The Irrational Knot Bernard Shaw, 1914 Marriage as the knot in question is exemplified by the union of Marian Lind a lady of the upper class to Edward Conolly always a workman but now a magnate thanks to his invention of an electric motor that makes steam engines obsolete The marriage soon deteriorates primarily because Marian fails to rise above the preconceptions and limitations of her social class and is therefore unable to share her husband's interests Eventually she runs away with a man who is her social peer but he proves himself a scoundrel and abandons her in desperate circumstances Her husband rescues her and offers to take her back but she pridefully refuses convinced she is unworthy and certain that she faces life as a pariah to her family and friends The Irrational Knot Bernard Shaw, 2019-06-23 A story of the knot of marriage of how marriage leads to unhappiness The irrational knot Bernard Shaw, The Irrational Knot George Bernard Shaw, 2017-05-25 This work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important and is part of the knowledge base of civilization as we know it This work is in the public domain in the United States of America and possibly other nations Within the United States you may freely copy and distribute this work as no entity individual or corporate has a copyright on the body of the work Scholars believe and we concur that this work is important enough to be preserved reproduced and made generally available to the public To ensure a quality reading experience this work has been proofread and republished using a format that seamlessly blends the original graphical elements with text in an easy to read typeface We appreciate your support of the preservation process and thank you for being an important part of keeping this knowledge alive and relevant The Irrational Knot Bernard Shaw, 1931 The Irrational Knot \(Esprios Classics\) George Bernard Shaw, 2021-08-13 George Bernard Shaw 1856 1950 was an Irish playwright critic polemicist and political activist Born in Dublin he moved to London when he turned twenty Having rejected formal schooling he educated himself by independent study in the reading room of the British Museum he also began his career there by writing novels for which he could not find a publisher His first success was as a music and literary critic but he was drawn to drama and authored more than sixty plays during his career Typically his work is leavened by a delightful vein of comedy but nearly all of it bears earnest messages He remains the only person to have been awarded both a Nobel Prize 1925 for his contribution to literature and an Oscar 1938 for Pygmalion The Irrational Knot. therefore unable to share her husband's interests The Man of Destiny is an 1897 play by George Bernard Shaw set in Italy during the early career of Napoleon. Although his first profitable writing was music and literary criticism in which capacity he wrote many highly articulate pieces of journalism, his main talent was for drama. Over the course of his life, he wrote more than 60 plays. Nearly all his plays address prevailing social problems but each also includes a vein of comedy that makes their stark themes more palatable. In these works, Shaw examined education, marriage, religion, government, health care, and class privilege. An ardent socialist, Shaw was angered by what he perceived to be the exploitation of the working class. He wrote many brochures and speeches for the Fabian Society. He became an accomplished orator in the furtherance of its causes, which included gaining equal rights for men and women, alleviating abuses of the working class, rescinding private ownership of productive land, and promoting healthy lifestyles. For a short time, he was active in local politics, serving on the London County Council. In 1898, Shaw married Charlotte Payne Townshend, a fellow Fabian whom he survived. They settled in Ayot St Lawrence in a house now called Shaw's Corner. He is the only person to have been awarded both a Nobel Prize for Literature (1925) and an Oscar (1938). The former for his contributions to literature and the latter for his work on the film Pygmalion, an adaptation of his play of the same name. Shaw wanted to refuse his Nobel Prize outright as he had no desire for public honours but he accepted it at his wife's behest. She considered it a tribute to Ireland. He did reject the monetary award, requesting it be used to finance translation of Swedish books to English. Shaw died at Shaw's Corner aged 94 from chronic health problems exacerbated by injuries incurred by falling. The Irrational Knot Bernard Shaw, 1926 The Collected Works of Bernard Shaw Bernard Shaw, 1930 The Works of Bernard Shaw Bernard Shaw, 1950 The Irrational Knot by Bernard Shaw, 1982 Bernard Shaw A. M. Gibbs, 2005-11-23 Bernard Shaw fashioned public images of himself that belied the nature and depth of his emotional experiences and the complexity of his intellectual outlook. In this absorbing biography, noted Shavian authority A M Gibbs debunks many of the elements that form the foundation of Shaw s self created legend from his childhood which was not the loveless experience he claimed publicly to his sexual relationships with several women to his marriage his politics his Irish identity and his controversial philosophy of Creative Evolution Drawing on previously unpublished materials including never before seen photographs and early sketches by Shaw Gibbs offers a fresh perspective and brings us closer than ever before to the human being behind the masks
