Transformation, and the Future of Teachers' Colleges in Zimbabwe Costain Tandi, Munyaradzi Mawere, Wilson Zivave, Rosina Mavunga, 2025-06-12 This pioneering volume explores Zimbabwe's evolving educational landscape and offers crucial insights into the future of teacher training. Authored by leading education experts, it examines the core concepts of curriculum innovation and modularization, highlighting their vital role in transforming teaching practices and improving student learning outcomes in Zimbabwean Teacher Colleges. By directly addressing the ongoing curriculum transformation, the book analyses its strengths, weaknesses, challenges, and opportunities, providing a visionary path for the future of teacher education in Zimbabwe. Drawing on rigorous research and practical examples, it underscores the need to adapt teaching methods to the evolving educational demands of a rapidly changing Zimbabwean society. Championing the power of modularization, this resource is an essential guide for all committed to building a more inclusive and transformative education system. The Transformational Leader Matt Mayberry, 2024-05-07 NATIONAL BESTSELLER

Lead teams and organizations to unparalleled excellence through transformational leadership. As we face a global leadership crisis, the decade of real-world experience and research from best-selling author and renowned thought leader Matt Mayberry in The Transformational Leader has never been more timely. Mayberry shares his experience working with hundreds of corporate leadership teams, transforming underperforming teams into top performers and coaching executives to become the leaders their organizations need through transformational leadership's four core attributes: idealized influence, inspirational motivation, intellectual stimulation, and individualized consideration. This book is more than just a guide to a proven approach to achieving leadership success; it's a call to action that challenges you to step outside your comfort zone and create a culture where everyone feels valued, heard, and inspired. In this book, readers will learn about confronting the reality of the leadership crisis and realizing that the actions that got us here won't get us to where we want to go. How our dependence on technology has left leaders unprepared for disruption after disruption, including the arrival of AI. Leadership principles grounded in robust research, empirical data, and proven success, such as agility coaching and influence. The importance of inspirational leadership and how to become an inspirational leader yourself. How to start influencing and impacting others regardless of rank, title, or position. The Transformational Leader earns a well-deserved spot on the bookshelves of executives, managers, and anyone seeking to make a bigger impact and influence others adapt to changes in modern leadership and promote positive change in themselves and throughout their organizations      Facilitating Counseling Groups John Chapman, III, Brad Hambrick, 2023-10-16 Facilitating Counseling Groups the second book in the Church Based Counseling series provides training for lay leaders to guide a group based church counseling ministry G4 model that addresses common life struggles

Shaping the College Curriculum Lisa R. Lattuca, Joan S. Stark, 2009-08-17 Shaping the College Curriculum focuses on curriculum development as an important decision making process in colleges and universities The authors define curriculum as an academic plan developed in a historical social and political context They identify eight curricular elements that are addressed intentionally or unintentionally in developing all college courses and programs By exploring the interaction of these elements in context they use the academic plan model to clarify the processes of course and program planning enabling instructors and administrators to ask crucial questions about improving teaching and optimizing student learning This revised edition continues to stress research based educational practices The new edition consolidates and focuses discussion of institutional and sociocultural factors that influence curricular decisions All chapters have been updated with recent research findings relevant to curriculum leadership accreditation assessment and the influence of academic fields while two new chapters focus directly on learning research and its implications for instructional practice A new chapter drawn from research on organizational change provides practical guidance to assist faculty members and administrators who are engaged in extensive program improvements Streamlined yet still comprehensive and detailed this revised volume will continue to serve as an invaluable resource for individuals and groups whose work includes planning designing delivering evaluating and studying curricula in higher education This is an extraordinary book that offers not a particular curriculum or structure but a comprehensive approach for thinking about the curriculum ensuring that important considerations are not overlooked in its revision or development and increasing the likelihood that students will learn and develop in ways institutions hope they will The book brings coherence and intention to what is typically an unstructured haphazard and only partially rational process guided more by beliefs than by empirically grounded substantive information Lattuca and Stark present their material in ways that are accessible and applicable across planning levels course program department and institution local settings and academic disciplines It s an admirable and informative marriage of scholarship and practice and an insightful guide to both Anyone who cares seriously about how we can make our colleges and universities more educationally effective should read this book Patrick T Terenzini distinguished professor and senior scientist Center for the Study of Higher Education The Pennsylvania State University      The Bloomsbury Handbook of Diversity, Crises and Transformative Leadership in Higher Education Yusef Waghid, Mary Drinkwater, 2024-09-05 The Bloomsbury Handbook of Diversity Crises and Transformative Leadership in Higher Education explores the intersections of contemporary understandings and practices of leadership within higher education around diversity inclusion and indigeneity With contributions from four continents the handbook brings together diverse perspectives to explore a range of topics including

