Lifebuoy Men Lux Women Commodification Consumption And Cleanliness In Modern Zimbabwe:

Lifebuoy Men, Lux Women Timothy Burke, 1996 How do people come to need products they never even knew they wanted How for example did indigenous Zimbabweans of the 1940s begin to believe that they required Lifebuoy soap Offering a glimpse into the intimate workings of modern colonialism and global capitalism Timothy Burke takes up these questions in Lifebuoy Men Lux Women a study of post World War II commodity culture in Zimbabwe With particular attention to cosmetic products and the contrast between colonial and pre colonial ideas of cleanliness Burke examines the role played by commodity culture changing patterns of consumption and the spread of advertising in the making of modern Zimbabwe His work combines history anthropology and political economy to show how the development of commodification in the region relates to the social history of hygiene Within this framework and drawing on a wide variety of historical sources Burke explores dense interactions between commodity culture and embodied aspects of race gender sexuality domesticity health and aesthetics in a colonial society Rather than viewing the production of needs simply as an imposition from above Lifebuoy Men Lux Women shows what heterogeneous and complex processes involving the aims and histories of both colonizers and colonized produced these changes in Zimbabwean society Integrating political economy cultural studies and a wide range of the social sciences Lifebuoy Men Lux Women will find readers among scholars of colonialism African history and ethnography as well those for whom the problem of commodification is a significant theoretical issue Lifebuoy Men, Lux Women Timothy Burke, 1996 How do people come to need products they never knew they even wanted How for example did indigenous Zimbabweans of the 1940s begin to believe that they required Lifebuoy soap With particular attention to cosmetic products and the contrast between colonial and pre colonial ideas about cleanliness this text examines the role played by commodity culture and its agents in the making of modern Zimbabwe It combines history social anthropology and political economy to show how the development of commodification in the region relates to the social history of hygiene Within this framework and drawing on a wide variety of historical sources the author explores the interactions between commodity culture and embodies aspects of race gender sexuality domesticity health and aesthetics in a colonial society Lifebuoy Men, Lux Women Timothy Burke, 1995 The Modern Girl Around the World Alys Eve The Modern Girl around the World Research Group, Alys Eve Weinbaum, Lynn M. Thomas, Priti Ramamurthy, Uta G. Poiger, Madeleine Yue Dong, Tani Barlow, 2008-12-24 A collection that examines the global phenomenon of the Modern Girl that emerged in the 1920s and 30s American Commodities in an Age of Empire Mona Domosh, 2006 This is a novel interpretation of the relationship between consumerism commercialism and imperialism during the first empire building era of America in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries Unlike other empires in history which were typically built on military power the first American empire was primarily a commercial one dedicated to pushing products overseas and dominating foreign markets While the American government was important it was the great capitalist firms of America Heinz Singer McCormick Kodak Standard Oil that drove the imperial process explicitly linking the purchase of consumer goods overseas with civilization Their persistent message to America s prospective customers was buy American products and join the march of progress Domosh also explores how the images of peoples overseas conveyed through goods elevated America s sense of itself in the world

Contact Zones Myra Rutherdale,Katie Pickles,2007-10 This provocative book examines how women were uniquely positioned at the axis of the colonial encounter the so called contact zone between Aborigines and newcomers

North-south Linkages and Connections in Continental and Diaspora African Literatures African Literature Association. Meeting,2005 This volume collects some of the best lectures at the African Literature Association s 25th annual conference held in 1999 The conference brought together for the first time a large number of scholars creative writers and artists from Northern Africa and their counterparts from Sub Saharan Africa The conference and this collection highlight the inspiring and stimulating dialogue between two literary and cultural areas that have often been artificially compartmentalised The essays draw suprising connections and illustrate the breadth and dynamism of African literature

Decoding Modern Consumer Societies H. Berghoff,U. Spiekermann,2012-01-02 Drawing on a wide range of studies of Europe the United States Asia and Africa the contributions gathered here consider how political history business history the history of science cultural history gender history intellectual history anthropology and even environmental history can help us decode modern consumer societies

Sexuality and Identity Leslie J. Moran,2017-11-30 Born in the late nineteenth century sexuality is a relatively new category within the human sciences in general and law and society scholarship in particular Despite its novelty it is now a central category through which we understand ourselves both as individuals and as members of communities This volume offers a collection of essays selected to reflect the ever widening horizons and diverse methodologies of law and society scholarship on sexual and identity in law The essays offer an insight into some of the key themes and recent developments in this body of work Each in different ways offers an evaluation of the nature meaning and effects of sexuality thereby providing a critical evaluation of the politics of sexual identity as it appears in and through the law

