Invisible Sojourners African Immigrant Diaspora In The United States:

Invisible Sojourners John A. Arthur, 2000-09-30 Arthur documents the role that Africa's best and brightest play in the new migration of population from less developed countries to the United States. He highlights how Africans negotiate and forge relationships among themselves and with the members of the host society. Multiple aspects of the African immigrants' social world, family patterns, labor force participation, and formation of cultural identities are also examined. He lays out the long-term aspirations of the immigrants within the context of the geopolitical, economic, and social conditions in Africa. Ultimately, Arthur explains why people leave Africa, what they encounter, their interactions with the host society, and their attitudes about American social institutions. He also provides information about the social changes and policies that African countries need to adopt to stem the tide or even reverse the African brain drain. A detailed analysis for scholars, students, and other researchers involved with African and immigration studies and contemporary American society. Invisible Sojourners John A.

Arthur, 2000-09-30 Examines the growth of the African immigrant population in the United States. African Immigrant Families in the United States Serah Shani, 2018-11-26 Sub-Saharan African immigrants are emerging as the new model minority in the United States, excelling in education and social mobility. In African Immigrant Families in the United States, Transnational Lives and Schooling, Serah Shani examines the socioeconomic and cultural mechanisms behind their high levels of success. Shani explores the dynamics of Ghanaian transnational immigrants' lives and portrays a complex relationship between class, context, beliefs, and cultural practices. This book is recommended for scholars of anthropology, sociology, education, and African studies.

