No Nation! the life and times of the Honourable Ruairaidh Erskine of Marr* Gerard Cairns, 2021-06-30 The Honourable Ruairaidh Erskine of Marr led a life very much on the move He has left us no personal papers although his stamp is across the personal papers of many others and he has been written about by several eminent scholars Erskine had his supporters most notably the historian and Gaelic language activist Seumas Mac A Ghobhainn who hailed him as a forgotten Gaelic patriot He has had his critics too the BBC s Andrew Marr wrote that in colloquial terms he was a bit of a nutter However Hugh MacDiarmid said regarding Erskine Justice will be done to him yet with a biography This is it and it is long overdue The Life and Times of Daniel O'Connell Thomas Clarke Luby, 1879 Beowulf the Jute; His Life and Times William Pearson, 2017-06-26 The epic poem Beowulf has been explored by many scholars but personal acquaintance revealed that some important aspects always seem to have been overlooked This book s intention was to correct such omissions but discrepancy turned out to be widespread Rather than being solely a contribution to Scandinavia s history the material mainly illustrates aspects of English origins as viewed by one of their own kind A post Roman doomed culture arose in eastern England Largely ignored in English records the history of this is obscure but the geography is even more so since reliable place names are but few The poem predominantly served as an allegorical tool and laced with folklore was used to comment on the behaviour of those in leadership roles both in politics and religion Synthesis even allows an identity to be suggested for the poet The life and times of Daniel O'Connell. Rasmus Brandt, Erika Hagelberg, Gro Bjørnstad, Sven Ahrens, 2016-12-31 Life and Death in Asia Minor combines contributions in both archaeology and bioarchaeology in Asia Minor in the period ca 200 BC AD 1300

for the first time The archaeology topics are wide ranging including death and territory death and landscape perception death and urban transformations from pagan to Christian topography changing tomb typologies funerary costs family organization funerary rights rituals and practices among pagans Jews and Christians inhumation and Early Byzantine cremations and use and reuse of tombs The bioarchaeology chapters use DNA isotope and osteological analyses to discuss both among children and adults questions such as demography and death rates pathology and nutrition body actions genetics osteobiography and mobility patterns and diet The areas covered in Asia Minor include the sites of Hierapolis Laodikeia Aphrodisias Tlos Ephesos Priene Kyme Pergamon Amorion Gordion Boazkale and Arslantepe The theoretical and methodological approaches used make it highly relevant for people working in other geographical areas and time periods Many of the articles could be used as case studies in teaching at schools and universities An important objective of the publication has been to see how the different types of results emerging from archaeological and natural science studies respectively could be integrated with each other and pose new questions on ancient societies which were far more complex than historical and social studies of the past often manage to transmit
