Machinic Modernism The Deleuzian Literary Machines Of Woolf Lawrence And Joyce:

Machinic Modernism B. Monaco,2008-10-23 How can the concepts of Deleuze and Guattari be used to unearth the metaphysics of modernist literature This intersection of philosophy and key literary works uses their radical concepts to draw a dynamic map of modernism that explores the confrontation of each writer with the non human machine age of the early twentieth century D. H. Lawrence, Technology, and Modernity Indrek Männiste,2019-02-07 While the dehumanizing effects of technology modernity and industrialization have been widely recognized in D H Lawrence s works no book length study has been dedicated to this topic This collection of newly commissioned essays by a cast of international scholars fills a genuine void and investigates Lawrence s peculiar relationship with modern technology and modernity in its many and varied aspects Addressing themes such as pastoral vs industrial mining war robots ecocriticism technologies of the self film poetic devices of technology entertainment and many others these essays help to reevaluate Lawrence s complicated standing within the modernist literary tradition and reveal the true theoretical wealth of a writer whose whole life and work according to T S Eliot was an assertion of what the modern world has lost

Rhythmic Modernism Helen Rydstrand,2019-01-24 Contrary to the common view that cultural modernism is a broadly anti mimetic movement one which turned away from traditional artistic goals of representing the world Rhythmic Modernism argues that rhythm and mimesis are central to modernist aesthetics Through detailed close readings of non fiction and short stories Helen Rydstrand shows that textual rhythms comprised the substance of modernist mimesis Rhythmic Modernism demonstrates how many modernist writers such as D H Lawrence Katherine Mansfield and Virginia Woolf were profoundly invested in mimicking a substratum of existence that was conceived as rhythmic each displaying a fascination with rhythm both as a formal device and as a vital protean concept that helped to make sense of the complex modern world

Modernist Work John Attridge,Helen Rydstrand,2019-07-25 Through a wide ranging selection of essays representing a variety of different media national contexts and critical approaches this volume provides a broad overview of the idea of work in modernism considered in its aesthetic theoretical historical and political dimensions Several individual chapters discuss canonical figures including Richard Strauss Joseph Conrad Virginia Woolf Franz Kafka and Gertrude Stein but Modernist Work also addresses contexts that are chronologically and geographically foreign to the main stream of modernist studies such as Swedish proletarian writing Haitian nationalism and South African inheritors of Dada Prominent historical themes include the ideas of class revolution and the changing nature of women s work while more conceptual chapters explore topics including autonomy inheritance intention failure and intimacy Modernist Work investigates an important but relatively neglected topic in modernist studies demonstrating the central relevance of the concept of work to a diverse selection of writers and artists and opening up pathways for future research

Weaving New Perspectives Together María Alonso Alonso,Jeannette Bello Mota,Alba de Béjar Muñíos,2012-04-25 The present volume seeks to offer a novel and interdisciplinary overview of the question of literary interpretation and the numerous perspectives current in the field today Written by early career researchers and enriched with the important contributions of three senior lecturers the articles contained in this compilation are devised to work as a multi faceted whole that may at the same time give inspiration to students and constitute a guide to more experienced scholars Acting as an integrating entity that agglutinates works from scholars across Europe the editors consider this book to be a clear example of the dynamism of present day literary studies and of the numerous ways in which literature can speak to people Following Margaret Atwood s statement The answers you get from literature depend on the questions you pose this volume may be said to possess the potential to provide as many answers as it poses new questions which will stimulate future research in the field Gender and the Intersubjective Sublime in Faulkner, Forster, Lawrence, and Woolf Erin

Speese,2017-09-22 Exploring how the modern novel s complex depictions of parenthood restructure traditional conceptions of the Romantic sublime Erin K Johns Speese shows how William Faulkner E M Forster D H Lawrence and Virginia Woolf use related strategies to rewrite the traditional sublime as an intersubjective experience Speese shows that this reframing depends on the recognition of social objectification and an ethics of reciprocal empathy between mothers and fathers She juxtaposes traditional aesthetics and Slavoj i ek s concept of the sublime object of ideology with recent theoretical work regarding identity arguing that these modern novelists construct what she terms a sublime subject that is a person who functions in the space of the traditional sublime object In revealing the possibility of transcendent emotional connection over reason these novelists critique the objectification of the other in favor of a sublime experience that reveals the subject shattering power of empathy Choreographies of the Living Carrie Rohman,2018-04-09

