Licht in huis Hermanna W.M. Plettenburg,1979 Energy in the Early Modern Home Wout Saelens,Bruno Blondé,Wouter Ryckbosch,2023-08-02 Uncovering for the first time the role played by home users in fostering energy changes this book explores the effects of energy transitions between the medieval and industrial era on the everyday life of Europeans and considers how cultural social and material changes in the home facilitated the transition towards a more energy demanding world This book delves deeper into the interactions between early modern consumers and the ecological constraints of the world surrounding them Experts on specific aspects of domestic energy use departing from different case studies in early modern Europe confront these central issues This book therefore offers a wide range of approaches within a long term and comparative perspective Different material cultures of energy across time and space and across different climates in Europe are explored Ultimately this book aims to consider how the early modern home not just adapted to energy changes but perhaps even prepared the way for our modern addiction to fossil energy Energy in the Early Modern Home is the perfect resource for students and scholars of early modern Europe premodern environmental history the history of consumption and material culture and the history of science and technology Trying-out Joost C. A. Schokkenbroek,2008 Until the present day whaling and sealing in the nineteenth century have hardly received attention in Dutch maritime historiography During the two preceding centuries whaling had developed into a prominent maritime industry Various major external and internal problems however contributed to its rapid decline during the second half of the eighteenth century After the Napoleonic Era 1795 1815 increasing numbers of Dutch entrepreneurs resumed whaling both in the Arctic and in the South Seas This book based on extensive research into unexplored archival sources and secondary literature fills many of the gaps in our understanding of how whaling and sealing were organised in the Netherlands Licht in huis Manda Plettenburg,1968 Beschrijving van de vervaardiging en de toepassing van verlichtingsmiddelen v r het tijdperk van gas en elektriciteit Materiële cultuur in de Krimpenerwaard in de zeventiende en achttiende eeuw Johan A.
