Conner,Lucas E. Morel,2016-06-20 Contributions by Herman Beavers Robert Butler John Callahan Marc C Conner Bryan Crable Steven D Ealy Lena Hill Lucas E Morel Timothy Parrish Ross Posnock Patrice Rankine Grant Shreve Eric J Sundquist and Steven E Tracy Ralph Ellison once said We're only a partially achieved nation In The New Territory scholars show how clearly Ellison foresaw and articulated both the challenges and the possibilities of America in the twenty first century Indeed Ellison in these new essays appears more and more to be a cultural prophet of twenty first century America As literary scholar Ross Posnock states If in our global transnational age the renewed promise of cosmopolitan democracy has emerged as an animating ideal of popular political and academic culture this is a way of saying that we are only now beginning to catch up with Ralph Waldo Ellison In this collection the editors offer fourteen original essays that seek to examine and re examine Ellison s life and work in the context of its meanings for our own age the early twenty first century the age of Obama a period that is seemingly post racial and yet all too acutely racial Following a careful introduction that situates Ellison s writings in the context of new approaches and interest in his work the book offers new essays examining Ellison s 1952 masterpiece Invisible Man It then turns to his vast unfinished second novel Three Days Before the Shooting with detailed readings of that powerful and elusive narrative These essays are the first sustained treatments of that posthumous work The New Territory concludes with five chapters that discuss Ellison s political cultural and historical significance probing how he speaks to the contemporary moment and beyond

Reading the American Novel 1920-2010 James Phelan, 2013-04-02 This astute guide to the literary achievements of American novelists in the twentieth century places their work in its historical context and offers detailed analyses of landmark novels based on a clearly laid out set of tools for analyzing narrative form Includes a valuable overview of twentieth and early twenty first century American literary history Provides analyses of numerous core texts including The Great Gatsby Invisible Man The Sound and the Fury The Crying of Lot 49 and Freedom Relates these individual novels to the broader artistic movements of modernism and postmodernism Explains and applies key principles of rhetorical reading Includes numerous cross novel comparisons and contrasts

Shadow Archives Jean-Christophe Cloutier, 2019-09-03 Recasting the history of African American literature Shadow Archives brings to life a slew of newly discovered texts including Claude McKay s Amiable with Big Teeth to tell the stories of black special collections and their struggle for institutional recognition Jean Christophe Cloutier offers revelatory readings of major African American writers including McKay Richard Wright Ann Petry and Ralph Ellison and provides a nuanced view of how archival methodology access and the power dynamics of acquisitions shape literary history Shadow Archives argues that the notion of the archive is crucial to our understanding of postwar African American literary history Cloutier combines his own experiences as a researcher and archivist with a theoretically rich account of the archive to offer a pioneering study of the importance of African American authors archival practices and how these shaped their writing Given the lack of institutions dedicated to the black experience the novel became an alternative site of historical preservation a means to ensure both individual legacy and group survival Such archivism manifests in the work of these authors through evolving lifecycles where documents undergo repurposing revision insertion falsification transformation and fictionalization sometimes across decades An innovative interdisciplinary consideration of literary papers

Shadow Archives proposes new ways for literary scholars to engage with the archive

The Fictions of Translation Judith Woodsworth, 2018-02-15 In The Fictions of Translation emerging and seasoned scholars from a range of cultures bring fresh perspectives to bear on the age old practice of translation The current movement of people knowledge and goods around the world has made intercultural communication both prevalent and indispensable Consequently the translator has become a more prominent figure and translation an increasingly present theme in works of literature Embedding translation in a fictional setting and considering its most extreme forms pseudotranslation or self translation for example are fruitful ways of conceptualizing the act of translating and extending the boundaries of translation studies Taken together the various translational fictions examined in this collection yield new insights into questions of displacement migration and hybridity all characteristic of the modern world The Fictions of Translation will thus be of interest to practising translators students and scholars of translation and literary studies as well as a more general readership

Reading Multiple Consciousness Komla M. Avono, 2024-12-15 For over a century the intellectual debate of scholars from African descent has been dominated by the idea of double consciousness spearheaded by W E B DuBois Interestingly with many years of vexatious issues of the encounter between the West and Africa many scholars approached the debate on the basis of the consciousness of the Self and the Other However this idea seems to overlook the multiplicities of being black white Reading Multiple Consciousness Exploring the Complexity of Postmodern Identity suggests a different approach to the issue by taking more steps beyond double consciousness It enriches the debate over race literature and colonization as it offers another way of reading texts This book proposes that the complexity of postmodern identity is more accurately described by a theory of multiple consciousness This study arises out of the necessity of a more nuanced theoretical framework for a younger generation of researchers on both sides of the Atlantic a conceptual approach that does justice to the complexity of their experience
