Jyh-An Lee,2012-01-01 There is no issue more fundamental to the growth of the open source society than a more mature and penetrating understanding of the nature of the nonprofit organization in a digital culture Professor Lee s book is essential reading to this fundamental topic beautifully written and brilliantly conceived Lawrence Lessig Harvard Law School US Jyh An Lee provides the first comprehensive account of nonprofit organizations and their overlooked role in setting and working around intellectual property policy The reader will find a wealth of information and a novel theory of NPOs as part of the IP ecosystem Mark A Lemley Stanford Law School US Over the past twenty years a number of nonprofit organizations NPOs such as Creative Commons the Electronic Frontier Foundation and the Free Software Foundation have laid essential building blocks for intellectual commons as a social movement Through a detailed description of these NPOs and a series of in depth interviews with their officials this book demonstrates that NPOs have provided the social structures that are necessary to support the production of intellectual commons By illustrating NPOs role in shaping the commons realm this book provides a new lens through which to understand the intellectual commons environment Protecting intellectual commons has been one of the most important goals of recent innovation and information policies This book focuses on the NPOs that occupy an increasingly critical and visible position in the intellectual commons environment in recent years This detailed study will appeal to academics in intellectual property and internet law nonprofit organizations academics and professionals and those involved in the Free Culture and Open Source Software Movement Documentary Filmmaking for Archaeologists

Peter J Pepe, Joseph W Zarzynski, 2016-06-16 Documentary filmmaker Peter Pepe and historical archaeologist Joseph W Zarzynski provide a concise guide to filmmaking designed to help archaeologists navigate the unfamiliar world of documentary film. They offer a step by step description of the process of making a documentary everything from initial pitches to production companies to final cuts in the editing. Using examples from their own award winning documentaries they focus on the needs of the archaeologist. Where do you fit in the project? What is expected of you? How can you help your documentarian partner? The authors provide guidance on finding funding establishing budgets writing scripts interviewing and numerous other tasks required to produce and distribute a film. Whether you intend to sell a special to National Geographic or churn out a brief clip to run at the local museum read this book before you start. Celebrating the Marvellous Neil Spiller, 2018-05-29 We are entering a new era of architecture that is technologically enhanced virtual and synthetic. Contemporary architects operate in a creative environment that is both real and digital mixed augmented and hybridised. This world consists of ecstasies fears fetishisms and phantoms processes and spatiality that can best be described as Surrealist. Though too long dormant Surrealism has been a significant cultural force in modern architecture. Founded by poet Andr Breton in Paris in 1924 as an artistic intellectual and literary movement architects such as Le Corbusier Diller Scofidio Bernard Tschumi and John Hejduk realised its evocative powers to propel them to starchitect status. Rem Koolhaas most famously illustrated Delirious New York 1978 with Madelon Vriesendorp's compelling Surrealist images. Architects are now reviving the power of Surrealism to inspire and explore the ramifications of advanced technology. Architects studios in practices and schools are becoming places where nothing is forbidden. Architectural languages and theories are mashed together approaches are permissively appropriated and styles are not mutually exclusive. Projects are polemic postmodern and surreally media savvy. Today's architects must compose space that operates across the spatial spectrum. Surrealism with its multiple readings of the city its collage semiotics its extruded forms and artificial landscapes is an ideal source for contemporary architectural inspiration. Contributors include Bryan Cantley Nic Clear James Eagle Natalie Gall Mark Morris Dagmar Motycka Weston Alberto Perez Gomez Shaun Murray Anthony Vidler and Elizabeth Anne Williams. Featured architects Nigel Coates Hernan Diaz Alonso Perry Kulper and Mark West. Scholarly Adventures in Digital Humanities

Claire Battershill, Helen Southworth, Alice Staveley, Michael Widner, Elizabeth Willson Gordon, Nicola Wilson, 2017-05-17 This book addresses the gap between print and digital scholarly approaches by combining both praxis and theory in a case study of a new international collaborative digital project the Modernist Archives Publishing Project MAPP. MAPP is an international collaborative digital project funded by the Social Sciences and Humanities Research Council of Canada that uses digital tools to showcase archival traces of twentieth century publishing. The twenty first century has witnessed and is living through some of the most dynamic changes ever experienced in the publishing industry arguably altering our very understanding of what it means to read a book. This book brings to both general readers and scholarly researchers a new way of accessing and thereby assessing the historical meanings of change within the twentieth century publication industry by building a resource which organises interacts with and uses historical information about book culture to narrate the continuities and discontinuities in reading and publishing over the last century
