Guerre T Tons 2 Extermination:

La Guerre d'Algérie dans le roman français - Tome 2 Rachid Mokhtari, 2022-10-12 Cet essai La guerre d'Algérie dans le roman français s'appuie dans son contenu et sa démarche sur une centaine d'ouvrages de genres très variés : fiction, récit, carnets de voyage, témoignage, roman policier. Il offre ainsi un large ventail de pistes de lectures et de réflexions sur la littérature algérienne des Français qui depuis ses fondateurs la nouvelle génération des écrivains n'après 1962 reste essentiellement une littérature ancrée au passé colonial avec ses faits d'histoire collective et ses pathos. Divisé en deux tomes distincts mais complémentaires et solidaires du point de vue de la réalité historique et des structures narratives des romans, l'essai offre aux lecteurs une diversité de regards emphatiques, croisés, divergents, antagoniques, parfois sur le passé colonial de la France en Algérie, la prise de la conquête peu exploitée et la guerre proprement dite 1954-1962. Dans ce deuxième tome, il s'agit pour une terre perdue, la lecture des romans y affrènt montre que la guerre s'efface ou du moins devient un choix. La nostalgie en devient l'élément moteur, vive et traumatique, aussi de celles et ceux qui depuis l'Exode et l'Exil de leur terre natale, les pieds noirs et leurs descendants écrivains entament des retours réels ou imaginaires au paradis perdu, au puits matriciel, la ferme ancestrale. Contrairement aux apparences, peu d'écrivains Français d'Algérie versent dans l'identité d'faitiste des plaintes victimaires. Les tons changent d'un auteur à l'autre, dans la quête morale d'Alain Ferry, Alain Vircondelet, Hélène Cixous, Marie Cardinal, Jean-Noël Pancrazi, Sylvain Prudhomme, Annelise Roux et Anne Plantagenet. PROPOS DE L'AUTEUR Rachid Mokhtari est universitaire, journaliste et romancier. Il a publié plusieurs ouvrages consacrés à la littérature algérienne, dont Tahar Djaout, un écrivain personnel. Le Nouveau souffle du roman algérien et La Graphie de l'Horreur. Mirrors of Destruction Omer Bartov, 2000-08-24. Mirrors of Destruction examines the relationship between total war, state organized genocide and the emergence of modern identity. Here Omer Bartov demonstrates that in the twentieth century there have been intimate links between military conflict, mass murder of civilian populations and the definition and categorization of groups and individuals. These connections were most clearly manifested in the Holocaust as the Nazis attempted to exterminate European Jewry under cover of a brutal war and with the stated goal of creating a racially pure Aryan population and Germanic empire. The Holocaust however can only be understood within the context of the century's predilection for applying massive and systematic methods of destruction to resolve conflicts over identity. To provide the context for the Final Solution, Bartov examines the changing relationships between Jews and non-Jews in France and Germany from the outbreak of World War I to the present. Rather than presenting a comprehensive history or a narrative from a single perspective, Bartov views the past century through four interrelated prisms. He begins with an analysis of the glorification of war and violence from its modern birth in the trenches of World War I to its horrifying culmination in the presentation of genocide by the SS as a glorious undertaking. He then examines the pacifist reaction in interwar France to show how it contributed to a climate of collaboration with dictatorship and mass murder. The book goes on to argue that much of the discourse on identity throughout the century has had to do with identifying and eliminating society's elusive enemies or enemies from within Bartov concludes with an investigation of modern apocalyptic visions showing how they have both encouraged mass destructions and opened a way for the reconstruction of individual and collective identities after a catastrophe Written with verve Mirrors of Destruction is rich in interpretations and theoretical tools and provides a new framework for understanding a central trait of modern history Le sacrifice d'un homme Stéphane Carrion,2005* , The National Union Catalog, Pre-1956 Imprints Library of Congress,American Library Association.
