From Within the Frame Bertram D. Ashe, 2013-03-07 The book explores the written representation of African American oral storytelling from Charles Chesnutt Zora Neale Hurston and Ralph Ellison to James Alan McPherson Toni Cade Bambara and John Edgar Wideman At its core the book compares the relationship of the frame tale an inside the text storyteller telling a tale to an inside the text listener with the relationship between the outside the text writer and reader The progression is from Chesnutt s 1899 frame texts in which the black spoken voice is contained by a white narrator listener to Bambara's sixties era example of a frameless spoken voice text to Wideman's neo frame text of the late 20th century

The Disciplinary Frame John Tagg, 2009 How do photographs gain their meaning and power John Tagg claims that to answer this question we must look at the ways in which everything that frames photography the discourse that surrounds it and the institutions that circulate it determines what counts as truth

African American Vernacular English as a Literary Dialect Sophia Huber, 2018-06-13 Knowledge about one's linguistic background especially when it is different from mainstream varieties provides a basis for identity and self Ancestral values can be upheld celebrated and rooted further in the consciousness of its speakers In the case of African American Vernacular English AAVE the matter is not straightforward and ultimately the social implications its speakers still face today are unresolved Through detailed analysis of the four building blocks phonology morphology syntax and vocabulary Sophia Huber tries to trace the development of AAVE as a literary dialect By unearthing in what ways AAVE in its written form is different from the spoken variety long established social stigmata and stereotypes which have been burned into the consciousness of the USA through a initially white dominated literary tradition will be exposed Analysing fourteen novels and one short story featuring AAVE it is the first linguistic study of this scope

Being Material Marie-Pier Boucher, Stefan Helmreich, Leila W. Kinney, Skylar Tibbits, Rebecca Uchill, 2019-10-22 Explorations of the many ways of being material in the digital age In his oracular 1995 book Being Digital Nicholas Negroponte predicted that social relations media and commerce would move from the realm of atoms to bits that human affairs would be increasingly untethered from the material world And yet in 2019 an age dominated by the digital we have not quite left the material world behind In Being Material artists and technologists explore the relationship of the digital to the material demonstrating that processes that seem wholly immaterial function within material constraints Digital technologies themselves they remind us are material things constituted by atoms of gold silver silicon copper tin tungsten and more The contributors explore five modes of being material programmable wearable livable invisible and audible Their contributions take the form of reports manifestos philosophical essays and artist portfolios among other configurations The book's cover merges the possibilities of paper with those of the digital featuring a bookmark like card that when seen by a smartphone generates graphic arrangements that unlock films music and other dynamic content on the book's website At once artist's book digitally activated object and collection of scholarship this book both demonstrates and chronicles the many ways of being material Contributors Christina Agapakis Azra Akamija Sandy Alexandre Dewa Alit George Barbastathis Maya Beiser Marie Pier Boucher Benjamin H Bratton Hussein Chalayan Jim Cybulski Tal Danino Deborah G Douglas Arnold Dreyblatt M Amah Edoh Michelle Tolini Finamore Team Foldscope and Global Foldscope community Ben Fry Victor Gama Stefan Helmreich Hyphen Labs Leila Kinney Rebecca Konte Winona LaDuke Brendan Landis Grace Leslie Bill Maurer Lucy McRae Tom zden Schilling Trevor Paglen Lisa Parks Nadya Peek Claire Pentecost Manu Prakash Casey Reas Pawe Roma czuk Natasha D Schill Nick Shapiro Skylar Tibbits Rebecca Uchill Evan Ziporyn Book Design E Roon Kang Electronics interactions and product designer Marcelo Coelho

The Distinction of Peace Catherine Goetze, 2017-02-02 Peacebuilding serves as a catch all term to describe efforts by an array of international organizations nongovernmental organizations and agencies of foreign states to restore or construct a peaceful society in the wake or even in the midst of conflict Despite this variety practitioners consider themselves members of a global profession In The Distinction of Peace Catherine Goetze investigates the genesis of peacebuilding as a professional field of expertise since the 1960s its increasing influence and the ways it reflects global power structures Goetze describes how the peacebuilding field came into being how it defines who belongs to it and who does not and what kind of group culture it has generated Using an innovative methodology she investigates the motivations of individuals who become peacebuilders their professional trajectories and networks and the good peacebuilder as an ideal For many working in peacebuilding in various ways as an aid worker on the ground as a lawyer at the United Nations or as an academic in a think tank has become not merely a livelihood but also a form of participation in world politics As a field peacebuilding has developed techniques for incorporating and training new members yet its internal politics also create the conditions of exclusion that often result in practical failures of the peacebuilding enterprise By providing a critical account of the social mechanisms that make up the peacebuilding field Goetze offers deep insights into the workings of Western domination and global inequalities

Visualizing Blackness and the Creation of the African American Literary Tradition Lena Hill, 2014-02-17 Negative stereotypes of African Americans have long been disseminated through the visual arts This original and incisive study examines how black writers use visual tropes as literary devices to challenge readers' conceptions of black identity. Lena Hill charts two hundred years of African American literary history from Phillis Wheatley to Ralph Ellison and engages with a variety of canonical and lesser known writers. Chapters interweave literary history, museum culture, and visual analysis of numerous illustrations with close readings of Booker T. Washington, Gwendolyn Bennett, Zora Neale Hurston, and others. Together, these sections register the degree to which African American writers rely on vision, its modes, consequences, and insights to demonstrate black intellectual and cultural sophistication. Hill's provocative study will interest scholars and students of African American literature and American literature more broadly.

The SAGE Handbook of Visual Research Methods Eric Margolis, Luc Pauwels, 2011-08-09 This 42 chapter volume represents the state of the art in visual research. It provides an introduction to the field for a variety of visual researchers, scholars, and graduate students in art, sociology, anthropology, communication, education, cultural studies, women's studies, ethnic studies, global studies, and related social science and humanities disciplines. The SAGE Handbook of Visual Research Methods encompasses the breadth and depth of the field and points the way to future research possibilities. It illustrates cutting edge as well as long standing and recognized practices. This text is not only about research; it is also an example of the way that the visual can be incorporated in data collection and the presentation of research findings. Contributors to the book are from diverse backgrounds and include both established names in the field and rising stars. Chapters describe a methodology or analytical framework, its strengths and limitations, possible fields of application, and practical guidelines on how to apply the method or technique. The SAGE Handbook of Visual Research Methods is organized into seven main sections: I Framing the Field of Visual Research, II Producing Visual Data and Insight, III Participatory and Subject Centered Approaches, IV Analytical Frameworks and Approaches, V Visualization Technologies and Practices, VI Moving Beyond the Visual, VII Options and Issues for Using and Presenting Visual Research.

Race and the Unconscious Fanny Brewster, 2023-06-30 Race and the Unconscious engages the archetypal African consciousness that enriches our knowledge regarding the foundational mythopoetic of Africanist dreaming. Featuring crucial historical context, Jungian and post-Jungian theory, clinical case studies, and dream series interpretations, the book offers readers a rich framework for exploring and understanding the language, images, and symbols of African and African American dreamlife. It expands the modern understanding of dreaming with the inclusion of Africanist perspectives, philosophy, and mythology while emphasizing the potential for and process of psychological healing through dreamwork. Race and the Unconscious is a must read for Jungian analysts and analytical psychologists in practice and in training, as well as anyone interested in understanding psychological processes inclusive of those of African descent and their culture, including academics and students of sociology, anthropology, African American studies, and African diaspora studies.
