hard for two years earlier out of his head and he's afraid that no woman in Jessamine will ever measure up. Unfortunately that doesn't stop his family from trying to set him up with every single woman in town until Skye Holland shows up on his doorstep. The only reason Skye Holland moved back to North Carolina was so she could do the right thing for her one-year-old son. A boy after all needed his father while she simply needed a fresh start. But first she has to let Eli know that their red-hot affair had consequences. Consequences she has no intentions of repeating, no matter how many old feelings come rushing to the surface when they're together. Too bad for Skye that Elijah has other ideas and he's not going to let this second chance at love get away again.

For the love of a Brother Keith Sutherland, 2013-05-13 If you want to read a crime thriller why not try one written by a once notorious criminal who was incarcerated in some maximum security establishments in Britain. The reader will quickly begin to realise that the material used by this writer is just not the product of a writer's imagination but material that could only have been gained by experience. The book FOR THE LOVE OF A BROTHER is an action-packed crime novel in which our man Lawson during the final weeks of his prison sentence has been blackmailed into helping a dangerous killer and international drug dealer escape from Albany Prison on the Isle of Wight. The book sees many action scenes, love, fear and revenge being played out and includes involvement of the American CIA. Whilst the reader will feel sorry for Lawson and want him to triumph, he both wins and loses in the end. The story rewards his commitment and love for his brother.
