Gunshots at the Fiesta Maarten Van Delden, Yvon Grenier, 2009 A fresh and stimulating perspective on the relationship between literature and politics in Latin America Politics, Literature and Tertium Datur Ivana Perica, 2025-08-21 Offers an alternate framing of the literary and political afterlives of revolution between 1928 1968 in Eastern and Western Europe Politics Literature and Tertium Datur combines the transfer of ideas between historical turning points with a comparative reading of political literatures in the European East and West to address the disparity between the abundance of scholarly accounts of 1968 and the simultaneous forgetting of developments in the interwar period that peaked around 1928 It deepens scholarly awareness of the transnational spaces of interwar literature and explores their afterlives in the post World War II period The book troubles and corrects Western European theories of 1968 by tracing the post war afterlives of shared interwar experiences that point towards a socialist third way or Georg Lukács tertium datur and thus out of the conventionally understood East West binary It testifies to the existence of a literature that throughout the last century self consciously oscillated between the exigencies of organized politics and the aesthetic task of helping to shape the humanity of tomorrow Examining case studies of works by Bertolt Brecht Ivan Olbracht and August Cesarec among others Politics Literature and Tertium Datur excavates a series of problems optics and styles characteristic of the forgotten episodes of 20th century literary history It shows that the proverbial Iron Curtain was not impenetrable and that the walls and borders erected in the post war period could not completely suppress the reverberations and revival of projects that flourished in the political literary metropolises of the interwar period Postmodernism of Resistance in Roberto Bolaño's Fiction and Poetry J. Agustín Pastén B., 2020-12 Postmodernism of Resistance in Roberto Bolaño's Fiction and Poetry examines the ways in which Bolaño employs a type of literary aesthetics that subverts traits traditionally associated with postmodernism Pastén B coins these aesthetics postmodernism of resistance and argues that this resistance stands in direct opposition to critical discourses that construe the presence of hopeless characters and marginal settings in Bolaño's works as signs of the writer's disillusionment with the political as a consequence of the defeat of the Left in Latin America Rather he contends Bolaño creates a fictional world comprised of characters and situations that paradoxically refuse to accept defeat even while displaying the scars of terrible historical events In this work Pastén B challenges some critical assumptions about Bolaño's fiction and poetry that led to decontextualized interpretations of his work and offers a singularly comprehensive investigation that synthesizes multiple perspectives of a complicated author into one text A History of Mexican Literature Ignacio M. Sánchez Prado, Anna M. Nogar, José Ramón Ruisánchez Serra, 2016-06-24 A History of Mexican Literature chronicles a story more than five hundred years in the making looking at the development of literary culture in Mexico from its indigenous beginnings to the twenty first century Featuring a comprehensive introduction that charts the development of a complex canon this History includes extensive essays that illuminate the cultural and political intricacies of Mexican literature

Organized thematically these essays survey the multilayered verse and fiction of such diverse writers as Sor Juana In s de la Cruz Mariano Azuela Xavier Villaurrutia and Octavio Paz Written by a host of leading scholars this History also devotes special attention to the lasting significance of colonialism and multiculturalism in Mexican literature This book is of pivotal importance to the development of Mexican writing and will serve as an invaluable reference for specialists and students alike

Writing Revolution in Latin America Juan E. De Castro,2019-09-15 In the politically volatile period from the 1960s through the end of the twentieth century Latin American authors were in direct dialogue with the violent realities of their time and place Writing Revolution in Latin America is a chronological study of the way revolution and revolutionary thinking is depicted in the fiction composed from the eye of the storm From Mexico to Chile the gradual ideological evolution from a revolutionary to a neoliberal mainstream was a consequence of on the one hand the political hardening of the Cuban Revolution beginning in the late 1960s and on the other the repression dictatorships and economic crises of the 1970s and beyond Not only was socialist revolution far from the utopia many believed but the notion that guerrilla uprisings would lead to an easy socialism proved to be unfounded Similarly the repressive Pinochet dictatorship in Chile led to unfathomable tragedy and social mutation This double edged phenomenon of revolutionary disillusionment became highly personal for Latin American authors inside and outside Castro s and Pinochet s dominion Revolution was more than a foreign affair it was the stuff of everyday life and therefore of fiction Juan De Castro s expansive study begins ahead of the century with Jos Mart in Cuba and continues through the likes of Mario Vargas Llosa in Peru Gabriel Garc a M rquez in Colombia and Roberto Bola o in Mexico by way of Chile The various often contradictory ways the authors convey this precarious historical moment speaks in equal measure to the social circumstances into which these authors were thrust and to the fundamental differences in the ways they themselves witnessed history
