From the City as a Project to the City Project Fernando Carrión Mena, Sebastián Rodríguez Alvarez, 2025-09-26 The city has historically been conceived as a project with a sense of duty to be it is the prefiguration of a reality that emerges from the negation of the pre existing city The city anticipates a desired future from an ideal perspective that tends to overcome the existing structural or particular challenges of the present It can be argued that this proposition represents the historical trajectory of urban thought on a planetary scale Therefore the prospective dimension of the city constituted a central dynamic in urban theory throughout history leading to the emergence of planning as a key approach The history of the city as a project is the core of the first volume in this two part contribution It presents an overview of diverse city projects that have been pursued throughout history providing a framework for exploring new perspectives of urban development The cities profiled and analyzed here reflect a living catalog of initiatives that can inform promising directions More than a compilation this volume compares and critically assesses these historical projects to provide a grounding for the contemporary advances presented in the second volume

Kyiv, Ukraine - Revised Edition Roman Cybriwsky, 2025-10-01 The unrest and violence in Ukraine in recent years shocked the world and the region's long term future remains troublingly uncertain Focusing on the difficulty of Kiev's transition from socialism to market democracy this book demonstrates how Ukraine reached this turbulent point Roman Adrian Cybriwsky delves deeply into the changing social geography of the city recent urban development and critical problems such as official corruption inequality sex tourism and the heedless destruction of the city's historical architecture all difficulties that have contributed incrementally to Ukrainian citizens' anger against their government This thoroughly revised edition brings Cybriwsky's account of events and their ramifications fully up to date offering the clearest picture we've had yet of what has happened and what is likely still to come in Ukraine

Hospitality, Home and Life in the Platform Economies of Tourism Maartje Roelofsen, 2022-05-20 This book explores how digital platforms in the realm of tourism and hospitality have shaped social and material worlds Based on extensive ethnographic fieldwork with hosts and guests the book analyses the impacts of platforms on the scale of the city the home and the everyday life of individuals The book first situates platforms within the broader history of digital developments in tourism and questions what is essentially new about these socio technical formations The following chapters demonstrate how platforms have affected urban housing challenged the tourism sector and transformed understandings of hospitality and home This is illustrated through a case study of Airbnb's development and impact in Sofia Bulgaria The final chapters of the book reflect on the political dimensions of datafication processes and digital systems of measurement that underpin the platform's workings showing how the platform economies of tourism benefit their users in highly uneven ways

Stolen Cars Gabriel Feltran, 2022-01-18 Stolen Cars is an innovative ethnography of urban inequalities and violence in S o Paulo Brazil Organized around the journeys of five stolen cars each chapter discusses a specific theme such as the distinctions between violent robbery and the more commercial non violent theft or the role of national borders interconnecting illegal and legal economies Provides an original theoretical framework for a rarely studied urban and transnational supply chain Draws from empirical data and a combination of different methodologies to demonstrate mechanisms of urban inequalities and violence reproduction Highlights how everyday life is entangled with structural urban transformations Uses an ethnographic narrative to show how urban development produce various forms of illegality and violent crime

The Commodification Gap Matthias Bernt, 2022-04-12 THE COMMODIFICATION GAP In an elegant and careful theoretical analysis this book demonstrates how gentrification is always entwined with institutions and distinctive contextual processes Matthias Bernt develops a new concept the commodification gap which is tested in three richly researched cases With this the concept of gentrification becomes a multiplicity and the possibility of conversations across different urban contexts is expanded A richly rewarding read Jennifer Robinson Professor of Human Geography University College London UK Urban studies has reached a stalemate of universalism versus particularism Matthias Bernt is breaking out of this deadlock by being very precise about what exactly is universal and what is not and how one can conceptualize both The Commodity Gap is a key contribution to not only gentrification studies but also to comparative urbanism and urban studies at large Manuel B Aalbers Division of Geography Tourism KU Leuven Belgium The Commodification Gap provides an insightful institutionalist perspective on the field of gentrification studies The book explores the relationship between the operation of gentrification and the institutions underpinning but also influencing and restricting it in three neighborhoods in London Berlin and St Petersburg Matthias Bernt demonstrates how different institutional arrangements have resulted in the facilitation deceleration or alteration of gentrification across time and place The book is based on empirical studies conducted in Great Britain Germany and Russia and contains one of the first ever English language discussions of gentrification in Germany and Russia It begins with an examination of the limits of the widely established rent gap theory and proposes the novel concept of the commodification gap It then moves on to explore how different institutional contexts in the UK Germany and Russia have framed the conditions for these gaps to enable gentrification The Commodification Gap is an indispensable resource for researchers and academics studying human geography housing studies urban sociology and spatial planning

