The Political Economy of Iran Farhad Gohardani, Zahra Tizro, 2019-03-07 This study entails a theoretical reading of the Iranian modern history and follows an interdisciplinary agenda at the intersection of philosophy psychoanalysis economics and politics and intends to offer a novel framework for the analysis of socio economic development in Iran in the modern era A brief review of Iranian modern history from the Constitutional Revolution to the Oil Nationalization Movement the 1979 Islamic Revolution and the recent Reformist and Green Movements demonstrates that Iranian people travelled full circle This historical experience of socio economic development revolving around the bitter question of Why are we backward and its manifestation in perpetual socio political instability and violence is the subject matter of this study Michel Foucault's conceived relation between the production of truth and production of wealth captures the essence of hypothesis offered in this study Foucault 1980 93 94 maintains that In the last analysis we must produce truth as we must produce wealth indeed we must produce truth in order to produce wealth in the first place Based on a hybrid methodology combining hermeneutics of understanding and hermeneutics of suspicion this monograph proposes that the failure to produce wealth has had particular roots in the failure in the production of truth and trust At the heart of the proposed theoretical model is the following formula the Iranian subject's confused preference structure culminates in the formation of unstable coalitions which in turn leads to institutional failure creating a chaotic social order and a turbulent history as experienced by the Iranian nation in the modern era As such the society oscillates between the chaotic states of socio political anarchy emanating from irreconcilable differences between and within social assemblages and their affiliated hybrid forms of regimes of truth in the springs of freedom and repressive states of order in the winters of discontent Each time after the experience of chaos the order is restored based on the emergence of a final arbiter Iranian leviathan as the evolved coping strategy for achieving conflict resolution This highly volatile truth cycle produces the experience of socio economic backwardness and violence The explanatory power of the theoretical framework offered in the study exploring the relation between the production of truth trust and wealth is demonstrated via providing historical examples from strong events of Iranian modern history The significant policy implications of the model are explored This monograph will appeal to researchers scholars graduate students policy makers and anyone interested in the

