For Heather Gordon life in her small North Carolina town has always been simple and uneventful until one night when a rowdy food fight breaks out in her family's restaurant where she works as a waitress. The culprits? The internationally famous rock band Kirwan. It's also paparazzi and online tabloids, a new city every week, and the loneliness of touring even if he has his brothers with him. But with Heather, things are different and he's instantly smitten and determined to get to know the sweet pretty woman who has absolutely no interest in his fame. If only he can convince her to take a chance on his crazy life. Once Alex leaves on tour, he and Heather begin exchanging messages and calls. Despite the distance between them, they find themselves learning they have more in common than they ever could have imagined. But even while Heather and Alex's relationship deepens, they must face the harsh realities of fame and the pressures it puts on their personal lives.
