Race and Resistance in Boston Robert Cvornyek, Douglas Stark, 2025 Race and Resistance in Boston reconstructs the history of Black sport in Boston from amateur to professional reimagining the crucial role it played in shaping the city s racial identity

Game of Privilege Lane Demas, 2017-09-11 This groundbreaking history of African Americans and golf explores the role of race class and public space in golf course development the stories of individual black golfers during the age of segregation the legal battle to integrate public golf courses and the little known history of the United Golfers Association UGA a black golf tour that operated from 1925 to 1975 Lane Demas charts how African Americans nationwide organized social campaigns filed lawsuits and went to jail in order to desegregate courses he also provides dramatic stories of golfers who boldly confronted wider segregation more broadly in their local communities As national civil rights organizations debated golf s symbolism and whether or not to pursue the game s integration black players and caddies took matters into their own hands and helped shape its subculture while UGA participants forged one of the most durable black sporting organizations in American history as they fought to join the white Professional Golfers Association PGA From George F Grant s invention of the golf tee in 1899 to the dominance of superstar Tiger Woods in the 1990s this revelatory and comprehensive work challenges stereotypes and indeed the fundamental story of race and golf in American culture

Links to the Past Patricia Kuhn Babin,2018-06-29 In summer 2016 the U S National Park Service began a study on the history and design of the National Park Service golf courses at East Potomac Park Rock Creek Park and Langston As enthusiasm for the sport began in the early 20th century the District of Columbia s public golf courses were built by the federal government for those who could not afford to play at the area s private clubs and as part of the expansion of parks and recreation facilities in the nation s capital Initially built between 1918 and 1939 the three courses hosted numerous tournaments Presidents of the United States renowned American golfers as well as countless local citizens The golf courses also played a role in the city s Civil Rights movement the National Park Service s position against segregation and the integration of the city s recreational facilities between 1941 and 1954 The National Park Service will use these studies as critical planning tools for the on going management interpretation and public use of the golf courses Discover more resources relating to Civil Rights Equal Opportunity EEO here <https://bookstore.gpo.gov/catalog/civil-rights-equal-opportunity-eeo> Other products produced by the U S Department of Interior National Park Service is available here <https://bookstore.gpo.gov/agency/national-park-service-nps>
