Books in the Catholic World during the Early Modern Period Natalia Maillard Álvarez,2013-12-09 The Reformation is often alluded to as Gutenberg s child Could it then be said that the Counter Reformation was his step child The close relationship between the Reformation the printing press and books has received extensive historiographical attention which is clearly justified however the links between books and the Catholic world have often been limited to a tale of censorship and repression The current volume looks beyond this with a series of papers that aim to shed new light on the complex relationships between Catholicism and books during the early modern period before and after the religious schism with special focus on trade common reads and the mechanisms used to control readership in different territories together with the similarities between the Catholic and the Protestant worlds Contributors include Stijn Van Rossem Rafael M P rez Garc a Pedro J Rueda Ram rez Idalia Garc a Aguilar Bianca Lindorfer Natalia Maillard lvarez and Adrien Delmas Vernacular Books and Their Readers in the Early Age of Print (c. 1450-1600) Anna Dlabáčová, Andrea van Leerdam, John J. Thompson, 2023-09-14 The Open Access publishing costs of this volume were covered by the Dutch Research Council NWO Veni project Leaving a Lasting Impression The Impact of Incunabula on Late Medieval Spirituality Religious Practice and Visual Culture in the Low Countries grant number 275 30 036 This volume explores various approaches to study vernacular books and reading practices across Europe in the 15th 16th centuries Through a shared focus on the material book as an interface between producers and users the contributors investigate how book producers conceived of their target audiences and how these vernacular books were designed and used Three sections highlight connections between vernacularity and materiality from distinct perspectives real and imagined readers mobility of texts and images and intermediality The volume brings contributions on different regions languages and book types into dialogue Contributors include Heather Bamford Tillmann Taape Stefan Matter Suzan Folkerts Karolina Mroziejewicz Martha W Driver Alexa Sand Elisabeth de Bruijn Katell Lav ant Margriet Hoogvliet and Walter S Melion Contemporary German Fiction Writers Wolfgang Elfe, James N. Hardin, 1988 Essays on West German East German and Swiss German authors who experienced Nazi rule and World War II as adults Entries examine these writers coming to terms with the experience of fascism and how they were often the conscience of a society that was inclined to forget its recent past The lives and works of these writers provide an insight not only into German literature but also into several decades of German history Penitence, Preaching and the Coming of the Reformation Anne T. Thayer, 2017-07-05 Why did the Reformation take root in some places and not others Although many factors were involved the varying character of penitential preaching across Europe in the decades prior to the Reformation was an especially important contributor to the subsequent receptivity of evangelical ideas In this book several collections of model sermons are studied to provide an overview of late medieval teaching on penitence What emerges is a pattern of differing emphases in different geographical locations with the characteristic emphases of the penitential message in each region suggesting how such teaching prepared the ground for both the appeal and the reputation of Luther's message People heard and interpreted the new theology using the late medieval penitential understandings and expectations they had been taught The variety of teaching found in the Church left different regions vulnerable or resistant to evangelical critiques and alternatives Despite current academic claims that the establishment of the Reformation cannot have resulted from lay religious understanding this study offers evidence that theological ideas did reach beyond religious elites to promote a degree of popular support for the Reformation      Library Company of Philadelphia: 1999 Annual Report ,      The Primacy of the Postils John M. Frymire, 2010 Drawing on an extensive collection of Catholic Lutheran and Calvinist sermon collections postils this book offers the first comprehensive systematic presentation of standard preaching texts in early modern Germany including their creation print production use and censorship      The Bookshop of the World Lotte Hellinga, Alastair Duke, Jacob Harskamp, Theo Hermans, 2021-10-25 Proceedings of a Conference held in London 15-17 September 1999 organized by The Association for Low Countries Studies University College London Centre for Dutch and Flemish Culture The British Library Dutch and Flemish section Wellcome Institute for the History of Medicine Twenty five papers by experts in their particular period or area were selected for publication Covering almost five centuries they represent a wholly modern approach to the history of the book and publishing in a European context highlighting for the first time the crucial role of the Low Countries in transmitting the intellectual heritage of an area well beyond their own changing borders
