy Christopher Kleinhenz, 2004-08-02 This Encyclopedia gathers together the most recent scholarship on Medieval Italy while offering a sweeping view of all aspects of life in Italy during the Middle Ages This two volume illustrated A Z reference is a cross disciplinary resource for information on literature history the arts science philosophy and religion in Italy between A D 450 and 1375 For more information including the introduction a full list of entries and contributors a generous selection of sample pages and more visit the Medieval Italy An Encyclopedia website The Cambridge History of French Literature William Burgwinkle, Nicholas Hammond, Emma Wilson, 2011-02-24 From Occitan poetry to Francophone writing produced in the Caribbean and North Africa from intellectual history to current films and from medieval manuscripts to bandes dessin es this History covers French literature from its beginnings to the present day With equal attention to all genres historical periods and registers this is the most comprehensive guide to literature written in French ever produced in English and the first in decades to offer such an array of topics and perspectives Contributors attend to issues of orality history peripheries visual culture alterity sexuality religion politics autobiography and testimony The result is a collection that despite the wide variety of topics and perspectives presents a unified view of the richness of French speaking cultures This History gives support to the idea that French writing will continue to prosper in the twenty first century as it adapts adds to and refocuses the rich legacy of its past Defining and Perceiving Feelings in the Late Middle Ages, 2025-04-24 In order to have a constructive discussion about feelings in the late Middle Ages it is beneficial to first evaluate how the feelings of individual men and women were defined As such the purpose of this book is to explore the words used by late medieval men and women to refer to their feelings and to examine their meanings By doing so we can better understand the efforts of late medieval society to express use and transmit certain feelings especially as they related to manoeuvres of power or the articulation of social values Contributors are Mechthild Albert Jacqueline Cerquiglioni Toulet Frank Collard Paola Corti Badia Francesca Espa ol Isabel Grifoll Juan Francisco Jim nez Alc zar Jos Mart nez G zquez Alicia Mingulez Matilde Juan Liza N Pina Rubio Gerardo Rodriguez Flocel Sabat Benedicte S re and Marta Serrano "De Sens Rassis" Keith Busby, Logan E. Whalen, Bernard Guidot, 2005 These articles are mainly concerned with medieval French literature particularly those areas in which the honorand of the volume Rupert T Pickens has distinguished himself Old French Arthurian romance Marie de France chanson de geste later poetry including Villon and the Occitan troubadour lyric Among the contributors are some of the most significant scholars from the U S A Canada France Switzerland and the U K working in Old French studies today The volume will be of interest to specialists in Old French Occitan and medieval literature generally Some of the articles deal with relatively unknown works and all are informed by current developments in medieval literary studies Museums of Language and the Display of Intangible Cultural Heritage Margaret J.-M. Sönmez, Maia Wellington Gahtan, Nadia Cannata, 2019-12-09 Museums of Language and the Display of Intangible Cultural Heritage presents essays by practitioners based in language museums around the world Describing their history mission and modes of display contributors demonstrate the important role intangible heritage can and should play in the museum Arguing that languages are among our most precious forms of cultural heritage the book also demonstrates that they are at risk of neglect and of endangerment from globalisation and linguistic imperialism Including case studies from across Europe North America Africa and Asia this book documents the vital work being done by museums to help preserve languages and make them objects of broad public interest Divided into three sections contributions to the book focus on one of three types of museums museums of individual languages museums of language groups both geographic and structural and museums of writing The volume presents practical information alongside theoretical discussions and state of the art commentaries concerning the representation of languages and their cultural nature Museums of Language and the Display of Intangible Cultural Heritage is the first volume to address the subject of language museums and as such should be of interest to academics researchers and postgraduate students in the fields of museum and cultural heritage studies applied linguistics anthropology tourism and public education Songbook Marisa Galvez, 2020-03-04 How medieval songbooks were composed in collaboration with the community and across languages and societies Eloquent clearly argued Times Literary Supplement Today we usually think of a book of poems as composed by a poet rather than assembled or adapted by a network of poets and readers But the earliest European vernacular poetries challenge these assumptions Medieval songbooks remind us how lyric poetry was once communally produced and received a collaboration of artists performers live audiences and readers stretching across languages and societies The only comparative study of its kind Songbook treats what poetry was before the emergence of the modern category poetry that is how vernacular songbooks of the thirteenth to fifteenth centuries shaped our modern understanding of poetry by establishing expectations of what is a poem what is a poet and what is lyric poetry itself Marisa Galvez analyzes the seminal songbooks representing the vernacular traditions of Occitan Middle High German and Castilian and tracks the process by which the songbook emerged from the original performance contexts of oral publication into a medium for preservation and finally into an established literary object Galvez reveals that songbooks in ways that resonate with our modern practice of curated archives and playlists contain lyric music images and other nonlyric texts selected and ordered to reflect the local values and preferences of their readers At a time when medievalists are reassessing the historical foundations of their field and especially the national literary canons established in the nineteenth century a new examination of the songbook's role in several vernacular traditions is more relevant than ever Medieval Lyric William Doremus

Paden, 2000 An essential volume for medievalists and scholars of comparative literature Medieval Lyric opens up a reconsideration of genre in medieval European lyric Departing from a perspective that asks how medieval genres correspond with twentieth century ideas of structure or with the evolution of poetry this collection argues that the development of genres should be considered as a historical phenomenon embedded in a given culture and responsive to social and literary change

A Handbook of the Troubadours F. R. P. Akehurst, Judith M. Davis, 2023-04-28 This book is a reference volume and a digest of more than a century of scholarly work on troubadour poetry Written by leading scholars it summarizes the current consensus on the various facets of troubadour studies Standing at the beginning of the history of modern European verse the troubadours were the prime poets and composers of the twelfth and thirteenth centuries in the South of France No study of medieval literature is complete without an examination of the courtly love which is celebrated in the elaborately rhymed stanzas of troubadour verse creations whose words and melodies were imitated by poets and musicians all over medieval Europe The words of about 2 500 troubadour songs have survived along with 250 melodies and all have come under intense scholarly scrutiny This Handbook brings together the fruits of this scrutiny giving teachers and students an overview of the fundamental issues in troubadour scholarship All quotations are given in the original Old Occitan and in English The editors provide a list of troubadour editions and an index and each chapter includes a list of additional readings This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1996 This book is a reference volume and a digest of more than a century of scholarly work on troubadour poetry Written by leading scholars it summarizes the current consensus on the various facets of troubadour studies Standing at the beginning Beware the Poetry Javier Castro-Ibaseta,2025-03-18 In the early seventeenth century Spanish rulers were confronted by an avalanche of political satires Beware the Poetry shows how these poetic libels helped articulate an early form of the public sphere profoundly transforming political culture Exploring a rich trove of mostly anonymous satirical works together with newsletters sermons and plays Javier Castro Ibaseta reconstructs the experiences of Madrilenians during the reigns of Philip III and Philip IV Castro Ibaseta proposes an original theory of political publics that corrects approaches that assume early modern Spain s public sphere mirrored the politics of England or France Instead he shows that in Spain publicness was distinct because the satires about the king s favorite and even about the king himself were consumed for pleasure and entertainment They did not create political communities or stir rebellious movements Read diachronically the long continuous evolving collection of satires reveals not just the opinions of the poets but something far more difficult to reconstruct the shifting demands interests uncertainties and worldviews of the audience that is the structure and dynamics of Madrid s emerging public sphere Applying an interdisciplinary approach of literary criticism and historical method Beware the Poetry presents an exciting new take on politics and poetry during the period often referred to as the Spanish Decadence It will be of special interest to scholars of early modern politics and Spanish literature and culture
