traces the dynamics of influence and inheritance in twentieth and twenty first century poetry She identifies a distinctive and significant Anglo American line of descent that resonates in these poems with British poets often elegizing American ones yet rarely the other way around Further she reveals how these poems function as a means of mediating effecting and tracing transatlantic poetic exchanges The author frames elegies for poets as a chain of commemoration and inheritance each link independent but when seen as part of the golden chain signifying a larger purpose and having a correspondingly greater strength Grief and Meter provides a compelling account of how and why these poems are imbued with such power and significance New Age Journal ,1993 The Literary Gazette and Journal of Belles Lettres, Arts, Sciences, &c ,1839