The Place of Tears Ranka Primorac,2006-06-30 THIS IS AN NJR NOT JACKET BLURB DO NOT USE IT THIS RAW FORM This new and original work is the only recent monographic treatment of the Zimbabwean novel and its political implications An earlier one by Veit Wild 1992 has not been updated and other such as that by Zhuwarara 2001 are not easily available outside Zimbabwe The author resided in Zimbabwe for almost a decade and has visited the country regularly in the last five years She has published extensively on Zimbabwean literature and brings to her work a deep contextual richness as well as theoretical sophistication Thoroughly up to date the book examines all the published novels of the recently deceased Yvonne Vera d April 2005 as well as major novels of five other internationally acclaimed Zimbabwean writers including Tsitsi Dangarembga and Chenjerai Hove It does so against a political backdrop which goes right up to the March 2005 parliamentary elections The book provides a modern and original historical account of post independence Zimbabwean

writing and its relationship to history and politics The critical investigation focuses on fictional representations of space time which links the book the tragically topical Zimbabwean issue of land Dr Primorac employs a form of literary and cultural theory reminiscent of Bakhtinian analysis but drawn at length from East European theoretical sources She investigates what the novels have to say about the Zimbabwean condition and makes a sophisticated link between ideas about space time and novelistic ideologies More than that drawing a parallel with the experience of Eastern Europe she shows how the novel itself breaks out of the confines of the quasi Marxist analysis which still holds sway in Zimbabwe As such the Zimbabwean novel is itself a source of hope in that troubled land Ranka Primorac has degrees from the universities of Zagreb Zimbabwe and Nottingham Trent She has taught Africa related courses at several institutions of higher learning in Britain including the University of Cambridge and New York University in London She is interested in non western writing and cultures theoretical approaches to the novel and the narrative production of space time Her co edited volume Versions of Zimbabwe New Approaches to Literature and Culture was published in 2005 by Weaver Press in Harare Social and Cultural Development of Human Resources Tomoko Hamada, 2009-06-16 Social and Cultural Development of Human Resources is a component of Encyclopedia of Human Resources Policy Development and Management in the global Encyclopedia of Life Support Systems EOLSS which is an integrated compendium of twenty one Encyclopedias The Theme on Social and Cultural Development of Human Resources provides the essential aspects and a myriad of issues of great relevance to our world such as Social and Cultural Development of Human Resources Social Development Trends Urban Rural Dimensions of Social Development Religious Belief and Resource Development Use of Resources and Space Consumption in Affluent Societies Developing Societies Consumption and the Environment Globalization and the Consumer Society Social and Cultural Development Indicators This volume is aimed at the following five major target audiences University and College Students Educators Professional Practitioners Research Personnel and Policy Analysts Managers and Decision Makers and NGOs

The Political Economy of Poverty, Vulnerability and Disaster Risk Management Munyaradzi Mawere, 2017-11-29 Poverty remains a thorny and topical challenge and research topic to scholars and researchers on African development Scholars in the Global North have since the Second World War sought to research poverty and underdevelopment in Africa postulating what they think are the major causes of insipid and abject poverty in the continent but with little or no success on how to solve the poverty enigma Sadly little research and homework have been done by scholars in context in Africa on why there seems to be more production rather than eradication of poverty and vulnerability in Africa and among Africans This book is born out of the realisation for the need for both scholars on the ground and outside Africa to earnestly interrogate and reflect on the poverty situation that continues to haunt the people of Africa and rattle the conscience of the world at large With contributors from across the continent and beyond the volume offers a balanced and rigorous multi faceted analysis of Africa's poverty and vulnerability from a rich tapestry of perspectives The volume is handy to scholars and students in the fields of African and development studies as well as to students of Sociology Anthropology Political Science and Policy Studies Health and the Modern Home Mark Jackson,2008-02-07 Health and the Modern Home explores shifting and contentious debates about the impact of the domestic environment on health in the modern period Drawing on recent scholarship contributors expose the socio political context in which the physical and emotional environment of the modern home and family became implicated in the maintenance of health and in the aetiology and pathogenesis of diverse psychological and physical conditions In addition they critically analyze the manner in which the expression and articulation of medical concerns about the domestic environment served to legitimate particular political and ideological positions

