Design Rebecca T. Miller,Barbara A. Genco,2015-12-28 Few librarians build more than one library in their careers and renovating or building a whole new library is a very expensive investment Thus new or refurbished structures need to be fresh and up to date While some librarians have the means to visit exemplary buildings as they develop their own library s master plan most library leaders and stakeholders won t actually see the full range of potential projects Hence this unique book is both a resource and a brainstorm prompt It helps library leaders and key stakeholders surface the ideal programmatic aspects that drive exciting design and offer recent design solutions that have been effectively implemented Better Library Design Ideas from Library Journal identifies and celebrates the top trends in library design capturing current state and provides an authoritative overview for those planning their own projects This is a colorful high content survey of dynamic library building projects completed in the last five years in both public and academic settings Anchored by Library Journal s New Landmark Libraries competition here is the nation s best examples of innovative functional appealing design all in glorious full color so you ll be both inspired and informed as you make important design choices Planning Public Library Buildings Michael Dewe,2016-04-22 Planning a new or refurbished public library means considering not only facilities for collections services staff and users but examining also the local context reviewing the library image and developing relationships with other community facilities and agencies This book examines the entire gamut of challenges confronting the planning and development of contemporary public libraries their mission their roles and key issues such as lifelong learning social inclusion community and cultural needs regeneration and funding The helpful presentation and readable style guides the librarian through the preliminary information gathering and decision making process that ensures a successful library building for all concerned Using practical case studies plans and photographs the author tackles the critical issues of siting size plans and design concepts and provides a helpful guide to weighing up the alternatives of refurbished converted and new buildings Separate chapters focus on the planning briefing and construction process security safety and sustainability key characteristics of successful buildings identity decor and signage and interior layout and facilities The text draws together a vast resource of real library examples from all over the world which provide best practice models and lessons to learn For funding authorities librarians and architects of public libraries this is a highly informative book that will help to ensure wise decision making and prevent costly mistakes Creating the High-Functioning Library Space Marta Mestrovic Deyrup, 2016-11-14 This book provides practical information and insights to library administrators and building plan team members at academic and public libraries who are considering or starting a library expansion or reconfiguration of existing space Building a new library or expanding or renovating an existing building brings up a host of questions and concerns not the least of which involves the future of the library This book addresses those issues in light of an overarching positive vision of libraries and their evolving purposes and roles in the 21st century This guide identifies and addresses all of the steps in the building process including preparing the request for proposal RFP selecting the right architect for the job developing a financial contingency plan and managing stakeholders expectations The book presents both the perspectives and experience of library administrators and management personnel as well as the insights of accomplished library architects and designers It provides thorough practical and current guidance in a process that library administrators often find daunting and risk immersive Reading this book is like sitting down with a knowledgeable impartial consultant before beginning a major renovation project a tremendous asset for library administrators as well as architectural firms

Beginnings of Interior Environments Lynn M. Jones, 2021-09-30 The gold standard for entry level interior design education now published by Wiley In this Eleventh Edition of Beginnings of Interior Environments accomplished interior designer and professor Lynn M Jones delivers a balanced and comprehensive overview of commercial and residential interior design Written to offer coverage of the creative and technical characteristics of the profession the text also addresses Council for Interior Design Accreditation CIDA content The book presents topics on the scope of the profession spatial development and visual literacy while also reviewing the factors of quality aesthetics Hundreds of images from actual design projects supplied by national and international design firms illustrate the design process Design Scenarios or case studies demonstrate examples of professional practice and in house production work students are likely to encounter during their career The text discusses issues of global importance from sustainability to universal design a pictorial essay reviews the history of style Readers will also enjoy An introduction to interior environments including the fundamentals of interior design and the health safety and welfare benefits of interior design An exploration of design fundamentals including the elements and principles of design with a special emphasis on color Practical discussions on building construction including construction components and codes as well as lighting electrical and communication systems An entire section dedicated to interior finishes upholstery wallcoverings and floorings and furnishings furniture art and accessories In depth examinations of the profession of interior design including career opportunities Beginnings of Interior Environments is perfect for students in an introductory interior design course and an indispensable resource