Choreographies of the Living explores the implications of shifting from viewing art as an exclusively human undertaking to recognizing it as an activity that all living creatures enact Carrie Rohman reveals the aesthetic impulse itself to be profoundly trans species and in doing so she revises our received wisdom about the value and functions of artistic capacities Countering the long history of aesthetic theory in the West beginning with Plato and Aristotle and moving up through the recent claims of neuroaesthetics Rohman challenges the likening of aesthetic experience to an exclusively human form of judgment Turning toward the animal in new frameworks for understanding aesthetic impulses Rohman emphasizes a deep coincidence of humans and animals elaborations of fundamental life forces Examining a range of literary visual dance and performance works and processes by modernist and contemporary figures such as Isadora Duncan D H Lawrence Virginia Woolf and Merce Cunningham Rohman reconceives the aesthetic itself not as a distinction separating humans from other animals but rather as a framework connecting embodied beings Her view challenges our species to acknowledge the shared status of art making one of our most hallowed and formerly exceptional activities Virginia Woolf and the Materiality of Theory Derek Ryan,2015-09-01 Derek Ryan demonstrates how materiality is theorised in Woolf s writings by focusing on the connections she makes between culture and nature embodiment and environment human and nonhuman life and matter James Joyce and the Phenomenology of Film Cleo Hanaway-Oakley, 2017-06-23 James Joyce and the Phenomenology of Film reappraises the lines of influence said to exist between Joyce's writing and early cinema and provides an alternative to previous psychoanalytic readings of Joyce and film. Through a compelling combination of historical research and critical analysis, Cleo Hanaway-Oakley demonstrates that Joyce, early film makers and phenomenologists Maurice Merleau-Ponty in particular share a common enterprise: all are concerned with showing rather than explaining the inherence of the self in the world. Instead of portraying an objective, neutral world bereft of human input, Joyce, the film makers and the phenomenologists present embodied, conscious engagement with the environment and others; they are interested in the world as it is lived and transcend the seemingly rigid binaries of seer/seen, subject/object, absorptive/theatrical and personal/impersonal. This book re-evaluates the history of body and spectator-focused film theories, placing Merleau-Ponty at the centre of the discussion and considers the ways in which Joyce may have encountered such theories. In a wealth of close analyses, Joyce's fiction is read alongside the work of early film makers such as Charlie Chaplin, Georges Méliès and Mitchell and Kenyon and in relation to the philosophical dimensions of early cinematic devices such as the Mutoscope, the stereoscope and the panorama. By putting Joyce's literary work Ulysses above all into dialogue with both early cinema and phenomenology, this book elucidates and enlivens literature, film and philosophy.

Virginia Woolf's Microgenesis James Kearns, 2025-09-12 Virginia Woolf's Microgenesis engages with Virginia Woolf's writings in the context of her own unique methodological approach to mind, to meaning and to making whole. This volume argues that this preoccupation with the metaphysics of wholeness, a dread indeed of both fragmentation and what endures as an organic unity, places Woolf's writings alongside Jason Brown's microgenesis, formulated as a formative, emergent and dynamic process of cognitive activity. However, crucially, it is not by assembling multiple flows of sense data into more complex constructions that we might perceive the objective world, but by sculpting away the unfit to reveal the structure of the world as a surfacing reality. In so many ways, Woolf's novels represent an enactment of microgenetic theory, demonstrating and alerting us to the mind/brain state as a process of continual unfolding through progressive differentiation and discrimination to a distinct configuration, albeit one which may be deemed imperfect. That is not to say that Woolf's fictions should be understood as anticipating Brown's formulation of microgenetic theory as such, but that they should be understood as illuminating the adaptive and evolutionary significance and signification of perceptual microgenesis in her various modes of theorisation: that is, her processes of tunnelling and transmuting moments of being/nonbeing and depth and surface. If ontogeny (individual development) recapitulates phylogeny (species development), this volume demonstrates that Woolf provides the momentariness of microgenesis to her fictions, a process which recapitulates both Virginia Woolf's Microgenesis. This is essential reading for researchers and students in Woolf Studies, process philosophy, new materialisms, literary theory and modernist literature.

Transmissibility Jae Emerling, 2023-08-17 This book examines transmissibility to remind us why the vitality and epistemic significance of an artwork is anachronistic and futural.