Middle Eastern politics Iran development studies and political economy Cultural Revolution in Iran Annabelle Sreberny, Massoumeh Torfeh, 2013-10-17 The Islamic Republic of Iran has entered its fourth decade and the values and legacy of the Revolution it was founded upon continue to have profound and contradictory consequences for Iranian life Despite the repressive power of the current regime the immense creativity of popular cultural practices that negotiate and resist a repressive system is a potent and dynamic force This book draws on the expertise and experience of Iranian and international academics and activists to address diverse areas of social and cultural innovation that are driving change and progress While religious conservatism remains the creed of the establishment this volume uncovers an underground world of new technology media and entertainment that speaks to women seeking a greater public role and a restless younger generation that organises and engages with global trends online The Iranian Political Language Yadullah Shahibzadeh, 2015-10-14 In this detailed study of modern Iran Yadullah Shahibzadeh examines changes in people's understanding of politics and democracy The book aims to overcome the shortcomings of traditional historiography by challenging the monopoly of intellectuals perspectives and demonstrating the intellectual and political agency of the ordinary people Representation, recognition and respect in world politics Constance Duncombe, 2019-01-22 This timely book explains how recognition and misrecognition have the power to fuel conflict and to initiate reconciliation Constance Duncombe presents a detailed conceptual and empirical investigation of one of the most significant flashpoints in global politics the fraught bilateral relations between the US and Iran Duncombe uses this relationship to explore the importance of representation in shaping the identity of a state as well as how it is recognised by others on the world stage In 2015 Iran and the US reached an agreement on the framework for a long term deal that allows Iran limited nuclear technological capacity in exchange for the lifting of debilitating economic sanctions In light of decades of animosity between Iran and the US which previously thwarted attempts on both sides to reach an amicable agreement this book asks how we can best explain the initial success of this deal given the Trump administration's 2018 US withdrawal from the agreement The Routledge International Handbook of Contemporary Muslim Socio-Political Thought Lutfi Sunar, 2021-08-30 This volume unfolds the ebbs and flows of Muslim thought in different regions of the world as well as the struggles between the different intellectual discourses that have surfaced against this backdrop With a focus on Turkey Egypt Iran and the Indian subcontinent regions that in spite of their particular histories and forms of thought are uniquely placed as a mosaic that illustrates the intertwined nature of the development of Muslim socio political thought it sheds light on the swing between right and left in different regions the debates surrounding nationalism the influence of socialism and liberalism the rise of Islamism and the conflict between state bureaucracy and social movements Exploring themes of civil society and democracy it also considers current trends in Muslim thought and possible future directions As such it will appeal to scholars across the fields of sociology anthropology political science history and political economy as well as those with interests in the study of religion the development of Muslim thought and the transformation of Muslim societies in recent decades Theater State and the Formation of Early Modern Public Sphere in Iran Babak Rahimi, 2011-11-11 This first systematic study of a wide range of Persian and European archival and primary sources analyzes how the Muharram rituals changed from being an originally devotional practice to public events of political significance setting the stage for the emergence of the early modern Iranian public sphere in the Safavid period Forugh Farrokhzad, Poet of Modern Iran Dominic Parviz Brookshaw, Nasrin Rahimieh, 2010-11-05 The pioneering Iranian poet and filmmaker Forugh Farrokhzad was an iconic figure in her own day and has come to represent the spirit of revolt against patriarchal and cultural norms in 1960s Iran Four decades after her tragic death at the age of 32 Forugh Farrokhzad Poet of Modern Iran brings her ground breaking work into new focus During her lifetime Farrokhzad embodied the vexed predicament of the contemporary Iranian woman at once subjected to long held traditional practices and influenced by newly introduced modern social sensibilities Highlighting her literary and cinematic innovation this volume examines the unique place Farrokhzad occupies in Iran both among modern Persian poets in general and as an Iranian woman writer in particular The authors also explore Farrokhzad's appeal outside Iran in the Iranian diasporic imagination and through the numerous translations of her poetry into English It is a fitting and authoritative tribute to the work of a remarkable woman which will introduce and explain her legacy for a 21st century audience Iran Homa Katouzian, 2013 This book offers a view of Iran through politics history and literature showing how the three angles combine Iran being a revolutionary society experienced two great revolutions within the short span of just seventy years from the 1900s to the 1970s Both were massive revolts of the society against the state the main objective of the first being to establish lawful government to make modernisation possible and the second to overthrow the absolute and arbitrary state though this time mainly under the banner of religion and Marxism Leninism and anti Westernism Neither of them succeeded in their lofty ideals for reasons that are explained and analysed within The author also offers a detailed description of Iran's short term society examining the political and intellectual lives of two of the most remarkable intellectuals cum politicians of the twentieth century This book provides an overview of modern Persian literature both poetry and prose and discusses the works of three of the most remarkable Persian poets and writers of the period It considers classical Persian literature through the great variety of its form and substance and neo classical literary developments in the nineteenth century covering the whole history of Persian literature This is crowned in the last chapter by the love poetry of one of the greatest Persian poets Iran will be of interest to students and scholars of Iranian studies and Middle East Politics Nomads in Postrevolutionary Iran Lois Beck, 2014-09-19 Examining the rapid transition in Iran from a modernizing westernizing secularizing monarchy 1941-79 to a hard line conservative clergy run Islamic republic 1979 this book focuses on the ways this process has impacted the Qashqai a rural nomadic tribally organized Turkish speaking ethnic minority of a million and a half people who are dispersed across the southern Zagros Mountains Analysing the relationship between the tribal polity and each of the two regimes the book goes on to explain the resilience of the people's tribal organizations kinship networks and politicized ethnolinguistic identities to demonstrate how these structures and ideologies offered the Qashqa'i a way to confront the pressures emanating from the two central governments Existing scholarly works on politics in Iran rarely consider Iranian society outside the capital of Tehran and beyond the reach of the details of national politics Local level studies on Iran accounts of the ways people actually lived are now rare especially after the revolution Based on long term anthropological research Nomads in Postrevolutionary Iran provides a unique insight into how national level issues relate to the local level and will be of interest to scholars and researchers in Anthropology Iranian Studies and Middle Eastern Studies

