Gwinnett County School Calendar:

Legislative Calendar United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Environment and Public Works, Disillusioned Benjamin Herold, 2024-01-23 Astonishingly important Alex Kotlowitz The Atlantic Through the stories of five American families a masterful and timely exploration of how hope history and racial denial collide in the suburbs and their schools Outside Atlanta a middle class Black family faces off with a school system seemingly bent on punishing their teenage son North of Dallas a conservative white family relocates to an affluent suburban enclave but can't escape the changes sweeping the country On Chicago's North Shore a multiracial mom joins an ultraprogressive challenge to the town's liberal status quo In Compton California whose suburban roots are now barely recognizable undocumented Hispanic parents place their gifted son's future in the hands of educators at a remarkable elementary school And outside Pittsburgh a Black mother moves to the same street where author Benjamin Herold grew up then confronts the destructive legacy left behind by white families like his Disillusioned braids these human stories together with penetrating local and national history to reveal a vicious cycle undermining the dreams upon which American suburbia was built For generations upwardly mobile white families have extracted opportunity from the nation's heavily subsidized suburbs then moved on before the bills for maintenance and repair came due leaving the mostly Black and Brown families who followed to clean up the ensuing mess But now sweeping demographic shifts and the dawning realization that endless expansion is no longer feasible are disrupting this pattern forcing everyday families to confront a truth their communities were designed to avoid The suburban lifestyle dream is a Ponzi scheme whose unraveling threatens us all How do we come to terms with this troubled history How do we build a future in which all children can thrive Drawing upon his decorated career as an education journalist Herold explores these pressing debates with expertise and perspective Then alongside Bethany Smith the mother from his old neighborhood who contributes a powerful epilogue to the book he offers a hopeful path toward renewal The result is nothing short of a journalistic masterpiece Newcomer's Handbook for Atlanta First Books, L. K. Welles, 2000-07 The Four-quarter

Staggered School Year Utica Community School District, 1970 A Leadership Guide to Navigating the Unknown in Education Sally J. Zepeda, Philip D. Lanoue, 2021-02-14 Recognizing that education systems have been temporarily paralyzed in the past and likely will in the future whether it's because of a natural disaster or a pandemic this important volume offers critical insights about how schools can effectively carry forward the mission of educating all children even in the face of system turbulence and disruption Featuring Narratives from expert leaders in urban rural and suburban school systems this book explores important questions about the new normal such as the ways in which students can and should learn how educators can teach and lead effectively and how schools can carry out important functions beyond their instructional mission Chapters present inspiring stories of leaders and teachers who have rallied rebuilt and problem solved in face of the pandemic and amid adversity ultimately providing a roadmap for how it's possible to rebuild and adjust while preserving the fundamental core of education Full of takeaways and first hand insights into how systems and their schools faced turbulence disruption and adaptation this book is a must read for today s educators committed to making a positive impact on the students they have the duty to serve
