This Ain't Chicago Zandria F. Robinson,2014 When Zandria Robinson returned home to interview African Americans in Memphis she was often greeted with some version of the caution I hope you know this ain t Chicago In this important new work Robinson critiques ideas of black identity constructed through a northern lens and situates African Americans as central shapers of contemporary southern culture Analytically separating black southerners from their migrating cousins fictive kin and white counterparts Robinson demonstrates how place intersects with race class gender and regional identities and differences Robinson grounds her work in Memphis the first big city heading north out of the Mississippi Delta Although Memphis sheds light on much about the South Robinson does not suggest that the region is monolithic Instead she attends to multiple Souths noting the distinctions between southern places Memphis neither Old South nor New South sits at the intersections of rural and urban soul and post soul and civil rights and post civil rights representing an ongoing conversation with the varied incarnations of the South past and present

Lee Smith Mary Ellen Snodgrass,2019-02-28 This literary companion surveys the works of Lee Smith a Southern author lauded for her autobiographical familiarity with Appalachian settings and characters Her dialogue captures the distinct voices of mountain people and their perceptions of local and world events ranging from the Civil War to ecology and modernization Mental and physical disability and the Southern cultural norm of including the disabled as both family and community members are recurring themes in Smith s writing An A to Z arrangement of entries incorporates specific titles and themes such as belonging healing and death humor parenting and religion

The Social Construction of Educational Leadership Anna Hicks McFadden,Penny Smith,2004 Most historical and theoretical work on school administration choice has focused on the importance of race and class with increased attention to gender during the past two decades Rarely has geography been a consideration and when it appears at all it is used only to distinguish the unique conditions of urban school settings The Social Construction of Educational Leadership Southern Appalachian Ceilings addresses decisions about who is chosen to lead public schools and how they do it Using their research on senior level public school leaders in the southern mountains of North Carolina as a representative case study the authors construct an argument for a reconsideration of the role of place both in decisions about who becomes a school leader and in how those leaders behave professionally The authors describe the changes in a leadership system grounded in race class geographic and gender preferences that dating back to colonial systems of deference describing the pattern of those changes and exploring their implications for school leadership and the preparation of prospective leaders in the region and elsewhere

A Yankee's Guide to Surviving Life in the South and a Southerner's Guide to Surviving Life with Those Damn Yankees Kate Dyer,2013 Kate Dyer is a Yankee Boston born and bred She s a lawyer by trade on the wrong side of fifty blunt irreverent and opinionated She s what Southerners might colorfully call contrary Through an uninteresting twist of events she s built a new life south of the Mason Dixon Line and she s having the time of her life doing it As any successful lawyer must be she s also a keen and astute observer of the human species That makes her a bit of an amateur anthropologist who is eager to share her tongue in cheek observations Here to help fellow Yankees who share her newfound love of the South she shares her best tips for fitting in with the locals And for all those Southerners who just can t figure out those Yankees who have moved in she s got a few tips as well She offers some tongue in cheek guidance in how to decode regional vocabulary from both sides And as an ingenious Yankee she has a lot to say about good old fashioned Yankee ingenuity You ll also enjoy a culinary passport to the flavors of her childhood in Boston as well as her adopted Tennessee home with dozens of recipes that showcase and celebrate the flavors of each region A Taste of the North or A Little Yankee Home Cooking Classic Crab Cakes New England Clam Chowder Fancy Schmancy Baked Chicken in Wine Sauce Boiled Lobster Linguini with Artichoke Hearts and Prosciutto A Taste of the South Or How a Yankee Learned to Cook Like Y all Southern Fried Chicken Collard Greens for New Year s Day Oh So Southern White Beans Melt in Your Mouth Southern Biscuits Proper Southern Grits So no matter what side of the border you call home there s something here to amuse enlighten and enjoy
