Life in Motion Misty Copeland, Brandy Colbert, 2022-11-08 Determination meets dance in this middle grade adaptation of the New York Times bestselling memoir by the first female African American principal dancer in American Ballet Theatre history Misty Copeland. Misty Copeland has been breaking down all kinds of barriers in the world of dance becoming the first African American principal dancer at the American Ballet Theatre. But when she first started dancing at the late age of thirteen no one would have guessed the shy underprivileged girl would one day make history in her field. Her road to excellence was not easy. A challenging home life was a stark contrast to the control and comfort she found on stage. And when her home life and incredible dance promise began to clash Misty had to learn to stand up for herself and navigate complex relationships with her family and the dance world while pursuing her ballet dreams. Life in Motion is a story for all the kids who dare to be different, dream bigger, and aspire to break stereotypes in whatever they do. Life in Motion Misty Copeland, Brandy Colbert, 2017 As the first female African American principal dancer at the American Ballet Theatre, Misty Copeland has been breaking down all kinds of barriers in the world of dance. But when she first started dancing at the late age of thirteen no one would have guessed the shy underprivileged girl would one day make history in her field. Her road to excellence was not easy. A chaotic home life with several siblings and a single mother was a stark contrast to the control and comfort she found on stage. And when her home life and incredible dance promise began to clash Misty had to learn to stand up for herself and navigate complex relationships with her family and the dance world while pursuing her ballet dreams.

Life in Motion Misty Copeland, Charisse Jones, 2014-03-04 Profiles the life and career of the professional ballerina covering from when she began dance classes at age thirteen in an after school community center through becoming the only African American soloist dancing with the American Ballet Theatre. Life in Motion Misty Copeland, 2015 In this instant New York Times bestseller Misty Copeland makes history as the only African American soloist dancing with the prestigious American Ballet Theatre. But when she first placed her hands on the barre at an after school community center no one expected the undersized, anxious thirteen-year-old to become a groundbreaking ballerina. When she discovered ballet Misty was living in a shabby motel room, struggling with her five siblings for a place to sleep on the floor. A true prodigy, she was dancing en pointe within three months of taking her first dance class and performing professionally in just over a year, a feat unheard of for any classical dancer. But when Misty became caught between the control and comfort she found in the world of ballet and the harsh realities of her own life, culminating in a highly publicized custody battle, she had to choose to embrace both her identity and her dreams and find the courage to be one of a kind. Life in Motion is an insider's look at the cutthroat world of professional ballet as well as a moving story of passion and grace for anyone who has dared to dream of a different life.
