Sweet Surrender Dennis Hiebert, 2013-07-09 Every culture has a way of perceiving and practicing marriage Many contemporary Western Christians mistake what their culture prescribes regarding marriage with what the Bible portrays and thereby take as biblical what is merely cultural Uncritical conformity to cultural imperatives of marriage then becomes a Christian virtue and a sweet surrender Few recognize much less question this confusion even when its consequences are unhealthy In Sweet Surrender Dennis Hiebert challenges Christians to comprehend what is cultural in their view of marriage hold as optional what is not explicitly required by the Bible and live out their marriages within the transcendent grace of God Gaining greater awareness can free marriages from the control of culture for something more simply but deeply Christian Marriages benefit when they are released from cultural directives that are not biblical callings even if they choose to retain them as cultural practices This book is for Christians who are ready to rethink their assumptions about marriage The Social Dynamics of Family Violence Angela J. Hattery, Earl Smith, 2019-09-10 The Social Dynamics of Family Violence explores family violence throughout the life course from child abuse and neglect to intimate partner violence and elder abuse Paying special attention to the social character and institutional causes of family violence Hattery and Smith ask students to consider how social inequality especially gender inequality contributes to tensions and explosive tendencies in family settings Students learn about individual preventative measures and are also invited to question the justice of our current social structure with implications for social policy and reorganization Hattery and Smith also examine violence against women globally and relate this to violence in the United States Unique coverage of same sex and multicultural couples as well as of theory and methods make this text an essential element of any course considering the sociology of family violence The

Dolan, 2010-11-24 Marriage is often described as a melding of two people into one But what or who must be lost fragmented or buried in that process We have inherited a model of marriage so flawed Frances E Dolan contends that its logical consequence is conflict Dolan ranges over sixteenth and seventeenth century Puritan advice literature sensational accounts of true crime and late twentieth century marriage manuals and films about battered women who kill their abusers She reads the inevitable Taming of the Shrew against William Byrd's diary of life on his Virginia plantation Noel Coward's Private Lives and Barbara Ehrenreich's assessment in Nickel and Dimed of the relationship between marriage and housework She traces the connections between Phillippa Gregory's best selling novel The Other Boleyn Girl and documents about Anne Boleyn's fatal marriage and her daughter Elizabeth I's much debated virginity By contrasting depictions of marriage in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries and our own time she shows that the early modern apprehension of marriage as an economy of scarcity continues to haunt the present in the form of a conceptual structure that can accommodate only one fully developed person When two fractious individuals assert their conflicting wills resolution can be achieved only when one spouse absorbs subordinates or eliminates the other In an era when marriage
