Het Binnenste Buiten Aspekten Van Het Moderne Teater:

Het binnenste buiten Pierre H. Dubois, 1970 Het antitheater van Antonin Artaud Thomas Crombez, 2008 What does it mean to violate the law on a theatrical stage This is the central question in the following examination of modern theatre beginning with the avant garde but also including the contemporary and iconoclastic work of the Soc etas Raffaello Sanzio For the historical avant garde art could be the gateway to a new and liberated reality But then all of existing reality first had to be demolished and its laws consistently violated Ultimately this transgressive programme ends in discouragement and self sabotage Such an anti theatre has been explored most extensively in the writings of the French director and essayist Antonin Artaud A careful exploration of Artaud s work emphasizing his actual theatrical productions shows that this paradox does not necessarily lead to a dead end Generalized transgression may lead to a theatre that belongs more to philosophy than to art itself The British Library General Catalogue of Printed Books to 1975 British Library (London), Jim Emmett, 1981
