Maintaining a Minority Language John Gibbons,Elizabeth Ramirez,2004-01-01 This book explores two main areas First what a high level of proficiency in two languages consists of and second what factors can produce this high level of bilingual proficiency Higher level language is usually acquired at school but many minority language students are educated in only one language The book therefore examines other factors in the development of the minority language such as home literacy practices and positive attitudes that might contribute to the development of high bilingual proficiency      The World Factbook United States. Central Intelligence Agency,1989      Engineering and Mining Journal ,1893      Spatializing Language Studies Sébastien Dubreil,David Malinowski,Hiram H. Maxim,2023-09-12 This open access volume offers valuable new perspectives on the question of how mobility locatedness and immersion in the physical world can enhance second language teaching and learning It does so through a diverse array of empirical studies of language literacy and culture learning in the linguistic landscape of visible and audible public discourse Written from conceptually rich and disciplinarily varied perspectives its ten chapters address methodological and practical problems of relating language learning to the lived and rapidly changing places of the late modern world Whether it is within the four walls of a school in a nearby multilingual neighborhood in a virtual telecollaborative space or in any other location where languages may be learned this volume highlights different configurations of learning spaces the leveraging of real world places for critical learning and ways to productively dislocate language learners from preconceived notions and standardized experiences Together these elements create conditions for a language and literacy pedagogy that can be said to be robustly spatialized linguistically and culturally complex geographically situated historically informed dialogically realized and socially engaged The Country Gentleman,1904