The New African Diaspora in the United States Toyin Falola, Adebayo Oyejide, 2016-07-01 Fast-growing in population, African immigrants in the United States have become a significant force to the point that the idea of a new African diaspora is now a reality. This thriving community has opened new arenas of scholarly discourse on Black Atlantic history beyond the trans-Atlantic slave trade and its legacies. This book investigates the complex dynamic forces that have shaped and continue to shape this new diaspora. In eleven original essays, the volume examines pertinent themes such as immigration, integration, dilemmas, identity construction, brain drain, remittances, expanding African religious space, and how these dynamics impact and intersect with the African homeland. With contributors from both sides of the Atlantic that represent a diverse range of academic disciplines, this book offers a broad perspective on emerging themes in contemporary African diasporan experiences. The book will be of interest to scholars and students of African and African American Studies, Sociology, and History. The African Diaspora in the United States and Canada at the Dawn of the 21st Century John W. Frazier, Joe T. Darden, Norah F. Henry, 2010-09-01 Drawing on the work of social scientists from geographic, historical, sociological, and political science perspectives, this volume offers new perspectives on the African Diaspora in the United States and Canada. It has been approximately four centuries since the first Africans set foot in North America, and although it is impossible for any text to capture the complete Black experience on the continent, the persistent legacy of Black inequality and the winds of dramatic change are inseparable parts of the current African Diaspora experience In addition to comparing and contrasting the experiences and geographic patterns of the African Diaspora in the United States and Canada the book also explores important distinctions between the experiences of African Americans and those of more recent African and Afro Caribbean immigrants , African Immigrant Religions in America Jacob Olupona, Regina Gemignani, 2007-05 African immigration to North America has been rapidly increasing Yet little has been written about this significant group of immigrants and the particular religious traditions that they are transplanting on our shores as scholars continue largely to focus instead on immigrants from Europe and Asia African Immigrant Religions in America focuses on new understandings and insights concerning the presence and relevance of African immigrant religious communities in the United States It explores the profound significance of religion in the lives of immigrants and the relevance of these growing communities for U S social life It describes key social and historical aspects of African immigrant religion in the U S and builds a conceptual framework for theory and analysis The volume broadens our understandings of the ways in which new immigration is changing the face of Christianity in the U S and adds needed breadth to the study of the black church incorporating the experiences of African immigrant religious communities in America Immigrants in American History Elliott Robert Barkan, 2013-01-17 This encyclopedia is a unique collection of entries covering the arrival adaptation and integration of immigrants into American culture from the 1500s to 2010 Few topics inspire such debate among American citizens as the issue of immigration in the United States Yet it is the steady influx of foreigners into America over 400 years that has shaped the social character of the United States and has favorably positioned this country for globalization Immigrants in American History Arrival Adaptation and Integration is a chronological study of the migration of various ethnic groups to the United States from 1500 to the present day This multivolume collection explores dozens of immigrant populations in America and delves into major topical issues affecting different groups across time periods For example the first author of the collection profiles African Americans as an example of the effects of involuntary migrations A cross disciplinary approach derived from the contributions of leading scholars in the fields of history sociology cultural development economics political science law and cultural adaptation introduces a comparative analysis of customs beliefs and character among groups and provides insight into the impact of newcomers on American society and culture The New Americans Mary C. Waters, Reed Ueda, Helen B. Marrow, 2007-01-30 The U S has always been a nation of immigrants shaped by successive waves of new arrivals This comprehensive guide provides an authoritative account of the most recent surge of immigrants Based on the latest U S Census data and scholarly research this book is an essential reference for anyone curious about the changing face of America The Other African Americans Yoku Shaw-Taylor, Steven A. Tuch, 2007-08-02 America s black population is becoming increasingly diverse and the presence of Caribbean and especially African immigrants continues to grow throughout the country The Other African Americans seeks to broaden our understanding of these groups by exploring the changing intraracial dynamics among African Americans as new immigrants settle in the U S and become Americans This edited volume of original research provides historical and contemporary information on African and Caribbean individuals and families addressing particular topical areas covering the most salient issues facing these immigrants today African Immigrants and the American Experience Imali J. Abala, Wanjala S. Nasong'o, Kefa M. Mazrui, 2014-10-16 One of the most important functions of religion is to serve as a basis of identity This collection of essays by Ali A Mazrui a distinguished scholar of Islam discusses how Islam differentiates Muslims from non Muslims and affects how Muslims view each other In the light of the upheaval currently occurring in the Muslim world this collection provides readers with valuable context for the challenges of modernity and multiculturalism faced by Muslims In these essays Mazrui deploys his formidable knowledge of theology history and Muslim societies to analyze the theological historical and political influences on Muslim identity In his usual style of comparative analysis Mazrui draws most frequently in these essays from examples in Africa the Middle East South Asia and Muslim communities in the West These essays delve into the complexities of Muslim identity and stratification and provide contributions to key debates on modern Islamic political ideology These essays will be of interest to readers engaged with Islam religion culture comparative politics and international relations African Scholars and Intellectuals in North American Academies Sabella Ogbobode Abidde, 2020-11-29 This book examines the process and events surrounding the migration of African scholars as well as their lives and lived experiences within and outside of their colleges and universities The chapters chronicle the lived experiences and observations of African scholars in North America and examine a range of issues ideas and phenomena within North American colleges and universities The contributors examine the political ethnic or religious upheavals that informed their migration or banishment contrast the teaching learning research environment in Africa and North America and discuss on and off campus experience with segregation and racial inequality This book will be of interest to students and scholars of the African Diaspora migration and African Studies Rethinking the Color Line Charles A. Gallagher, 2022-01-20 Rethinking the Color Line helps make sense of how race and ethnicity influence aspects of social life in ways that are often made invisible by culture politics and economics Charles A Gallagher has assembled a collection of readings that are theoretically informed and empirically grounded to explain the dynamics of race and ethnicity in the United States Students will be equipped to confidently navigate the issues of race and ethnicity examine its contradictions and gain a comprehensive understanding of how race and ethnic relations are embedded in the institutions that structure their lives User friendly without sacrificing intellectual or theoretical rigor the Seventh Edition has been thoroughly updated to reflect the current debates and the state of contemporary U S race relations

Erasing Invisibility, Inequity and Social Injustice of Africans in the Diaspora and the Continent Peter Otiato Ojiambo, Omiunota N. Ukpokodu, 2017-11-06 This volume engages the reader in understanding past and contemporary critical issues in African scholarship both in the diaspora and on the continent that have been marginalized unexamined and under researched and proposes ways to make them visible The book is timely as it imagines and reimagines scholarship on Africans in the diaspora and on the continent It is bold and authentically unpacks African immigrants individual and collective cultural educational social and institutional experiences especially in the context of US K-12 schools as they navigate and negotiate transnational spaces regarding identity and shifting positionalities The editors and contributors who are themselves African immigrants exemplify their spirits of Sankofa as they look back to their roots in order to give back to their Motherland by fighting for the visibility equity and social justice of Africans in the diaspora and on the continent The book proposes critical and insightful ideas that educators researchers policy makers social and human services and community leaders will find valuable

