Romantic Love in Cultural Contexts Victor Karandashev, 2016-12-24 This volume presents a conceptual historical anthropological and sociological review of how culture affects our experience and expression of romantic love What is romantic love and how is it different from and similar to other kinds of love How is romantic love related to sex and marriage in human history and across contemporary cultures What cultural factors mediate attraction in love These are some of the questions the volume explores through its interdisciplinary yet focused lens Much of the current research evidence suggests that love is a universal emotion experienced by a majority of people in various historical eras and in all the world's cultures Yet love displays in different ways because culture has an impact on people's conceptions of love and the ways they feel think and behave in romantic relationships This volume summarizes classical knowledge on love and culture while at the same time focusing sharply on recent studies and cutting edge research that has advanced the field Divided into three parts the volume begins by defining and analyzing the concept of romantic love and interdisciplinary approach to its study in cultural context Part II traces the origin and evolution of romantic love both in various places throughout the world and various time periods throughout history Part III presents the revolutionary expansion of romantic love ideas and practices in the late 20th and early 21st centuries in various parts of the world focusing particularly on the development of romantic love as a cultural ideal of the modern cultures Finally the book concludes by summarizing the major achievements in this field of study and predicts future development A timely and thoughtful addition to the literature Romantic Love in Cultural Contexts delivers thought provoking insights to researchers in relationship scholarship sociology anthropology and cultural studies and all those interested in the universal human concept of love Overall I find Dr Victor Karandashev is an excellent and fine scholar who has a firm grasp of both the fundamental principles of cross cultural research and of anthropology In our increasingly connected world Romantic Love in Cultural Contexts updates and adds to the descriptions and explanations of similarities and differences in romantic love across generations and cultures Romantic love encompasses the life span rather than being a phenomenon largely confined to youthful years The topic of this project concerns the deepest of our sentiments and pervades life from birth to death This book contributes to better knowledge of this phenomenon across generations Felix Neto Professor of Psychology Faculdade de Psicologia e de Ciências da Educação Universidade do Porto Portugal

Dark Feelings, Grim Thoughts Robert C. Solomon, 2006-07-27 In the same spirit as his most recent book Living With Nietzsche and his earlier study In the Spirit of Hegel Robert Solomon turns to the existential thinkers Albert Camus and Jean Paul Sartre in an attempt to get past the academic and political debates and focus on what is truly interesting and valuable about their philosophies Solomon makes the case that despite their very different responses to the political questions of their day Camus and Sartre were both fundamentally moralists and their philosophies cannot be understood apart from their deep ethical commitments He focuses on Sartre's early pre 1950 work and on Camus's best known novels The Stranger The Plague and The Fall Throughout Solomon makes the important point that their shared interest in phenomenology was much more important than their supposed affiliation with existentialism Solomon's reappraisal will be of interest to anyone who is still or ever has been fascinated by these eccentric but monumental figures

How Art Can Change Your Life Ivan Fernandez, 2017-09-19 Is art just a nice to have Or is it deeper far more integral even necessary Is there something from Beethoven to help us with that career setback Is there something from Shakespeare to help us with our relationships Is there something from Rembrandt to show us who we really are It is these amongst other questions that this book probes through painting music literature architecture sculpture photography and film spanning cultures from Europe and Africa to India and Australia and artistic periods from the ancient to the modern Leveraging his considerable experience as a research professional Ivan Fernandez combines riveting insights from diverse artists of the past and the present a dazzling variety of astonishing facts and powerful questions for us to reflect on In language that is simple elegant and imbued with passion Ivan utters an urgent sincere plea urging us to draw actionable life lessons from art that can help us rise above ourselves To make a masterpiece of our own lives And as a guide on this epic voyage he takes us on a fascinating journey inward ploughing not merely the depths of artistic insight but of the inscrutable human spirit itself Fernandez talks about bliss a term I've often used It was through writing about my practice together with making my work that I found my bliss I wish I'd had Fernandez's book back in those times when overwhelming doubt inhibited my practice He brings enlightenment to thinking about art and why artists do what they do This can help give an artist conviction and therefore confidence and a lay person a heightened appreciation of art This most enjoyable read will bring great insight to artists and lay people alike A truly inspiring read Archibald Prize winning artist and art teacher Cherry Hood Ivan Fernandez's cross disciplinary approach infusing insights from philosophy literature music and art make this book a great read Sculptor Vince Vozzo member of the decade club exhibited at Sculpture by the Sea ten times or more
