Gumshoe Josiah Thompson, 1989 He taught philosophy at Yale and Haverford Then 12 years ago he resigned to become a private detective for five dollars an hour His thought provoking and thrilling experiences put him to the test and put most mystery novels to shame

Reciprocities in the Nonfiction Novel John Russell, 2000 Nonfiction novels have usually been associated with the new journalism writers of the 1960s such as Tom Wolfe Norman Mailer and Truman Capote Yet this form has long commanded a key position in the literary canon as John Russell now reveals Russell identifies eleven major works not usually thought of as nonfiction novels such as Isak Dinesen's Out of Africa and E E Cummings's The Enormous Room to create a new definition of the genre He shows that journalistic writing is characterized by a reporter's proprietary stance which undermines reciprocity with subjects while true nonfiction novels feature greater reciprocity and also employ such techniques as circular narrative and bricolage

Reciprocities in the Nonfiction Novel contributes to ongoing explorations of literary forms and offers wise commentary on how writing about real life can become art

Wrightsman, 1994-03-15 Why do we as adults have the personality characteristics we do No one explanation is accepted by all however in this greatly expanded version of his earlier book Personality Development in Adulthood Wrightsman helps us understand and organize the three broad theoretical approaches to explain psychological changes during the period from adolescence to the onset of late adulthood Each of these approaches early formation theories stage theories and the dialectical approach are described and contrasted in order to help us more easily compare our experiences with those of others Case histories relevant current events and boxed inserts are used throughout the book to illustrate important concepts in a thought provoking lively manner Written in a compelling non technical style the book is accessible to students and interested readers from all disciplines especially psychology clinical and developmental psychology aging family studies sociology gender studies and nursing      Last Second in Dallas Josiah Thompson, 2021-02-15 In this long awaited follow up to his critically acclaimed 1967 classic Six Seconds in Dallas Josiah Thompson reveals major new forensic discoveries since the year 2000 that overturn previously accepted facts about the Kennedy assassination Together they provide what no previous book on the assassination has done incontrovertible proof that JFK was killed in a crossfire Last Second in Dallas is not a conspiracy book No theory of who did it is offered or discussed Among the discoveries The test showing that all recovered bullet fragments came from Oswald's rifle was mistaken Several fragments could have come from bullets of any manufacturer and any caliber The sudden two inch forward movement of the president's head in the Zapruder film just before his head explodes is revealed to be an optical illusion caused by the movement of Zapruder's camera This leaves without further challenge clear evidence that this shot came from a specific location to the right front of the limousine Detailed analysis of film frames matched by the newly validated acoustic evidence show a second shot struck the president's head from behind less than a second later Result two killing shots to the head from opposite directions in the final second of the shooting hence the book's title At once a historical detective story and a deeply personal narrative by a major figure in the field Last Second in Dallas captures the drama and sweep of events detailing government missteps and political bias as well as the junk science hubris and controversy that have dogged the investigation from the beginning Into this account Thompson weaves his own eventful journey that of a Yale educated scholar who in 1976 resigned his tenured professorship in philosophy to become a private investigator in San Francisco developing a national reputation Profusely illustrated Last Second in Dallas features dozens of archive photographs including Zapruder film frames reproduced at the highest clarity ever published Mystery fiction and modern life , Private Investigation, Security Science, and Public Service Frank J.