Race, Class, Gender, and Immigrant Identities in Education Adrienne Wynn, Greg Wiggan, Marcia J. Watson-Vandiver, Annette Teasdell, 2021-10-11 This volume addresses the underlying intersections of race class and gender on immigrant girls experiences living in the US It examines the impact of acculturation and assimilation on Ethiopian girls academic achievement self identity and perception of beauty The authors employ Critical Race Theory Critical Race Feminism and Afrocentricity to situate the study and unpack the narratives shared by these newcomers as they navigate social contexts rife with racism xenophobia and other forms of oppression Lastly the authors examine the implications of Ethiopian immigrant identities and experiences within multicultural education policy development and society

Africans in Global Migration John A. Arthur, Joseph Takougang, Thomas Owusu, 2012-08-31 Four overarching themes underscore the essays in this book These are the creation of African diaspora community and institutional structures the structured and shared relationships among African immigrants host and homeland societies the construction and negotiation of diaspora spaces and domains racial ethnic class consciousness including identity politics and finally African migrant economic integration occupational and labor force roles and statuses and impact on host societies Each of the thematic themes has been chosen with one specific goal in mind to depict and represent the critical components in the reconstitution of the African diaspora in international migration We contextualized the themes in the African diaspora as a dynamic process involving what Paul Zeleza called the diasporization of African immigrant settlement communities in global transnational spaces These themes also reflect the diversities inherent in the diaspora communities and call attention to the fluid and dynamic boundaries within which Africans create diffuse and engage host and home societies In this context the themes outlined in this book embody the diaspora tapestries woven by the immigrants to center African social and cultural forms in their host societies and communities Collectively the themes represent pathways for the elucidation of understanding African immigrant territorialization Our purpose is to map out and identify the sources and sites for the contestations of the myriad of cultural manifestations of the new African diaspora and its depictions within the totality of the shared meanings and appropriations of the essences of African ness or African blackness The vulnerabilities struggles threats internal or external to the immigrant community and opportunities emanating from the diasporic relationships that these immigrants create are accentuated within the nexus of African global migrations We view the African diaspora in terms of spatial and geographic constructions and propagations of African cultural identities and institutional forms in global domains whose boundaries are not static but rather dynamic complex and multidimensional Simply stated we approach the African diaspora from a perspective that incorporates the historical as well as contemporary postmodern constructions of the Africa s dispersed communities and their associated transnational identity forms

Sub-Saharan African Immigrants' Stories of Resilience and Courage Mariam Konate,Fredah Mainah,2022-12-06 The purpose of this book is to give a voice to nameless and countless stories that represent the personal lived experiences of sub Saharan African immigrants in the United States The authors believe that telling our own stories from our own perspectives is important and empowering because when others tell our stories there are omissions and misrepresentations and a lot of stereotyping The authors hope that the insights gained from the research in this book will be used by immigrant communities academic institutions and governmental agencies in advocating for immigration policies that positively impact the lived experiences of sub Saharan African immigrants and in planning support interventions

Xenophobia, Nativism and Pan-Africanism in 21st Century Africa Sabella Ogbobode Abidde,Emmanuel Kasonde Matambo,2021-12-14 This edited volume systematically analyzes the connection between xenophobia nativism and Pan Africanism It situates attacks on black Africans by fellow black Africans within the context of ideals such as Pan Africanism and Ubuntu which emphasize unity The book straddles a range of social science perspectives to explain why attacks on foreign nationals in Africa usually entail attacks on black foreign nationals Written by an international and interdisciplinary team of scholars the book is divided into four sections that each explain a different facet of this complicated relationship Section One discusses the history of colonialism and apartheid and their relationship to xenophobia Section Two critically evaluates Pan Africanism as a concept and as a practice in 21st century Africa Section Three presents case studies on xenophobia in contemporary Africa Section Four similarly discusses cases of nativism Addressing a complex issue in contemporary African politics this volume will be of use to students and scholars interested in African studies African politics human rights migration history law and development economics

Diasporic

Choices Renata Seredynska-Abou Eid, 2019-01-04 This volume was first published by Inter Disciplinary Press in 2013 This volume examines the complex and inter disciplinary issue of diaspora in the context of globalisation and contributing social historical and cultural factors of the modern world Each chapter offers a distinct point of view and a particular way of understanding diasporas in numerous cultures and societies in different parts of the globe The collection consists of a series of detailed analyses of aspects ranging from diasporic representations in the cinema literature and poetry to diasporic projections in current socio political and international matters Each chapter provides an individual examination of a particular aspect of diaspora in order to frame a bigger picture of modern diasporic choices
