Russell Walker,2015-02-21 For more years than most of todays population could possibly recall I had been writing poems about my family my own true adventure stories and just about anything of interest to me which has been just about anything I had catalogued shelved boxed and stored material throughout the years all the while that I had been experiencing the many facets of my more varied than some life From the time that I was a little farm kid the workings of nature and its wild faces had held intrigue to my mind Consequently by the time that I became old and bold enough to begin my own quest of adventure I just plainly let it happen Any opportunity to explore life and of things not yet known to me became open season for my whims In those early years I had managed to scribble down numerous discoveries that evolved as I waded through life's happenings. Eventually I had accumulated many written utterances and at first kept them in piles and eventually files. Through the urgings of family and friends it has come to the point of sharing my writings of adventurous ramblings with others. But where should I start? The grab bag of writings that I have dealt from for this first widely published volume of mine, which I had decided to name Down Life's Trail, for in many ways it does reflect selections written by myself along the bumpy road of life. At the age of twenty-two I had started out on my own after schooling for the profession as a photographer. This required traveling many miles, first within Maine then to other locations across the country and involving aerial photos along with all others I had recorded and kept records of many of the special locations that I had flown over or photographed both in writings and photos. Now has come the time for me to pursue the publishing of some of my collections. I had promised to my local audience that had been reading my work over the years that I would indeed take a shot at publishing a book of poetry. My decision, right or wrong, is now to begin my offerings with this aptly named volume of Down Life's Trail, for the following has been derived from short story poems written as I was tripping along life's trail. Hopefully you will read and enjoy the enclosed pages that have been randomly selected from the far-reaching trail of my life.

The Cherokee Diaspora Gregory D. Smithers, 2015-09-29. The Cherokee are one of the largest Native American tribes in the United States with more than three hundred thousand people across the country claiming tribal membership and nearly one million people internationally professing to have at least one Cherokee Indian ancestor. In this revealing history of Cherokee migration and resettlement, Gregory Smithers uncovers the origins of the Cherokee diaspora and explores how communities and individuals have negotiated their Cherokee identities even when geographically removed from the Cherokee Nation headquartered in Tahlequah, Oklahoma. Beginning in the eighteenth century, the author transports the reader back in time to tell the poignant story of the Cherokee people migrating throughout North America, including their forced exile along the infamous Trail of Tears, 1838-39. Smithers tells a remarkable story of courage, cultural innovation, and resilience, exploring the importance of migration and removal, land and tradition, culture and language in defining what it has meant to be Cherokee for a widely scattered people.
