Frontiers in Entrepreneurship Boris Urban, 2010-07-23 Te series Perspectives in Entrepreneurship A Research Companion provides an authoritative overview of specialised themes in entrepreneurship Each of the four books presents the conceptual framework and foundations underlying a specialist field of scholarship in entrepreneurship Te series is inspired by the dearth of higher level texts available in South Africa failing to encapsulate the rigorous research evident in the growing field of entrepreneurship internationally Te content is driven by a judicious selection and interpretation of key knowledge set in context by introducing and delineating major topics previously not discussed in depth in traditional entrepreneurial texts A blend of theoretical and empirical evidence is presented that collectively demonstrates the convergence of thinking on a particular theme Identifying and evaluating the most seminal and impactful scholarly research on different subject areas where entrepreneurship is at the core serves to achieve this convergence By applying a theoretical lens to central issues about entrepreneurship rather than focusing on practical issues of how to the series has a conceptual outlook with specialist areas in detailed narrative Te book is deliberately structured to add value to learners who are undertaking secondary programmes in entrepreneurship by building on basic entrepreneurship principles and theory Te series builds on fundamental entrepreneurial texts Each book provides a valuable knowledge base for educators third year and postgraduate students researchers policy makers and service providers

Knowledge, Information, and Business Education in the British Atlantic World, 1620-1760 Siobhan Talbott, 2025-02-10 Accurate information is essential to successful business activity The early modern period saw an increase in printed commercial information including newspapers printed exchange rates and educational texts part of the print revolution that permeated all aspects of the early modern world Rather than relying on externally produced printed works commercial agents retained agency in creating and sharing their own business and educational information which was shared in other forms and prioritised and valued over printed material This book explores the ways that merchants and other commercial agents learned about business in the early modern British Atlantic World It considers how they acquired dispersed stored and used information as well as considering their contribution to creating and shaping that information Prioritising a wide range of manuscript material held in disparate collections including merchants correspondence letter books notebooks family papers exercise books and ships logs Talbott explores the ways that knowledge information and business education was created circulated and used in the early modern British Atlantic World It offers a new perspective on the exchange of business information in a period dominated by discussions of print prioritising manuscript and oral forms of exchange In doing so it presents a more holistic account of the ways that networks of knowledge operated in early modern business centralising the creation circulation and use of business information specifically by those individuals most involved in and most affected by its production Collaboration in Tourism

Businesses and Destinations Dogan Gursoy, Melville Saayman, Marios Sotiriadis, 2015-01-29 This book examines the contribution and importance of alliances and partnerships to the tourism travel and leisure industries It concludes by providing management and marketing implications and recommendations for tourism business destination managers and local planners to enable them to successfully operate such alliances Rural Entrepreneurship Gary Bosworth, Polly

Chapman, Robert Newbery, Artur Steiner, Don J Webber, 2025-02-19 Rural Entrepreneurship Harvesting Ideas and Sowing New Seeds examines what we have learnt about different aspects of rural entrepreneurship and what still needs to be understood Recession at Work Bill Roche, Paul Teague, Anne Coughlan, Majella Fahy, 2013-05-02 How has the recession affected the conduct of human resource management How have HR departments and managers fared Have leading firms taken measures to sustain and revive their businesses through innovative HR measures How have union representation and influence been affected Is the recession reshaping work and employment practices These are among the questions answered in Recession at Work the first systematic study in Europe to deal with the effects of the economic crisis on people at work Drawing on survey data for Ireland provided by nearly 500 managers responsible for human resources on focus groups of HR managers and trade union officials and on detailed case studies of six major firms the book provides an unrivalled picture of the effects of the current recession on how people are managed and how they are represented by trade unions Examining the effects of the Irish recession on work and employment in the context of international experience and commentary this book provides detailed information and analysis on the ways in which firms have sought to handle the challenges that have arisen since the severe reverse in Ireland's economic fortunes in 2008 The Northern Ireland Assembly Sean Haughey, 2023-09-08 Northern Ireland's power sharing Assembly is understudied in the legislative studies literature. Having been suspended or de facto suspended for around 40% of its existence, conversation has tended to focus more on the wider political problems in which the Assembly has been enmeshed and less on its day to day functions as a legislature. This book is the first to examine how the Assembly fulfils the four core functions of a legislature: representation, linkage, scrutiny and policy making. Using Members of the Legislative Assembly (MLAs) as the primary unit of analysis, the book explores who and how MLAs represent, their approach to cultivating links with constituents, their use of parliamentary scrutiny tools and their contribution to law making. The book grounds its analysis in original data sourced from elite interviews, surveys, parliamentary questions, legislation and the Official Report of parliamentary proceedings. Readers will therefore be able to reflect on whether the Assembly's often poor reputations comport with empirical realities. This book contributes to debates in the legislative studies and consociational power sharing literatures and will be of interest to students and scholars of parliaments, devolution and Northern Ireland politics.
