Hofsess, 2016-07-27 This title examines professional learning in the contemporary milieu of public education considering the impact of No Child Left Behind and Race to the Top on such encounters for art educators Drawing from prominent scholars of philosophy and education Greene Dewey Gadamer aesthetic experiential play is theorized as a catalyst for teacher renewal through the embodied intensities Merleau Ponty Deleuze it prompts an aesthetic swell and afterglow The swell is conceptualized as a movement that unmoors teachers as learners setting them adrift towards unanticipated surprising possibilities Afterglow is an illuminated space that unfolds with a commitment and openness to move in swell towards the ever expanding new This text invites readers into the findings of a qualitative research inquiry by unfolding a yearlong

correspondence of letterpress printed postcards and hand rendered letters exchanged between the author and a cohort of K 12 art teachers The innovative epistolary form evokes the relational and arts based educational research methodologies that informed this lively aesthetic inquiry providing new directions and possibilities for both art educators and arts researchers to explore Advocating for more complex understandings regarding how educators become renewed as artists and as teachers this poetic and pictorial text provokes an expanded vision for what counts as professional learning and the processes by which teacher renewal is nourished and experienced Theorists pedagogues methodologists and researchers alike will find themselves in aesthetic play as they experience the flows swells and intensities that Hofsess beautifully crafts A brilliant piece of art Mark D Vagle The University of Minnesota Hofsess refocuses our attention to what really matters in education how as Elliot Eisner said the teaching of art is more than the teaching of art Richard Siegesmund Northern Illinois University Title illuminates the challenges and possibilities of maintaining transformative experiences in the everyday practice of K 12 art education Tracie Costantino Rhode Island School of Design Brooke Hofsess Assistant Professor at Appalachian State University received her MA in Art Art Education from Teachers College Columbia University and her PhD in Art Education from The University of Georgia She comes to academia with seven years of professional experience as a K 12 art educator Her research on teacher education and renewal has received honors including the Elliot Eisner Doctoral Research Award in Art Education from the National Art Education Association and the Outstanding Dissertation Award from the Arts Based Educational Research special interest group of the American Educational Research Association

Understanding the Experience of Disability Dana S. Dunn, 2019-04-30 Rehabilitation psychologists have long argued that situational constraints e g missing ramps lack of Braille signage nondisabled peoples attitudes create greater social barriers and behavioral restrictions for people with disabilities PWDs than do the disabilities themselves In other words as social psychologist Kurt Lewin argued situational factors including the perceptions and actions of other people often have greater impact on the experience of disability than do the personal qualities of PWDs themselves Thus the experience of disability is shaped by a variety of psychosocial forces and factors some of which enhance while others hinder daily living For adequate understanding and to plan constructive interventions psychological science must attend to how the disabled person and the situation interact with one another Understanding the Experience of Disability Perspectives from Social and Rehabilitation Psychology is an edited book containing chapters written by social and rehabilitation psychologists who study how social psychological theory can inform our understanding of the experience of disability and rehabilitation Chapters are arranged topically into four sections Established areas of inquiry e g stigma social biases stereotyping mainstream topics e g women culture and race aging emerging issues e g implicit attitudes family and parenting issues positive psychology and issues of injustice advocacy and social policy e g perceived injustice disability advocacy policy implications Besides informing advanced undergraduate and graduate students and professional researchers practitioners audiences the book will help families and caregivers of PWDs policy makers and PWDs themselves understand the social psychological processes linked to disability

The Known Economy Colin Danby, 2017-06-26 Why do critics and celebrants of globalization concur that international trade and finance represent an inexorable globe bestriding force with a single logic The Known Economy shows that both camps rest on the same ideas about how the world is scaled Two centuries ago romantic and rationalist theorists concurred that the world was divided into discrete nations moving at different rates toward a modernity split between love and money Though differing over whether this history is tragedy or triumph they united in projecting an empty international space in which a Moloch like global capitalism could lurk The Known Economy tracks the colonial development of national accounting and re examines the ways gender and heteronormativity are built in to economic representation It re interprets the post WWII spread of standardized economic statistics as the project of international organizations looking over the shoulders of national governments rather than the expanding power of national governments over populations

Teaching for a Culturally Diverse and Racially Just World Eleazar S. Fernandez, 2014-02-25 Cultural and ethnic diversity is the reality of our world and much more so in this age of heightened globalization Yet do our ways of doing theological education match with our current reality and hopes for a colorful and just tomorrow How shall we do theological formation so it helps give birth to a culturally diverse racially just and hospitable world This edited volume gathers the voices of minoritized scholars and their white allies in the profession in response to the above questions More particularly this volume gathers the responses of these scholars to the questions What is the plight of theological education Who are the teachers Who are our students What shall we teach How shall we teach How shall we form and lead theological institutions It is the hope of this volume to contribute to the making of theological education that is hospitably just to difference s and welcoming of our diverse population which is our only viable future When we embody this vision in our daily educational practices particularly in the training of our future religious leaders we may help usher in a new colorful and just world