for anyone seeking a balanced interior design perspective for their home or office Post-occupancy evaluation of library buildings Karen Latimer,Dorothea Sommer,2015-09-25 Architectural realisation of a building and its opening to the public with a range of services are central components of the building and design process of libraries Post Occupancy Evaluation POE is the final step in this process It provides a opportunity to assess whether the construction and design of the building has indeed met the library s and users requirements and how effectively the building functions Library of Congress Subject Headings Library of Congress. Cataloging Policy and Support Office,2009 IFLA Library Building Guidelines: Developments & Reflections Karen Latimer,Hellen Niegaard,2008-11-03 The information society and the information age are changing library services as well as library premises This raises questions about what needs to be considered when planning and designing new library buildings in order to achieve attractive efficient and future oriented new library spaces This new publication provides information and guidelines for the building planning process whether you are planning a new public or academic library building It reflects on fundamental issues on new development trends and on the planning process The library building process is seen from both the library manager s perspective as well as that of the architect and designer Issues covered include what to consider when investigating the need for space library design from a marketing viewpoint green management and sustainability relating to library buildings and a layman s guide to reading plans This publication and the IFLA guidelines provided are not seen as a traditional set of recommendations to be rigidly adhered to since this would be unrealistic in a fast changing and global context Rather library managers and architects should read them in order to inform their thinking on key issues and establish a planning programme They must then relate them to their own countries and circumstances by making the relevant local adjustments Eco-Library Design John A. Flannery,Karen M. Smith,2013-09-24 The ancient pairing of architecture and books has always been an interesting topic for debate and the increasing popularity of electronic books has recently added fuel to the fire However the bonfires built for the printed version remain unlit Research undertaken for this publication suggests that the traditional reading room is currently enjoying a renaissance in many different guises with print and digital media enjoying a symbiotic relationship The digital revolution is just one of the many challenges faced by the library architect To satisfy the varied requirements of library users flexible future proof indoor and outdoor spaces must now support both passive and active pursuits These often contrasting demands can vary dramatically from quiet contemplative reading to audible public performance This publication explores in detail the evolution of the eco library focusing on how design teams cope with diminishing resources in diverse geographic and climatic conditions The featured projects demonstrate measurable reductions in both construction and operating costs through innovative designs that utilise the ecology of a selected site in a positive way A library development will now inevitably seek to lead by example visibly demonstrating sound environmental practice and providing an enhanced user experience for increasingly more discerning patrons Eco Library Design provides a worldwide perspective on 21st century trends in library architecture Designing a School Library Media Center for the Future Rolf Erikson,Carolyn Markuson,2007-04-02 A guide to designing school library media centers that provides information on addressing the unique ergonomic and technology needs of children controlling costs using proven bidding and evaluation methods understanding the technical drawings and language used in architecture and other related topics Library Collection Development for Professional Programs: Trends and Best Practices Holder, Sara,2012-07-31 Collection development the process used by librarians to choose items for a particular library or section of a library can be time consuming and difficult due to the many factors that must be taken into consideration Library Collection Development for Professional Programs Trends and Best Practices addresses the challenging task of collection development in modern academic libraries which is largely learned on the job This publication contains practical advice and innovative strategies essential for current collection development librarians and future librarians seeking guidance in this complex position New Libraries in Old Buildings Petra Hauke,Karen Latimer,Robert Niess,2021-06-21 This book focuses on difficulties and opportunities in revitalization of old derelict or abandoned buildings into a library and investigates the transformation of buildings which originally had a different purpose The publication shows worldwide best practice examples from different types of libraries in historic environments both urban and rural while maintaining a focus on sustainability concerning the architecture and interior design How Green is My Library? Sam McBane Mulford,Ned A. Himmel,2009-12-22 While there is a broad spectrum of ecological sophistication within libraries nationwide and some regions are at the forefront of sustainable of sustainable design and operations others are just beginning or have yet to integrate materials recycling into their daily practice A few jurisdictions are mandating LEED certified buildings and carbon neutral practices while others do not yet have these concepts on their radars "Code of Massachusetts regulations, 2015" ,2015 Archival snapshot of entire looseleaf Code of Massachusetts Regulations held by the Social Law Library of Massachusetts as of January 2020 "Code of Massachusetts regulations, 2016" ,2016 Archival snapshot of entire looseleaf Code of Massachusetts Regulations held by the Social Law Library of Massachusetts as of January 2020
