

How to submit an investment proposal

We are always looking for investment opportunities and invite you to submit a proposal if you believe that your opportunity fits with our vision and mission. This guideline helps you to submit a proposal.

Check if your plan and/or company fall inside the definition of social investing

We will check any proposal against the following criteria:

- Is the main aim a positive social impact?
- Is the social return on investment measurable and significant?
- Is there after a start-up period enough financial return to secure financial sustainability in the long run;
- Are groups benefiting from the social impact involved in your initiative / company?
- Is commercial funding feasible?
- Does the legal structure secure the social mission?

Check if your plan and/or company fall(s) inside the scope of our investments

We invest in the following sectors:

- Clean tech
- Biosystems
- Civic Engagement
- Health & Wellbeing
- Education
- Economic Development of special groups

The lower limit of our investments is € 100K, the upper limit is € 1000K.

The geographical scope is Europe

Do you search for more than funding?

We are looking for participation not only in financial terms. Our investors are interested in sharing their extensive experience, networks and their passion for social investments.