Transmissibility Writing Aesthetic History performs a transdisciplinary philosophy of aesthetic history via the work of Gilles Deleuze and Félix Guattari Cy Twombly Marina Abramovi Paul Celan Cecil Taylor Italo Calvino Candida Höfer and others by focusing on the artistic and historiographic labor that differentiates artworks from other modes of creation The Intelligent Unconscious in Modernist Literature and Science Thalia Trigoni, 2020-11-16 This book reassesses the philosophical psychological and above all the literary representations of the unconscious in the early twentieth century This period is distinctive in the history of responses to the unconscious because it gave rise to a line of thought according to which the unconscious is an intelligent agent able to perform judgements and formulate its own thoughts The roots of this theory stretch back to nineteenth century British physiologists Despite the production of a number of studies on modernist theories of the relation of the unconscious to conscious cognition the degree to which the notion of the intelligent unconscious influenced modernist thinkers and writers remains understudied This study seeks to look back at modernism from beyond the Freudian model It is striking that although we tend not to explore the importance of this way of thinking about the unconscious and its relationship to consciousness during this period modernist writers adopted it widely The intelligent unconscious was particularly appealing to literary authors as it is intertwined with creativity and artistic novelty through its ability to move beyond discursive logic The book concentrates primarily on the works of D H Lawrence Virginia Woolf and T S Eliot authors who engaged the notion of the intelligent unconscious reworked it and offered it for the consumption of the general populace in varied ways and for different purposes whether aesthetic philosophical societal or ideological Shortlisted for the Modernist Studies Association MSA First Book Prize and for the 2021 British Society for Literature and Science Book Prize Virginia Woolf and the Natural World Kristin Czarnecki, Carrie Rohman, 2011-06-01 Edited collection from acclaimed contemporary Woolf scholars exploring Virginia Woolf's complex engagement with the natural world an engagement that was as political as it was aesthetic Palgrave Handbook of Critical Posthumanism Stefan Herbrechter, Ivan Callus, Manuela Rossini, Marija Grech, Megen de Bruin-Molé, Christopher John Müller, 2022-11-28 Palgrave Handbook of Critical Posthumanism is a major reference work on the paradigm emerging from the challenges to humanism humanity and the human posed by the erosion of the traditional demarcations between the human and nonhuman This handbook surveys and speculates on the ways in which the posthumanist paradigm emerged transformed and might further develop across the humanities With its focus on the posthuman as a figure on posthumanism as a social discourse and on posthumanisation as an on going historical and ontological process the volume highlights the relationship between the humanities and sciences The essays engage with posthumanism in connection with subfields like the environmental humanities health humanities animal studies and disability studies The book also traces the historical representations and understanding of posthumanism across time Additionally the contributions address genre and forms such as autobiography games art film museums and topics such as climate change speciesism anthropocentrism and biopolitics to name a few This handbook considers posthumanism's impact across disciplines and areas of study Mysticism and the Mind Colleen Marie Pauza, 2009 French XX Bibliography, Issue 61 William J. Thompson, 2010-09 Deleuze and Literature Ian Buchanan, John Marks, 2000 Although he is best known as a philosopher Deleuze's interests were extremely far reaching in addition to his important critiques of major philosophers like Kant Hume and Spinoza he also wrote extensively on literature cinema and art Characteristically he didn't apply philosophy to the arts he always tried to extract philosophy from them Deleuze wrote widely on literature but always with an eye to extract something new and interesting never merely to interpret Indeed his most notorious slogan was don't ask what it means Ask how it works He wrote monographs on Proust Kafka and Sacher Masoch He also wrote essays on Beckett Melville Jarry T E Lawrence D H Lawrence and Whitman The essays collected in this volume are the first devoted solely to Deleuze's work on literature Written by leading Deleuzian scholars the essays focus on two main questions how does Deleuze read literary texts And how can we read texts in a Deleuzian way Contributors Bruce Baugh Ian Buchanan Claire Colebrook Andre Pierre Colombat Tom Conley Hugh Crawford Marlene Goldman Eugene W Holland Greg Lambert John Marks Timothy S Murphy and Kenneth Surin Microscopy, Magnification and Modernist Fiction Patrick Armstrong, 2024-12-26 Exploring how modernism registered shock experiences of the microscopic and extended vision in prose fiction through the work of four modernist writers D H Lawrence Marcel Proust Virginia Woolf and Samuel Beckett this book is the first substantial study of the interrelations between microscopy and modernist fiction Illustrating ways in which optical instruments had the capacity to change displace and reframe ideas of what the world is like this book argues that encounters with the microscopic are often depicted as thresholds between the human and the non human in ways that reverberate through modernist fiction Exploring a period of significant developments in microscopical tools and techniques from the light microscope to the electron microscope this book traces a shift that reconfigured the limits of the observable Arts & Humanities Citation Index, 1994 Theorists of the Modernist Novel Deborah Parsons, 2014-08-07 Tracing the developing modernist aesthetic in the thought and writings of James Joyce Dorothy Richardson and Virginia Woolf Deborah Parsons considers the cultural social and personal influences upon the three writers Exploring the connections between their theories Parsons pays particular attention to their work on forms of realism characters and consciousness gender and the novel time and history An understanding of these three thinkers is fundamental to a grasp on modernism making this an indispensable guide for students of modernist thought It is also essential reading for those who wish to understand debates about the genre of the novel or the nature of literary expression which were given a new impetus by the pioneering figures of Joyce Richardson and Woolf
