Life and Death Andrea Dworkin,1997 Lending her hand to tragic current events or what she calls emergencies like the murder of Nicole Brown Simpson the Hedda Nussbaum child abuse case and the mass murder of female students at a college in Montreal Dworkin makes clear in her inimitable way the obvious things we stubbornly fail to notice Prostitution, Women and Misuse of the Law Helen J. Self,2004-08-02 This is an examination from a feminist historian s standpoint of the background to the present system of regulating prostitution in Britain which is generally admitted to be not only unjust and discriminatory but ineffective even in achieving its stated aims Concentrating on the 1950s and especially on the Wolfenden Report and the 1959 Street Offences Act it is a thorough exposure of the sexual double standard and general misogynist assumptions underlying legislation relating to prostitution In addition to the detailed analysis of the 1950s legislation and the background to it there is an exposition of the subsequent workings of the Act and of attempts to amend or repeal it

Byerly, Karen Ross,2008-04-15 Women and Media is a thoughtful cross cultural examination of the ways in which women have worked inside and outside mainstream media organizations since the 1970s Rooted in a series of interviews with women media workers and activists collected specifically for this book the text provides an original insight into women s experiences Explains the ways that women have organized their internal and external campaigns to improve media content or working conditions for women and established womenowned media to gain a public voice Identifies key issues and developments in feminist media critiques and interventions over the last 30 years as these relate to production representation and consumption Functions as both a research case study and a teaching text

Ecstatic Consumption Pavlina Radia, 2016-12-14 While modernity aspired to fix radical alienation through aesthetics by assigning an ethical value to narratives contemporary literature and the arts are no longer immune to the impact of commodity culture amplified by globalization In the world of commodity corporate logic and cyborgs the very notion of identity is frequently turned into a spectacle Yet it is also simultaneously mobilized by the search for what Jean Baudrillard describes as the ecstatic form that materializes aesthetics Ecstatic Consumption The Spectacle of Global Dystopia in Contemporary American Literature investigates not only how these transformations affect gender racial and class relations as well as how they impact the representation of historical events Pop culture media and discourses of multiculturalism both important venues of and vehicles for globalization have had an extensive effect on contemporary writers like Don DeLillo Marge Piercy and Jane Smiley as have the discourses of terrorism and assimilation on the works of Diana Abu Jaber Chang Rae Lee Shalom Auslander and Alissa Torres As the works of these authors show the tendency to unify the world as a global village has been frequently complicit in perpetuating oppressive neo colonial ideologies As these writers reveal literature no longer provides a solid cure for the somnambulist culture of instant gratification On the global stage the body becomes the ultimate commodity the fetish of ecstatic consumption as it is persistently mobilized by the search for ecstatic avatar anti forms Whether these forms provide an escape into a utopian space or further enhance the dystopian ecstasy is a crucial query framing this book As it shows the works of DeLillo Smiley Piercy Abu Jaber Lee Auslander and Torres provide important and challenging commentaries on the ecstatic gaze of global dystopia particularly its appetite for alterity and the tragic often disguised as interchangeable metaphors of Otherness fear anxiety terror pain and pleasure titillation exoticism and ecstasy Consequently the book sheds light on the ways in which the culture of spectacle is ever evolving manipulating and affecting the global dependence on the ecstasy of consumption and its many different forms Ethical Research with Sex Workers Susan Dewey, Tiantian Zheng, 2013-04-23 This volume is the result of the many years the authors have spent conducting ethnographic field research with sex workers conversing with other researchers and perhaps most importantly developing a deep sense of empathy for the sex worker participants in the research as well as the colleagues who carry out this work with the goal of advancing social justice They have a combined total of twenty five years experience carrying out research with sex workers and this extensive period of time has given them ample opportunity to reflect upon the topic of ethics Sex work defined as the exchange of sexual or sexualized intimacy for money or something of value encompasses a wide range of legal and illegal behaviors that present researchers with key ethical challenges explored in the volume These ethical challenges include Research methodology Distinguishing research from activism Navigating the politically and ideologically charged environments in which researchers must remain constantly attuned to the legal and public policy implications of their work Possibilities for participatory sex work research processes Strategies for incorporating participants in a variety of collaborative ways Sex work presents a unique set of challenges that are not always well understood by those working outside of anthropology and disciplines closely related to it This book serves an important function by honestly and openly reviewing strategies for overcoming these ethical challenges with the end goal of producing path breaking research that actively incorporates the perspectives of research participants on their own terms Ever attuned to the reality that research on sex work remains a deeply political act Ethical Research with Sex Workers Anthropological Approaches aspires to begin a dialogue about the meanings and practices ascribed to ethics in a fraught environment Drawing upon a review of published scholarly and activist work on the subject as well as on interviews with researchers social service providers and sex workers themselves this volume is an unprecedented contribution to the literature that will engage researchers across a variety of disciplines such as academics and researchers in anthropology sociology criminal justice and public health as well as activists and policymakers

