Life On The Hyphen The Cuban American Way:

Life on the Hyphen Gustavo Pérez Firmat, 2012-05-01 An expanded updated edition of the classic study of Cuban American culture this engaging book which mixes the author's own story with his reflections as a trained observer explores how both famous and ordinary members of the 1.5 Generation Cubans who came to the United States as children or teens have lived life on the hyphen neither fully Cuban nor fully American but a fertile hybrid of both Offering an in depth look at Cuban Americans who have become icons of popular and literary culture including Desi Arnaz Oscar Hijuelos musician Pérez Prado and crossover pop star Gloria Estefan as well as poets Jos Kozar and Orlando González Esteva performers Willy Chirino and Carlos Oliva painter Humberto Calzada and others Gustavo Pérez Firmat chronicles what it means to be Cuban in America The first edition of Life on the Hyphen won the Eugene M Kayden National University Press Book Award and received honorable mentions for the Modern Language Association's Katherine Singer Kovacs Prize and the Latin American Studies Association's Bryce Wood Book Award

Photographic Ekphrasis in Cuban-American Fiction Louisa Söllner, 2018-09-24 Photographic Ekphrasis in Cuban American Fiction offers new readings of Cuban American novels and autobiographies demonstrating that a focus on photographs alluded to analyzed and/or obsessively recurrent in the narrative discourse provides fresh insights into these texts The study introduces the concept of photographic ekphrasis as a reading tool for diasporic literature and argues that visual images are important components of narratives about dislocation nostalgia and transcultural experience Authors treated in depth include Carlos Eire Cristina García Oscar Hijuelos Roberto G Fernández Ana Menéndez Achy Obejas and Gustavo Pérez Firmat Missing Pictures offers an original perspective on Cuban American literature and contributes to the scholarship on ekphrasis and on the interactions between photography and narrative

Archival Dissonance in the U.S. Cuban Post-Exile Novel Gregory Helmick, 2016-01-14 Archival Dissonance in the U.S. Cuban Post-Exile Novel documents a body of emergent US Cuban literature published in Spanish and English beyond the scope and historicity of exile Focusing on the work of Roberto G Fernández Ana Menéndez and Antonio Benítez Rojo the book proposes that rather than reinforce US Cuban exile ethnic identity developed between 1960 and the 1980s or demonstrate a tendency toward cultural assimilation Americanization over three generations of writers the discussed historical novels incorporate Caribbean and Latin American archival sources and interpretive frameworks in order to develop a critical and investigative approach to the politics of Cuban exile historiography Published before the recent apertura between the US and Cuban governments these post exile novels anticipate themes of displacement migration and social marginalization as common rather than exceptional features of modern and historical life as well as such other current and historical topics as gender construction and performance figurations of race the commoditization of culture and urban poverty The post exile historical novel points to a future for US Cuban narrative and historiography in part by investigating and featuring dissonances hidden or unacknowledged in previous Cuban exile historical fiction The literature studied in this book further reinforces a view of two way migration between Cuba and the United States as a normal phenomenon predating 1959 and at the same time as a likely shape of things to come      U.S. Latino Literature Margarite Fernández Olmos, Harold Augenbraum, 2000-09-30 In the past ten years literature by U S Latinos has gained an extraordinary public currency and has engendered a great deal of interest among educators Because of the increase in numbers of Latinos in their classrooms teachers have recognized the benefits of including works by such important writers as Sandra Cisneros Julia Alvarez and Rudolfo Anaya in the curriculum Without a guide introducing courses on U S Latino literature or integrating individual works into the general courses on American Literature can be difficult for the uninitiated While some critical sources for students and teachers are available none are dedicated exclusively to this important body of writing To fill the gap the editors of this volume commissioned prominent scholars in the field to write 18 essays that focus on using U S Latino literature in the classroom The selection of the subject texts was developed in conjunction with secondary school teachers who took part in the editors course This resultant volume focuses on major works that are appropriate for high school and undergraduate study including Judith Ortiz Cofer s The Latin Deli Piri Thomas Down These Mean Streets and Cisneros The House on Mango Street Each chapter in this Critical Guide provides pertinent biographical background on the author as well as contextual information that aids in understanding the literary and cultural significance of the work The most valuable component of the critical essays the Analysis of Themes and Forms helps the reader understand the thematic concerns raised by the work particularly the recurring issues of language expression and cultural identity assimilation and intergenerational conflicts Each essay is followed by specific suggestions for teaching the work with topics for classroom discussion Further enhancing the value of this work as a teaching tool are the selected bibliographies of criticism further reading and other related sources that complete each chapter Teachers will also find a Sample Course Outline of U S Latino Literature which serves as guide for developing a course on this important subject      Cuba on My Mind Roman De La Campa, 2002-09-17 In this moving and personal account of the forty three year old divide between Cuba and its exile population in the United States Rom n de la Campa questions both sides of a family feud that is acutely reflective of its own experience Taking the three migration waves of Cubans to the United States as a historical background to his own story the author details the continuing rift between Havana and Miami and the shaping in the light of globalization and post socialism of a Cuban national split which has obvious consequences for both countries      Imagined Transnationalism K. Concannon, F. Lomelí, M. Priewe, 2009-11-09 With its focus on Latino communities in the United States this collection of essays identifies and investigates the salient narrative and aesthetic strategies with which an individual or a collective represents transnational experiences and identities in literary and cultural texts      Nuevos mundos Ana Roca, 2011-12-06 This book develops the communication and literacy skills of heritage Spanish speakers with exercises that are designed to improve oral and written proficiency in the language Nuevos mundos uses the cultures and voices of the major Hispanic groups in the United States as well as those of Latin America and

