

IRISH HISTORY

An Illustrated A-Z

POBLACHT NA h EIREANN THE PROVISIONAL GOVERNMENT OF THE IRISH REPUBLIC TO THE PEOPLE OF IRELAND.

WEISSEN AND EISENBERG. In the name of God and of the dead generations from which she receives her old tradition of institution, Ireland, through us, restores her children to her flag and service for her freedom.

Having organised and trained her household through her secret revolutionary organisation, the Irish Republican Brotherhood, and through her own military organisations, the Irish Volunteers and the Irish Citizen Army, having patiently perfected her discipline, having repeatedly marked the true rights, means, to reveal itself, she now claims that which she has long and justly claimed as hers, a and by God's will, in Europe, her fellow in the last of her own struggle, she stands in full confidence of victory.

We declare the rights of the people of Ireland to the sovereignty of Ireland, and to the national control of their destinies to be sovereign and independent. The long usurpation of that right by a foreign people and government has no longer had the right, nor can it ever be extinguished except by the destruction of the Irish people. As every generation the Irish people have asserted their right to national freedom and sovereignty, this time during the past few years they have asserted it in arms. Standing on this fundamental right and upon asserting it in arms in the face of the world, we hereby proclaim the Irish Republic as a sovereign independent State, and we pledge our lives and the lives of our comrades in arms to the cause of its freedom, of its welfare, and of its exaltation among the nations.

The Irish Republic is entitled to and hereby claims the allegiance of every Irishman and Irishwoman. The Republic guarantees religious and civil liberty, equal rights and equal opportunities to all its citizens, and declares its resolve to secure the happiness and prosperity of the whole nation and of all its parts, cherishing all the children of the nation equally, and cherishing the different capacity, fostered by its own government, which have divided a minority from the majority in the past.

Until our arms have brought the opportune moment for the establishment of a permanent National Government, representatives of the whole people of Ireland and elected by the suffrages of all her men and women, the Provisional Government, hereby constituted, will administer the civil and military affairs of the Republic in trust for the people.

We place the cause of the Irish Republic under the protection of the Most High God, Whom we invoke, we invoke again, and again, and we pray that no man who serves that cause will find fault in by cowardice, indecisiveness, or delay. In this supreme hour the Irish nation must, by its valor and discipline and by the sacrifice of its children to sacrifice themselves for the common good, prove itself worthy of the august destiny to which it is called.

Signed on behalf of the Provisional Government,
THOMAS J. CLARKE,
MICHAEL MAC DONAGH, THOMAS MACDONAGH,
P. H. PEARCE, SAMUEL GEORGE,
JAMES CONNOLLY, JOSEPH PLUNKETT.

There is a reproduction of the poster by which the Irish Republic was declared in Dublin, 26th April, 1916. The poster, it will be observed, bears no date.
