Made For More Hannah Anderson,2014-03-20 Who are you really In an uncertain world we crave the security of knowing exactly who we are and where we belong But too often as women we try to find this safety in our roles and relationships our professional accomplishments or our picture perfect homes And as we do our souls shrink smaller and smaller It s because these things aren t made to hold us In Made for More Hannah Anderson invites you to re imagine yourself not simply as a set of roles and categories but as a person destined to live in the fullness of God Himself Starting with our first identity as image bearers Hannah shows how Jesus Christ makes us people who can reflect His nature through our unique callings She also explores how these deeper truths affect the practical realities that we face as women how does being an image bearer shape our pursuit of education our work and even our desire for holistic lives Because you are made in God s image you will only ever know yourself only ever be yourself as you find your identity in Him Find it now A

The Evangelical Repository, 1879 An Invitation to Slow Mark R. McMinn, Lisa Graham McMinn, 2024-10-22 We live in a day of fast information fast fingers fast food fast shipping fast words fast anger and fast judgment Our fight or flight impulses keep us on high alert aided by mobile devices that vibrate each time another crisis strikes All this fastness can easily interfere with a slow intentional life grounded in God's love Christian faith has deep treasures and practices to offer us How will we live and who will we be in this highly charged era where politics economics environment and social norms are under significant duress Come explore quieter more intentional ways of being and how these might attune us to the slow work of God in order that we might love one another and the world as God does Our chapters pair a lure to move fast with an invitation to slow Becoming slow to anger is an invitation to empathy slow to judge is an invitation to humility and slow to grasp is an invitation to contentment Ultimately each of these invitations is a movement toward God Key Questions about Christian Faith John Goldingay, 2010-11 A biblical theologian explores what the Old Testament says about twenty five important questions of the Christian faith drawing practical sensible applications for today's church Made for Mission Tim Glemkowski, 2019-09-26 God has created me to do him some definite service he has committed some work to me which he has not committed to another I have my mission Blessed John Henry Newman The statistics are heartbreaking In 2007 24 percent of Americans identified as Catholic By 2014 that had dropped to 21 percent The number of people who claim no religious affiliation has surpassed Catholics and evangelicals making none the largest religious group in the United States Catholics are simply walking away from the Church Yet there are many committed faithful Catholics who desperately want to stem this tide We are here in this moment and are called to be part of the mission for the sake of our members and for those who are still outside the Church Yet while we long for this renewal we are often at a loss as to how to accomplish it in a practical way What steps do we take How do we start and how do we continue How will we measure success and how long will it take In Made for Mission Renewing Your Parish Culture author and speaker Tim Glemkowski offers four keys that can

Made Known to Them Douglas M. Koskela,2025-06-25 Made Known to Them is written for those beginning their journey in the study of Christian theology It offers an introduction to the nature and purpose of theology by means of an extended meditation on the Emmaus road story of Luke 24 In that story two disciples of Jesus meet a mysterious stranger along the road While readers are told that this stranger is the risen Jesus the disciples do not recognize him until he is made known to them in the breaking of the bread Along the way these disciples experience the company of Jesus in a way that increases both their joy and their knowledge Luke s telling of the story offers helpful signposts for anyone who desires to know and love God more deeply In each chapter of Made Known to Them Douglas M Koskela explores one of these signposts and reflects on what it means for how we go about the work of theology In that light all those who wish to get to the heart of this work even long time theologians are invited to take up these pages