Why Internet Porn Matters Margret Grebowicz, 2013-02-27 Now that pornography is on the Internet its political and social functions have changed So contends Margret Grebowicz in this imperative philosophical analysis of Internet porn The production and consumption of Internet porn in her account are a symptom of the obsession with self exposure in today s social networking media which is in turn a symptom of the modern democratic construction of the governable subject as both transparent and communicative In this first feminist critique to privilege the effects of pornography's Internet distribution rather than what it depicts Grebowicz examines porn sharing communities such as the bestiality niche market and the politics of putting women's sexual pleasure on display the squirting market as part of the larger democratic project Arguing against this project she shows that sexual pleasure is not a human right Unlikely convergences between thinkers like Catherine MacKinnon Jean Baudrillard Judith Butler and Jean Fran ois Lyotard allow her to formulate a theory of the relationships between sex speech and power that stands as an alternative to such cyber libertarian mottos as freedom of speech and sexual freedom

Introduction to Feminist Jurisprudence Hilaire Barnett, 2013-09-05 First Published in 1998 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company

Not for Sale Rebecca Whisnant, Christine Stark, 2004 Prostitution and pornography are linked with racism and male dominance as well as with imperialism militarism including torture and global corporate culture The result is devastating harm for women and children within these industries Subjected to physical and psychological violence poverty drug addiction and homelessness are their usual companions With its mix of personal stories theory research testimony and accounts of current activism Not For Sale will be an invaluable resource for all those seeking to inform themselves about the realities of the sex business and will serve to strengthen and broaden feminist resistance to pornography and prostitution

Freedom and Equality Clare Chambers, 2024-03-19 Should the state recognise gender Can a liberal state discourage traditional family structures Is women's sport compatible with equality of opportunity Should feminists defend women's freedom to choose cosmetic surgery Is genital cutting always wrong or is it only wrong for girls Freedom and Equality investigates the contours of feminist liberalism a philosophical approach that is appealing but elusive Its hallmark is a liberalism that prioritises equality and individual autonomy while offering a rigorous critique of using individuals choices as the measure of justice Liberalism without feminism prioritises individual choice a strategy that has played a crucial role in the liberal defence of freedom against authoritarianism and conformity However as feminism shows relying on individual choice is insufficient to render an outcome just because people often choose things that harm or disadvantage themselves From beauty norms to the gendered division of labour from marriage to religion women and men choose to arrange their lives in ways that perpetuate inequality Often these choices are made in response to social norms including unjust unequal or harmful norms It follows that relying on individual choice as a measure of justice actually leaves unjust social structures intact Any defender of autonomy and equality must be prepared to criticise individuals choices while prioritising individual choosers The essays in this collection cover a wide range of issues fundamental to liberalism to feminism and to their intersection They explore the foundational philosophical concepts of choice equality of opportunity ideology and the state and they engage directly with key political controversies including women's sport the state recognition of gender the regulation of cosmetic and cultural surgeries and state action to secure equality in the family Clare Chambers argues that feminist liberalism is both possible and necessary It is possible because the two doctrines of feminism and liberalism are compatible their fundamental values of freedom and equality aligned But feminism is necessary because liberalism has shown that it is simply not up to the task of securing gender equality and women s liberation alone