Multicultural America Ronald H. Bayor, 2011-07-22 This encyclopedia contains 50 thorough profiles of the most numerically significant immigrant groups now making their homes in the United States telling the story of our newest immigrants and introducing them to their fellow Americans One of the main reasons the United States has evolved so quickly and radically in the last 100 years is the large number of ethnically diverse immigrants that have become part of its population People from every area of the world have come to America in an effort to realize their dreams of more opportunity and better lives either for themselves or for their children This book provides a fascinating picture of the lives of immigrants from 50 countries who have contributed substantially to the diversity of the United States exploring all aspects of the immigrants lives in the old world as well as the new Each essay explains why these people have come to the United States how they have adjusted to and integrated into American society and what portends for their future Accounts of the experiences of the second generation and the effects of relations between the United States and the sending country round out these unusually rich and demographically detailed portraits A Critical Introduction to Khomeini Arshin

Adib-Moghaddam, 2014-02-10 As the architect of the Iranian Revolution of 1979 Ayatollah Khomeini remains one of the most inspirational and enigmatic figures of the twentieth century The revolution placed Iran at the forefront of Middle East politics and the Islamic revival Twenty years after his death Khomeini is revered as a spiritual and political figurehead in Iran and in large swathes of the Islamic world while in the West he is remembered by many as a dictator and the instigator of Islamist confrontation Arshin Adib Moghaddam brings together distinguished and emerging scholars in this comprehensive volume which covers all aspects of Khomeini's life and critically examines Khomeini the politician the philosopher and the spiritual leader while considering his legacy in Iran and further afield in other parts of the Islamic world and the West Written by scholars from varying disciplines the book will prove invaluable to students and general readers interested in the life and times of Khomeini and the politics that he inspired Domesticity and Consumer Culture in Iran Pamela Karimi, 2013-05-29 Examining Iran's recent history through the double lens of domesticity and consumer culture Domesticity and Consumer Culture in Iran demonstrates that a significant component of the modernization process in Iran advanced beyond political and public spheres On the cusp of Iran's entry into modernity the rules and tenets that had traditionally defined the Iranian home began to vanish and the influx of new household goods gradually led to the substantial physical expansion of the domestic milieu. Subsequently architects, designers and commercial advertisers shifted their attention from commercial and public architecture to the new home and its contents. Domesticity and consumer culture also became topics of interest among politicians, Shiite religious scholars and the Left who communicated their respective views via the popular media and numerous other means. In the interim, ordinary Iranian families who were capable of selectively appropriating aspects of their immediate surroundings demonstrated their resistance toward the officially sanctioned transformations. Through analyzing a series of case studies that elucidate such phenomena and appraising a wide range of objects and archival documents from furnishings, appliances, architectural blueprints and maps to photographs, films, TV series, novels, artworks, scrapbooks, work logs, personal letters and reports, this book highlights the significance of private life in social, economic and political contexts of modern Iran. Tackling the subject of home from a variety of perspectives, Domesticity and Consumer Culture in Iran thus shows the interplay between local aspirations, foreign influences, gender roles, consumer culture and women's education as they intersect with taste, fashion, domestic architecture and interior design.

Recasting Iranian Modernity Kamran Matin, 2013-11-07. Critically deploying the idea of uneven and combined development, this book provides a novel, non-Eurocentric account of Iran's experience of modernity and revolution. Recasting Iranian Modernity presents the argument that Eurocentrism can be decisively overcome through a social theory that has international relations at its ontological core. This will enable a conception of history in which there is an intrinsic international dimension to social change that prevents historical repetition. This hitherto under-theorized international dimension is the book argues manifest in combined patterns of development which incorporate both foreign and native forms. It is the tension-prone and unstable nature of these hybrid developmental patterns that mark Iranian modernity and fuelled the socio-political dynamics of the 1979 revolution and the rise of political Islam. Challenging solely comparative approaches to the Iranian Revolution that explain it away as either a deviation from or a reaction to modernity on the grounds of its religious form, this book will be valuable to those interested in an alternative theoretical approach to the Iranian Revolution, modern Iran and political Islam, working in the fields of International Relations, Middle East and Islamic Studies, History, Political Science, Political Sociology, Postcolonialism and Comparative Politics.

