

EUROPE FACES REVOLUTION -SECT. 2

Read Setting the Stage-pg 253

- Personal experiences, education level, family influence.
- Three schools of political thought struggled for supremacy in Europe during the first half of the 1800s.
 - Conservative—usually wealthy property owners and nobility, who wanted to see very little change and argued for protecting the traditional monarchies of Europe.
 - Liberal—mostly middle-class business leaders and merchants, who wanted to give more power to elected parliaments.
 - Radical—favored drastic changes to extend democracy to all people. Practice the ideals of the Fr. Rev.

your goals with confidence The Total Work of Art in European Modernism David Roberts, 2011-12-15 In this groundbreaking book David Roberts sets out to demonstrate the centrality of the total work of art to European modernism since the French Revolution The total work of art is usually understood as the intention to reunite the arts into the one integrated whole but it is also tied from the beginning to the desire to recover and renew the public function of art The synthesis of the arts in the service of social and cultural regeneration was a particularly German dream which made Wagner and Nietzsche the other center of aesthetic modernism alongside Baudelaire and Mallarmé The history and theory of the total work of art pose a whole series of questions not only to aesthetic modernism and its utopias but also to the whole epoch from the French Revolution to the totalitarian revolutions of the twentieth century The total work of art indicates the need to revisit key assumptions of modernism such as the foregrounding of the autonomy and separation of the arts at the expense of the countertendencies to the reunion of the arts and cuts across the neat equation of avant gardism with progress and deconstructs the familiar left right divide between revolution and reaction the modern and the antimodern Situated at the interface between art religion and politics the total work of art invites us to rethink the relationship between art and religion and art and politics in European modernism In a major departure from the existing literature David Roberts argues for twin lineages of the total work a French revolutionary and a German aesthetic which interrelate across the whole epoch of European modernism culminating in the aesthetic and political radicalism of the avant garde movements in response to the crisis of autonomous art and the accelerating political crisis of European societies from the 1890s forward US Department of State Dispatch , 1990 Contains a diverse compilation of major speeches congressional testimony policy statements fact sheets and other foreign policy information from the State Dept Counter-Revolution Jan Zielonka, 2018-02-02 Can open society survive Is Europe disintegrating How to overcome the economic crisis Will Europeans feel secure again Counter Revolution is a bold attempt to make sense of the extraordinary events taking place in Europe today It examines the counter revolution developing in Europe exploring its roots and implications The book takes the form of a series of heartfelt letters to the late European guru Ralf Dahrendorf Several months after the fall of the Berlin Wall Dahrendorf wrote a book fashioned on Edmund Burke's Reflections on the Revolution in France Like Burke he chose to put his analysis in the form of a letter reflecting on the implications of the turbulent period around 1989 Thirty years later and faced with an equally turbulent period Jan Zielonka asks what next This is not a book on populism however it is a book about liberalism Populism has become a favourite topic within liberal circles and few have exposed populist deceptions and dangers better than liberal writers Yet liberals have shown themselves better at finger pointing than at self reflection This book addresses the imbalance it is a self critical book by a life time liberal Counter Revolution suggests that Europe and its liberal project need to be reinvented and recreated There is no simple way back Emmanuel Macron and Angela Merkel will not produce wonders Europe failed to adjust to enormous geopolitical economic and technological changes that swept the continent over the past three decades European models of democracy capitalism and integration are not in sync with new complex networks of cities bankers terrorists or migrants Liberal values that made Europe thrive for many decades have been betrayed The escalation of emotions myths and ordinary lies left little space for reason deliberation and conciliation This book examines these different aspects proposing a way out of the labyrinth
