Grotius Annuaire International Pour Lanne 1915:

A Living Work of Art Anne J. Kox, H. F. Schatz, 2021 This biography describes the life of Lorentz from his early childhood as the son of a market gardener in the provincial town of Arnhem to his death as a towering figure in physics and in international scientific cooperation and as a trailblazer for Einstein's relativity theory International Law; a Treatise Lassa Francis Lawrence Oppenheim, 1926 International Law: Peace Lassa Oppenheim, 1926 The Times Literary Supplement Index, 1978 The Times Literary Supplement, 1978 History, 1920 The Oxford Handbook of the History of International Law Bardo Fassbender, Anne Peters, Simone Peter, Daniel Högger, 2012-11-01 The Oxford Handbook of the History of International Law provides an authoritative and original overview of the origins, concepts and core issues of international law. The first comprehensive Handbook on the history of international law, it is a truly unique contribution to the literature of international law and relations. Pursuing both a global and an interdisciplinary approach, the Handbook brings together some sixty eminent scholars of international law, legal history and global history from all parts of the world. Covering international legal developments from the 15th century until the end of World War II, the Handbook consists of over sixty individual chapters which are arranged in six parts. The book opens with an analysis of the principal actors in the history of international law, namely states, peoples and nations, international organisations and courts, and civil society actors. Part Two is devoted to a number of key themes of the history of international law, such as peace and war, the sovereignty of states, hegemony, religion and the protection of the individual person. Part Three addresses the history of international law in the different regions of the world: Africa and Arabia, Asia, the Americas and the Caribbean, Europe, as well as encounters between non-European legal cultures like those of China, Japan and India, and Europe, which had a lasting impact on the body of international law. Part Four examines certain forms of interaction or imposition in international law, such as diplomacy as an example of interaction, or colonization and domination as an example of imposition of law. The classical juxtaposition of the civilized and the uncivilized is also critically studied. Part Five is concerned with problems of the method and theory of history writing in international law, for instance the periodisation of international law or Eurocentrism in the traditional historiography of international law. The Handbook concludes with a Part Six entitled 'People in Portrait', which explores the life and work of twenty prominent scholars and thinkers of international law, ranging from Muhammad al-Shaybani to Sir Hersch Lauterpacht. The Handbook will be an invaluable resource for students and scholars of international law. It provides historians with new perspectives on international law and increases the historical and cultural awareness of scholars of international law. It is the standard reference work for the global history of international law. Bibliographie de la France, ou Journal général de l'imprimerie et de la librairie, 1926 Problems of the War, Papers Read Before the Society in the Years 1915-1917 Grotius Society, 1942 Transactions v 30 44 1944 1959 include the Proceedings of the International Law Conference London Dictionnaire diplomatique Académie diplomatique internationale, 1936 Guide