The Learning Edge Alan Bain,Mark E. Weston,2015-04-17 After billions of dollars thousands of studies and immeasurable effort by educators at all levels why is the performance of students and teachers so unaffected by technology Moreover what should be done to extract genuine benefit from the information and communication technology ICT revolution In this groundbreaking book technology and education experts Alan Bain and Mark Weston provide research based evidence for how the widespread application of ICT can provide powerful learning opportunities that lead to lasting gains and achievement They show how the integrated use of technology at all levels of the educational system can greatly expand collaborative learning opportunities by giving all educational stakeholders powerful problem solving tools and solutions The approaches presented here are grounded in over twenty years of experience working with classroom teachers school leaders association members and policymakers EBOOK: Learning Science Teaching: Developing A Professional Knowledge Base Keith Bishop,Paul Denley,2007-11-16 Bishop and Denley in Learning Science Teaching have focused as much on good pedagogy as on the peculiarities of science teaching It is for this reason that their book will be of value not only to trainees in education but also to a range of professionals working in schools Higher Education and in particular to those responsible for planning and delivering CPD It is far more than a test for trainee teachers Science Teacher Education Any science teacher looking for ways to improve their teaching will find this book helpful there is perceptive discussion of almost everything that can happen in a science classroom and related work outside it Physics Education What do you need to know to be a successful science teacher How do you develop or acquire that knowledge If you are just embarking on your learning journey as a science teacher or are involved in supporting beginning and early career teachers on their way then this book is written for you The authors show how the route to success involves the development of a personal yet distinctive and complex set of inter related professional knowledge bases Throughout the book the classroom practice of a group of highly accomplished science teachers is analysed to reveal the knowledge bases that they have acquired which the reader can then reflect upon In addition students provide penetrating insights into the kinds of science teaching that engages them The book argues that highly accomplished science teachers are also continually learning science teachers It stresses the importance of learning through others by participation in communities of science practitioners as well as individual learning through classroom research Whether you are a beginning teacher or a more experienced teacher looking to support beginning and early career teachers this book offers a rich source of experiences ideas and insights to support you on your journey to becoming a successful science teacher

The Elusive What and the Problematic How, 2008-01-01 For the authors in this book there can be no valid excuses for ignorance in any aspect of education as theory practice That is If we come to learn that all educational problems involve knowledge of complex systems and processes then quick simple solutions should not be an educator s first or only expedient option If all education requires a measure of cultural and contextual understandings then uniform standardized programs and lessons will not meet the needs of all children or communities If educational change takes time and strenuous efforts to take hold then why do we abandon and restart reforms efforts year after year If educational practices are best performed by those closest to the problems then why do we not prepare and continuously develop teachers and administrators to grow intellectually and politically to make wise decisions If who a person is culturally and intellectually shapes who they are as educators then why are our recruitment selection induction and retention policies not influenced by this assumption If today s best practices have not taken careful note of successes in the past then how do we validly measure best practices in use today If one time standardized test scores are not adequate measures of a person s worth a teacher s competency or a school s value to its community then why do our policies and practices say otherwise Unfortunately our ignorance of the what and the how of education and educational leadership has persisted across contexts and history Why This book provides both theoretical and practical answers to these elusive and problematic issues