Consuming Behaviours Erika Rappaport,Sandra Trudgen Dawson,Mark J. Crowley,2020-05-26 In twentieth century Britain consumerism increasingly defined and redefined individual and social identities New types of consumers emerged the idealized working class consumer the African consumer and the teenager challenged the prominent position of the middle and upper class female shopper Linking politics and pleasure Consuming Behaviours explores how individual consumers and groups reacted to changes in marketing government control popular leisure and the availability of consumer goods From football to male fashion tea to savings banks leading scholars consider a wide range of products ideas and services and how these were marketed to the British public through periods of imperial decline economic instability war austerity and prosperity The development of mass consumer society in Britain is examined in relation to the growing cultural hegemony and economic power of the United States offering comparisons between British consumption patterns and those of other nations Bridging the divide between historical and cultural studies approaches Consuming Behaviours discusses what makes British consumer culture distinctive while acknowledging how these consumer identities are inextricably a product of both Britain s domestic history and its relationship with its Empire with Europe and with the United States Sexuality in the Legal Arena Carl Stychin,Didi Herman,2000-01-01 The essays in this book explore a wide range of themes of current interest and controversy with a particular focus on lesbian and gay issues nationality postcoloniality sexuality and criminality and the politics of rights struggles The Routledge International Handbook of Globalization Studies Bryan S. Turner,2011 This title offers students clear and informed chapters on the history of globalization and key theories that have considered the causes and consequences of the globalization process There are substantive sections looking at demographic economic technological social and cultural changes in globalization

The Business of Beauty Jessica P. Clark,2020-04-30 The Business of Beauty is a unique exploration of the history of beauty consumption and business in Victorian and Edwardian London Illuminating national and cultural contingencies specific to London as a global metropolis it makes an important intervention by challenging the view of those who like their historical contemporaries perceive the 19th and early 20th centuries as devoid of beauty praxis let alone a commercial beauty culture Contrary to this perception The Business of Beauty reveals that Victorian and Edwardian women and men developed a number of tacit strategies to transform their looks including the purchase of new goods and services from a heterogeneous group of urban entrepreneurs hairdressers barbers perfumers wigmakers complexion specialists hair restorers manicurists and beauty culturists Mining trade journals census data periodical print and advice literature Jessica P Clark takes us on a journey through Victorian and Edwardian London's beauty businesses from the shady back parlors of Sarah Madame Rachel Leverson to the elegant showrooms of Eugene Rimmel into the first Mayfair salon of Mrs Helena Titus aka Helena Rubinstein By revealing these stories Jessica P Clark revises traditional chronologies of British beauty consumption and provides the historical background to 20th century developments led by Rubinstein and others Weaving together histories of gender fashion and business to investigate the ways that Victorian critiques of self fashioning and beautification defined both the buying and selling of beauty goods this is a revealing resource for scholars students fashion followers and beauty enthusiasts alike Workers Go Shopping in Argentina Natalia Milanesio, 2013-03 Dr Milanesio examines the ways mass consumption transformed Argentina in the twentieth century in a comprehensive analysis of the relations between consumers goods manufacturers advertisers and the state during Juan Peron's reign She examines the social and political changes that occurred when the general population became consumers of industrial goods and participants in consumption Provided by publisher The Culture of Male Beauty in Britain Paul R. Deslandes, 2021-12-20 Setting the Stage The Foundations of Modern Male Beauty Physiognomists and Photographers Beauty Experts and Hairdressing Entrepreneurs Artists Athletes and Celebrities Poets Soldiers and Monuments Men on Display in the Twentieth and Twenty First Centuries Brylcreem Men Cinema Idols and Uniforms Teenagers Bodybuilders and Models Youthful Rebels Gender Benders and Gay Men Insecure Men Metrosexuals and Spornosexuals The Gender of Piety Wendy Urban-Mead, 2015-07-15 The Gender of Piety is an intimate history of the Brethren in Christ Church in Zimbabwe or BICC as related through six individual life histories that extend from the early colonial years through the first decade after independence Taken together these six lives show how men and women of the BICC experienced and sequenced their piety in different ways Women usually remained tied to the church throughout their lives while men often had a more strained relationship with it Church doctrine was not always flexible enough to accommodate expected masculine gender roles particularly male membership in political and economic institutions or participation in important male communal practices The study is based on more than fifteen years of extensive oral history research supported by archival work in Zimbabwe the United Kingdom and the United States The oral accounts make it clear official versions to the contrary that the church was led by spiritually powerful women and that maleness and mission church notions of piety were often incompatible The life history approach illustrates how the tension of gender roles both within and without the church manifested itself in sometimes unexpected ways for example how a single family could produce both a legendary woman pastor credited with mediating multiple miracles and a man her son who joined the armed wing of the Zimbabwe African People's Union nationalist political party and fought in Zimbabwe's liberation war in the 1970s

Investigating the lives of men and women in equal measure The Gender of Piety uses a gendered interpretive lens to analyze the complex relationship between the church and broader social change in this region of southern Africa
