catastrophes outside while maintaining order on the inside of society These efforts are breaking down Nature and Civilization have become so intertwined they can no longer be separated Natural disasters moreover are becoming increasingly more difficult to differentiate from man made Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here

The WPA History of the Negro in Pittsburgh Laurence Glasco, 2012-07-19 The monumental American Guide Series published by the Federal Writers Project provided work to thousands of unemployed writers editors and researchers in the midst of the Great Depression Funded by the Works Progress Administration and featuring books on states cities rivers and ethnic groups it also opened an unprecedented view into the lives of the American people during this time Untold numbers of projects in progress were lost when the program was abruptly shut down by a hostile Congress in 1939 One of those The Negro in Pittsburgh lay dormant in the Pennsylvania State Library until it was microfilmed in 1970 The WPA History of the Negro in Pittsburgh marked the first publication of this rich body of information This unique historical study of the city's Black population although never completed features articles on civil rights social class lifestyle culture folklore and institutions from colonial times through the 1930s Editor Laurence A Glasco's introduction and robust bibliography contextualizes the articles and offers a history on the manuscript itself guiding contemporary readers through this remarkable work
