Death And Grief Alan D. Wolfelt, 2015-11-17 Clergy are in a natural position to help people who experience a variety of losses including death divorce moves and develop mental transitions Historically clergy have been involved as supporters of the bereaved yet many clergy say that their education lacked substantive teachings in this area of caring This book is a response to this apparent need While directed at clergy anyone involved in this area of caregiving will find the contents of value

Dialogue on Grief and Consolation Terence Lawlor O'Connell, 2009 Have you lost a loved one The loss can be inestimable the grief excruciating What helped you Did someone say something comforting Did someone offer a consolation which you resented Have you ever tried to comfort someone with a terminal illness or one who has lost a loved one Knowing how to help or what to say that is not trite insincere or superficial can be difficult The point of view of a grieving person is quite different from that of those who wish to offer comfort In a multicultural society such as ours anticipating the beliefs of the grieving person can be even more difficult This book explores the perspective of a grieving person It considers the merits and potential harm of alternative comfort strategies As a philosophical analysis of grief it emphasizes an understanding of the beliefs that underlie grief and the usefulness or dangers of emotions Because grief is so complex and sensitive a narrow approach runs the risk of alienating the grieving person The ideas in this book are expressed in a dialogue among three characters Their discussion is broad and fundamental Starting from the familiar consolation She s no longer suffering and the grieving person s resentment toward the expression the three friends articulate the value of life and the evils of death Their discussion enriches their understanding of grief Many consolations offered to mourners are poor arguments Even the better ones do their work best in the context of a greater understanding of grief

Goodbye: A First Conversation About Grief Megan Madison, Jessica Ralli, 2023-11-07 A picture book edition of the board book about grief offering adults the opportunity to begin important conversations with young children in an informed safe and supported way Developed by experts in the fields of early childhood and activism against injustice this topic driven picture book offers clear concrete language and compelling imagery to introduce the concept of grief This book aims to normalize the topic of death by discussing what it means and how it feels to experience loss It centers around several questions that arise about grief and honest simple ways to answer them While young children are avid observers and questioners of their world adults often shut down or postpone conversations on complicated topics because it's hard to know where to begin. Research shows that talking about tough issues from the age of two not only helps children understand what they see but also increases self-awareness, self-esteem, and allows them to recognize and confront things that are unfair like discrimination and prejudice. These books offer a supportive approach that considers both the child and the adult. Stunning art accompanies the simple and interactive text, and the backmatter offers additional resources and ideas for extending this discussion.

Principles and Practice of Grief Counseling, Third Edition Darcy L. Harris, Howard R. Winokuer, 2019-11-11. This core introductory text with a focus on clinical application combines the knowledge and skills of counseling psychology with current theory and research in grief and bereavement. The third edition is updated to address issues related to the developmental aspects of grief including grief in children and young people, grief as a lifespan concept, and grief in an increasingly aging demographic. It describes new therapeutic approaches and examines the neurological basis of grief as well as trauma from disruption and loss. Also emphasized is the role of diversity along with cultural considerations in grief counseling. Instructor's resources include a Test Bank, Instructor's Manual, and PowerPoint slides. User-friendly while grounded in the latest research and theoretical constructs, the text offers such pedagogical aids as learning objectives, practice examples, glossary terms, and questions for reflection in each chapter. Above all, the book addresses grief counseling and support in a way that is informed and practical. The content explores concepts relevant to complicated grief while differentiating the normal human experience of grief from mental disorders. Purchase includes digital access for use on mobile devices and computers.

A Personal Grief N. E. Kurz, 2025-04-03 A Personal Grief Finding Faith Through Loss When a profound loss or tragedy of any kind enters into our lives it s not unusual for the event to knock us down in the totality of our body soul and spirit We ve suffered loss beyond what we feel capable of surviving A child s death for example is a major change in life which can cause some bereaved parents to re evaluate everything including their religious convictions Likewise after trauma of any kind whether it s a great personal tragedy of another sort or a natural disaster of some kind such as a hurricane in Florida or a tornado in Missouri or a raging wild fire in California whatever the event we re startled into realizing our profound need for stability and assistance in our lives And that s because sometimes we have to suffer great loss before we can wake up and respond with joy and gratitude to the good news of the incredible mercy grace and purpose for our lives of the One who made us This is the message to which N E Kurz turns in this book She notes that in our attempt to deal with our life after any great loss we ll actually need to dig into all facets of our existence We must persevere in all areas of our lives in order to regroup and to obtain complete healing We must take care of the earthly the physical and emotional part of our temporal being as well as strive for an understanding of the spiritual aspect the Ultimate Reality But how are we to do that We have to gain strength physically and emotionally to get on with what really matters our understanding of the spiritual part But where does that lead us Great loss in our lives may provoke either a strengthening of faith or conversely a crisis of faith Even persons who previously held strong religious convictions may sometimes find themselves struggling with religious concepts that do not seem to match up with the sorrows of life On the other hand for an agnostic person profound loss or crisis may result in a search for or a confrontation of various areas of doubts and questions in order to clarify the meaning and the relevance of personal faith However in trying to make a search for spiritual truth of this sort individuals may run into an assortment of modern problems which loom as serious barriers to faith making it difficult for them to actually find truth Although a majority of men and women in our day struggle with tough questions such as these most Christians downplay the importance of religious questioning Thus seekers of truth are often reluctant to ask the awesome questions lurking just beneath the surface Understanding first hand the current deemphasis on religious questioning N E Kurz has published this work the first book of her Window of Opportunity Trilogy both to call attention to the seriousness of the situation and to provide a context to help those struggling with both the temporal and the spiritual aspects of recovery from loss The second book will be A Reasonable Faith Finding Belief Through Rational Evidence Forthcoming Spring 2025 And the third will be A Perilous Time Keeping Faith During Periods of Adversity Forthcoming Summer 2025 In part one of A Personal Grief the author shares the story of her daughter Karen s untimely death which awakened her to the realization of her need to search for objective truth But then miraculously the Lord helped her to find answers to her questions lead her to faith and call her to write Hence she discovered faith through loss But in part two of her book she shares vital material that can assist others in their confrontations with both the temporal and the spiritual aspects of their loss First the temporal by sharing with them about overcoming such things as shock emotional pain depression panic guilt anger health aspects life changes and so forth Then the spiritual by helping them in their search for answers and Ultimate Reality
