exchange of direct messages with Jonathan Van Ness's Instagram profile. The author engages in a series of one-way conversations with the star of Netflix's Queer Eye, the hit reboot of the Emmy Award-winning series Queer Eye for the Straight Guy, using the private messaging system of the popular app as a way to discover himself and to dig deep into his own past. Although he's directly addressing Jonathan, Andrew is unwittingly speaking to himself, turning this unilateral correspondence into an autobiography as if the literary material became self-aware of its value halfway through the writing process. Andrew's story is unpretentious and entertaining; his pen is agile and light; the anecdotal writing shifts with ease between the comedy, the grotesque, and the drama while still remaining witty and pleasant. Taking the cue from Van Ness's quotes and interviews, the author reveals a queer story of stunning humanity, distress, and hopes. Like a contemporary coming-of-age fairy tale with a non-binary everyday hero from next door who instead of waiting for a Prince Charming to come to the rescue, tries to find his way to a more fulfilling and well-deserved self-love. Roberto Lunello Factsheet Five, 1998 I Am Not a Juvenile Delinquent Sharon Charde, 2020-06-16 The #MeToo movement, particularly the horrific Larry Nassar abuse, shows with frightening clarity the vulnerability of young women to male predators. All the Touchtone girls I encountered suffered similar or worse fates. The book is a pilgrimage, a quest story divided into five sections. Part I explores the author's first year at the facility, the difficulty, and eventual success of establishing my group in such a chaotic and contradictory culture. It recreates their writing sessions and features the vivid, dramatic personalities of the girls who participated, as well as the steep learning curve on which she found herself daily. Part II moves swiftly through the trials and victories between the first and last years and offers brief profiles of three of the residents who held special resonance to the author. During this time, she published an award-winning anthology of poems by the girls; a NYC filmmaker created a documentary film; many readings and public performances took place and received several awards for the program. Part III tells of the joint venture with The Hotchkiss School, revealing the differences yet common ground between the two groups of girls. Magical Thinking Augusten Burroughs, 2024-10-15 From the #1 bestselling author of Running with Scissors and Dry, a contagiously funny, heartwarming, shocking, twisted, and absolutely magical collection of true stories that give voice to the thoughts we all have but dare not mention. It begins with a Tang Instant Breakfast Drink television commercial when Augusten was seven. Then there is the contest of wills with the deranged cleaning lady, the execution of a rodent carried out with military precision, and utter horror, telemarketing revenge, dating an undertaker, and much more. A collection of true stories that are universal in their appeal yet unabashedly intimate and very funny. The New Yorker Harold Wallace Ross, Katharine Sergeant Angell White, 1975
