Deconstructing the Model in 20th and 21st-Century Italian Experimental Writings Beppe Cavatorta,2019-08-19 Through a series of original analyses of experimental works that exist well outside of the established territory inhabited by the Italian literary canon or which purposely position themselves at its margins this volume proposes a new way to understand the goals of literary experimentation as a means to break the canon and give literature the same freedom that is easily granted to other arts This serves to allow literature itself to intersect with those other art forms while enhancing the powerful and positive outcomes of literary experimentation Specifically the volume explores a series of 20th and 21st century Italian works that are characterized by a non normative approach to language or the act of writing itself The contributors while addressing diverse writers and often even adopting different theoretical interpretations of experimentalism itself all analyze the intersection between experimental literatures and other art forms as well as cross disciplinary and non traditional approaches to the theme of experimentation

The Family Silver Susan Krieger,1996-09-21 A magnificent read a profoundly personal narrative The Family Silver is on the cutting edge of feminist scholarship. Verta Taylor, coeditor of Feminist Frontiers, just as Krieger's The Mirror Dance was the first to describe the lesbian community, The Family Silver is the first book to blend the personal, familial, relational, professional, and political roles of lesbians in today's society. I loved reading it. Esther Rothblum, editor of Journal of Lesbian Studies, Resources in Education, 1996-07. Interpreting Primo Levi, Arthur Chapman, Minna Vuohelainen, 2016-04-29. The legacy of antifascist partisan, Auschwitz survivor and author Primo Levi continues to drive exciting interdisciplinary scholarship. The contributions to this intellectually rich, tightly organized volume from many of the world's foremost Levi scholars show a remarkable breadth across fields as varied as ethics, memory, and media studies.