Spain to familiarize students with a variety of issues and topics which are sometimes controversial and always thought provoking

The Diaspora Strikes Back Juan Flores, 2010-04-02 In The Diaspora Strikes Back the eminent ethnic and cultural studies scholar Juan Flores flips the process on its head what happens to the home country when it is being constantly fed by emigrants returning from abroad He looks at how Nuyoricans Puerto Rican New Yorkers have transformed the home country introducing hip hop and modern New York culture to the Caribbean island While he focuses on New York and Mayaguez in Puerto Rico the model is broadly applicable Indians introducing contemporary British culture to India New York Dominicans bringing slices of New York culture back to the Dominican Republic Mexicans bringing LA culture from fast food to heavy metal back to Guadalajara and Monterrey This ongoing process is both massive and global and Flores novel account will command a significant audience across disciplines

To Tell a Black Story of Miami Tatiana D. McInnis, 2022-12-13 How portrayals of anti Blackness in literature and film challenge myths about South Florida history and culture In this book Tatiana McInnis examines literary and cultural representations of Miami alongside the city's material realities to challenge the image of South Florida as a diverse cosmopolitan paradise McInnis discusses how this favorable melting pot narrative depends on the obfuscation of racialized violence against people of African descent Analyzing novels short stories and memoirs by Edwidge Danticat M J Fievre Carlos Moore Carlos Eire Patricia Stephens Due and Tananarive Due as well as films such as Dawg Fight and Moonlight McInnis demonstrates how these creations push back against erasure by representing the experiences of Black Americans and immigrants from Caribbean nations McInnis considers portrayals of state sanctioned oppression residential segregation violent detention of emigres and increasing wealth gaps and concludes that celebrations of Miami's diversity disguise the pervasive adaptive nature of white supremacy and anti Blackness To Tell a Black Story of Miami offers a model of how to use literature as a primary archive in urban studies It draws attention to the similarities and divergences between Miami's Black diasporic communities a historically underrepresented demographic in popular and scholarly awareness of the city Increasing understanding of Miami's political social and economic inequities this book brings greater nuance to traditional narratives of exceptionalism in cities and regions Publication of this work made possible by a Sustaining the Humanities through the American Rescue Plan grant from the National Endowment for the Humanities