Comparative Urbanism

Jennifer Robinson, 2022-07-25 COMPARATIVE URBANISM Comparative Urbanism fully transforms the scope and purpose of urban studies today distilling innovative conceptual and methodological tools The theoretical and empirical scope is astounding enlightening emboldening Robinson peels away conceptual labels that have anointed some cities as paradigmatic and left others as mere copies She recalibrates overly used theoretical perspectives resurrects forgotten ones long in need of a dusting off and brings to the fore those often marginalised Robinson's approach radically re distributes who speaks for the urban and which urban conditions shape our theoretical understandings With Comparative Urbanism in our hands we can start the practice of urban studies anywhere and be relevant to any number of elsewheres Jane M Jacobs Professor of Urban Studies Yale NUS College Singapore How to think the multiplicity of urban realities at the same time across different times and rhythmic arrangements how to move with the emergences and stand stills with conceptualisations that do justice to all things gathered under the name of the urban How to imagine comparatively amongst differences that remain different individualised outcomes but yet exist in common No book has so carefully conducted a specifically urban philosophy on these matters capable of beginning and ending anywhere Abdou Maliq Simone Senior Research Fellow Urban Institute University of Sheffield The rapid pace and changing nature of twenty first century urbanisation as well as the diversity of global urban experiences calls for new theories and new methodologies in urban studies In Comparative Urbanism Tactics for Global Urban Studies Jennifer Robinson proposes grounds for reformatting comparative urban practice and offers a wide range of tactics for researching global urban experiences The focus is on inventing new concepts as well as revising existing approaches Inspired by postcolonial and decolonial critiques of urban studies she advocates for an experimental comparative urbanism open to learning from different urban experiences and to expanding conversations amongst urban scholars across the globe The book features a wealth of examples of comparative urban research concerned with many dimensions of urban life A range of theoretical and philosophical approaches ground an understanding of the radical revisability and emergent nature of concepts of the urban Advanced students urbanists and scholars will be prompted to compose comparisons which trace the interconnected and relational character of the urban and to think with the variety of urban experiences and urbanisation processes across the globe to produce the new insights the twenty first century urban world demands

If Cars Could Walk Ger Duijzings,Tauri Tuvikene,2023-07-14 In the last twenty five years the explosive rise of car mobility has transformed street life in postsocialist cities Whereas previously the social fabric of these cities ran on socialist modes of mobility they are now overtaken by a culture of privately owned cars If Cars Could Walk uses ethnographic cases studies documenting these changes in terms of street interaction vehicles used and the parameters of speed maneuverability and cultural and symbolic values The altered reality of people s movements replacing public transport bicycles and other former socialist modes of mobility with privatized mobility reflect an evolving political and cultural imagination which in turn shapes their current political reality

Politics of Representation Sascha Roth,2018-09 After the privatisation of state owned housing relationships between states and citizens in former socialist countries have undergone major social economic and ideological transformations This book investigates changes associated with housing in Azerbaijan It traces the subtle continuities of people s past housing experiences and the role of solidarity and support among families and kin groups in the quest to secure housing for future generations Based on ethnographic fieldwork and archival research in the capital of Baku this book demonstrates that housing cannot be reduced to its economic aspects but is strongly embedded in wider social processes and moral expectations An anthropological perspective on the phenomenon of housing in people s everyday lives serves as a starting point to illuminate crucial notions of house and home and to explore the manifold connections of these notions with past and present ideologies of modernisation It explores too how the role of architecture and materiality in official politics has served socialist and postsocialist states through mis representations and the negotiation of state citizen relations in general