Iran and Russian Imperialism Moritz Deutschmann, 2015-12-22. Rather than a centralized state, Iran in the nineteenth century was a delicate balance between tribal groups, urban merchant communities, religious elites and an autocratic monarchy. While Russia gained an increasingly dominant political role in Iran over the course of this century, Russian influence was often challenged by banditry on the roads, riots in the cities and the seeming arbitrariness of the Shah. Iran and Russian Imperialism develops a comprehensive picture of Russia's historical entanglements with one of its most important neighbours in Asia. It recounts how the Russian Empire strived to gain political influence at the Persian court, promote Russian trade and secure the enormous southern borders of the empire. Using hitherto often neglected documents, from archives in Russia and Georgia and reading them against the grain this book reveals the complex reactions of different groups in Iranian society to Russian imperialism As it turns out the Iranians were in the words of the Russian orientalist Konstantin Smirnov ideal anarchists whose resistance to imperial domination as well as to centralized state institutions more generally impacted developments in the region in the century to come Iran s troubled relationship with the wider world continues to be a topic of considerable interest to historians yet little focus has been given to Russia s historical connections to Iran This book thus represents a valuable contribution to Iranian and Russian History as well as International Relations

Gender in Contemporary Iran Rokhsana Bahramitash, Eric Hooglund, 2011-03-29 This book examines gender and the dynamics of social change in contemporary Iran documenting the changes in women s lives and showing how women have now become agents of social change rather than victims Bringing together the detailed primary research of a number of eminent scholars working in Iran this collection provides unique perspectives on the past decade in Iranian society Chapters document and examine how different Iranian groups and classes are negotiating resisting and pressing for political and social change to explore the complexity of a society that often is portrayed in monolithic stereotypes in the international media Thematically arranged sections explore discourses around gender and the impact of these discourses on women the gendered impact of educational employment communications and cultural changes changing gender attitudes among the post revolutionary generation of youth and the ways economic changes have been affecting women Providing an important basis for understanding social and political developments in a country that has been a focus of international attention for much of the last decade this collection will be an important reference for scholars of Iranian studies gender studies political science and sociology

Gnostic Apocalypse and Islam Todd Lawson, 2012-03-12 Of the several works on the rise and development of the Babi movement especially those dealing with the life and work of its founder Sayyid Ali Muhammad Shirazi few deal directly with the compelling and complex web of mysticism theology and philosophy found in his earliest compositions This book examines the Islamic roots of the Babi religion and by extension the later Baha i faith which developed out of it through the Qur anic commentaries of the Bab and sheds light on its relationship to the wider religious milieu and its profound debt to esoteric Islam especially Shi ism Todd Lawson places the two earliest writings of the Bab within the diverse contexts necessary to understand them in order to explain why these writings made sense to and inspired his followers He delves into the history of the tafsir Qur an commentary genre of Islamic scholarship situates these early writings in the Akhbari Sufi and most importantly Shaykhi traditions of Islam In the process he identifies both the continuities and discontinuities between these works and earlier works of Shi i tafsir helping us appreciate significant elements of the Bab s thought and claims Filling an important gap in the existing literature on the Babi movement this book will be of greatest interest to students and scholars of Qur an commentary Mysticism Shi ism the modern history of Iran and messianism

An Intellectual Biography of Mohammad Mojtahed Shabestari Katajun Amirpur, 2025-03-03 This monograph

Literary Subterfuge and Contemporary Persian Fiction Mohammad Khorrami, 2014-09-25 The main focus of Literary Subterfuge and Contemporary Persian Fiction is to identify components and elements which define Persian modernist fiction placing an emphasis on literary concepts and devices which provide the dynamics of the evolutionary trajectory of this modernism The question of who writes Iran refers to a contested area which goes beyond the discipline of literary criticism Non literary discourses have made every effort to impose their committed readings on literary texts they have even managed to exert influence on the process of literary creation In this process inevitably many works or segments of them and many concepts which do not lend themselves to such readings have been ignored at the same time many of them have been appropriated by these discourses Yet components and elements of Persian literary tradition have persistently engaged in this discursive confrontation mainly by insisting on literature s relative autonomy so that at least concepts such as conformity and subterfuge essential in terms of defining modern and modernist Persian fiction could be defined in a literary manner Proffering an alternative in terms of literary historiography this book supports a methodological approach that considers literary narratives which occur in the margins of dominant discourses and indeed promote non discursivity as the main writers of Persian modernist fiction It is an essential resource for scholars and researchers interested in Persian and comparative literature as well as Middle Eastern Studies more broadly