Global Television Formats Sharon Shahaf, Tasha Oren, 2013-06-17 Global Television Formats aims to revise the place of the global in television studies The essays gathered here explore the diversity of global programming and approaches and ask how to theorize contemporary global formats and thus re shape our understanding of television as at once a shared global and specific local text an economic system a socio political institution and a popular practice The contributors explore a wide array of television programming from the Middle East Western and Eastern Europe South Asia North America Latin America and Brazil and represent a br

Multilingual Currents in Literature, Translation and Culture Rachael Gilmour, Tamar Steinitz, 2017-08-23 At a time increasingly dominated by globalization migration and the clash between supranational and ultranational ideologies the relationship between language and borders has become more complicated and in many ways more consequential than ever This book shows how concepts of language and multilingualism look different when viewed from Belize Lagos or London and asks how ideas about literature and literary form must be remade in a contemporary cultural marketplace that is both linguistically diverse and interconnected even as it remains profoundly unequal Bringing together scholars from the fields of literary studies applied linguistics publishing and translation studies the volume investigates how multilingual realities shape not only the practice of writing but also modes of literary and cultural production Chapters explore examples of literary multilingualism and their relationship to the institutions of publishing translation and canon formation They consider how literature can be read in relation to other multilingual and translational forms of contemporary cultural circulation and what new interpretative strategies such developments demand In tracing the multilingual currents running across a globalized world this book will appeal to the growing international readership at the intersections of comparative literature world literature postcolonial studies literary theory and criticism and translation studies

Ethnic American Literature Emmanuel S. Nelson, 2015-02-17 Unlike any other book of its kind this volume celebrates published works from a broad range of American ethnic groups not often featured in the typical canon of literature This culturally rich encyclopedia contains 160 alphabetically arranged entries on African American Asian American Latino a and Native American literary traditions among others The book introduces the uniquely American mosaic of multicultural literature by chronicling the achievements of American writers of non European descent and highlighting the ethnic diversity of works from the colonial era to the present The work features engaging topics like the civil rights movement bilingualism assimilation and border narratives Entries provide historical overviews of literary periods along with profiles of major authors and great works including Toni Morrison Maxine Hong Kingston Maya Angelou Sherman Alexie A Raisin in the Sun American Born Chinese and The House on Mango Street The book also provides concise overviews of genres not often featured in textbooks like the Chinese American novel African American young adult literature Mexican American autobiography and Cuban American poetry

The Socialist Sixties Anne E. Gorsuch, Diane P. Koenker, 2021-12-22 A very engaging collection of essays that adds much to an evolving literature on the social history of the Soviet Union and broader socialist societies Choice The 1960s have reemerged in scholarly and popular culture as a protean moment of cultural revolution and social transformation In this volume socialist societies in the Second World the Soviet Union East European countries and Cuba are the springboard for exploring global interconnections and cultural cross pollination between communist and capitalist countries and within the communist world Themes explored include flows of people and media the emergence of a flourishing youth culture sharing of songs films and personal experiences through tourism and international festivals and the rise of a socialist consumer culture and an esthetics of modernity Challenging traditional categories of analysis and periodization this book brings the sixties problematic to Soviet studies while introducing the socialist experience into scholarly conversations traditionally dominated by First World perspectives      Mambo Montage Agustín Laó-Montes, Arlene Dávila, 2001-06-13 New York is the capital of mambo and a global factory of latinidad This book covers the topic in all its multifaceted aspects from Jim Crow baseball in the first half of the twentieth century to hip hop and ethno racial politics from Latinas and labor unions to advertising and Latino culture from Cuban cuisine to the language of signs in New York City Together the articles map out the main conceptions of Latino identity as well as the historical process of Latinization of New York Mambo Montage is both a way of imagining latinidad and an angle of vision on the city