Mapping the In-between: Interdisciplinary Methods for Envisioning other Futures Lýdia Grešáková, Zuzana Tabačková, Spolka, 2020-02-23 The bilingual publication Mapping the in between Interdisciplinary methods for envisioning other futures is the outcome of the international summer school that explored the potential of interdisciplinary mapping and utopian visioning as an alternative way of developing the city During the school various proposals were made as actual alternatives to those of the commodified real estate market and the dreams of large developments of filling in the empty spaces of the many brownfields The texts collected here are a unique insight into the new possible models of cooperation and collaboration that were developed in Košice Slovakia with the help of Never never school's participants What's in a Name? Richard Harris, Charlotte Vorms, 2017-01-01 In What's in a Name editors Richard Harris and Charlotte Vorms have gathered together experts from around the world in order to provide a truly global framework for the study of the urban periphery Handbook of Neoliberalism Simon Springer, Kean Birch, Julie MacLeavy, 2016-07-07 Neoliberalism is easily one of the most powerful discourses to emerge within the social sciences in the last two decades and the number of scholars who write about this dynamic and unfolding process of socio spatial transformation is astonishing Even more surprising though is that there has until now not been an attempt to provide a wide ranging volume that engages with the multiple registers in which neoliberalism has evolved The Routledge Handbook of Neoliberalism seeks to offer a comprehensive overview of the phenomenon of neoliberalism by examining the range of ways that it has been theorized promoted critiqued and put into practice in a variety of geographical locations and institutional frameworks With contributions from over 50 leading authors working at institutions around the world the volume's seven sections will offer a systematic overview of neoliberalism's origins political implications social tensions spaces natures and environments and aftermaths in addressing ongoing and emerging debates The volume aims to provide the first comprehensive overview of the field and to advance the established and emergent debates in a field that has grown exponentially over the past two decades coinciding with the meteoric rise of neoliberalism as a hegemonic ideology state form policy and program and governmentality It includes a substantive introductory chapter and will serve as an invaluable resource for undergraduates graduate students and professional scholars alike Youth Urban Worlds Julie-Anne Boudreau, Joelle Rondeau, 2021-03-15 Both theoretically informed and empirically rich Youth Urban Worlds explores how urban cultures affect political action amongst youth Argues that urban cultures challenge the very meaning and contours of the political process Includes ethnographies delving into the perspectives and knowledges of racialized youth urban farmers and voluntary risk takers like dumpster divers building climbers and student protestors Theorizes that aesthetics are an increasingly crucial form of political action in the contemporary urban setting and explains the impact of aesthetics on the political Examines the centrality of fun warmth aesthetics and embodiment to these youth's experience of being in the world Explains how youth are able to practically and concretely impact the political process through the performance of risky and disruptive behavior From World City to the World in One City Tim Bunnell, 2016-02-08 Tim Bunnell's book featured in the movie Pulang the author has recently spoken in several interviews and programmes about how his fascination with the tales of Malay seamen in the UK led to writing this volume Showbiz Sailing into a sea of heartwarming tales New Coming home at last the Sunday my <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=eiFWYHLz5ok> From World City to the World in One City examines changing geographies of Liverpool through and across the lives of Malay seamen who arrived in the city during its final years as a major imperial port Draws upon life histories and memories of people who met at the Malay Club in Liverpool until its closure in 2007 to examine changing urban sites and landscapes as well as the city's historically shifting constitutive connections In considering the historical presence of Malay seamen in Liverpool draws attention to a group which has previously received only passing mention in historical and geographical studies of both that city and of multi ethnic Britain more widely Demonstrates that Liverpool based Malay men sustained social connections with Southeast Asia long before scholars began to use terms such as globalization or transnationalism Based on a diverse range of empirical data including interviews with members of the Malay Club in Liverpool and interviews in Southeast Asia as well as archival and secondary sources Accessibly written for non academic audiences interested in the history and urban social geography of Liverpool The Palgrave Handbook of Urban Ethnography Italo Pardo, Giuliana B. Prato, 2017-11-14 These ethnographically based studies of diverse urban experiences across the world present cutting edge research and stimulate an empirically grounded theoretical reconceptualization The essays identify ethnography as a powerful tool for making sense of life in our rapidly changing complex cities They stress the point that while there is no need to fetishize fieldwork or to view it as an end in itself its unique value cannot be overstated These active engaged researchers have produced essays that avoid abstractions and generalities while engaging with the analytical complexities of ethnographic evidence Together they prove the great value of knowledge produced by long term fieldwork to mainstream academic debates and more broadly to society Urban Uprisings Margit Mayer, Catharina Thörn, Håkan Thörn, 2016-06-01 This book analyses the waves of protests from spontaneous uprisings to well organized forms of collective action which have shaken European cities over the last decade It shows how analysing these protests in connection with the structural context of neoliberal urbanism and its crises is more productive than standard explanations Processes of neoliberalisation have caused deeply segregated urban landscapes defined by deepening social inequality rising unemployment racism securitization of urban spaces and welfare state withdrawal particularly from poor peripheral areas where tensions between marginalized youth and police often manifest in public spaces Challenging a conventional distinction made in research on protest the book integrates a structural analysis of processes of large scale urban transformation with analyses of the relationship between riots and social movement action in nine countries France Greece England Germany Spain Poland Denmark Sweden and Turkey Understanding Geographies of Polarization and Peripheralization Thilo Lang, Sebastian Henn, Kornelia Ehrlich, Wladimir Sgibnev, 2015-08-31 This book presents a multifaceted perspective on regional development and corresponding processes of adaptation and response focusing on the concepts of polarization and peripheralization. It discusses theoretical and empirical foundations and presents several compelling case studies from Central and Eastern Europe and beyond.

Cities and Inequalities in a Global and Neoliberal World Faranak Miraftab, David Wilson, Ken Salo, 2015-04-24

Cities continue to be key sites for the production and contestation of inequalities generated by an ongoing but troubled neoliberal project. Neoliberalism's onslaught across the globe now shapes diverse inequalities: poverty, segregation, racism, social exclusion, homelessness, as city inhabitants feel the brunt of privatization, state reorganization, and punishing social policy. This book examines the relationship between persistent neoliberalism and the production and contestation of inequalities in cities across the world. Case studies of current city realities reveal a richly place specific and generalizable neoliberal condition that further deepens the economic, social, and political relations that give rise to diverse inequalities. Diverse cases also show how people struggle against a neoliberal ethos and hence the open-endedness of futures in these cities.
