Growing Healthy Asian American Churches:

Growing Healthy Asian American Churches Peter Cha, S. Steve Kang, Helen Lee, 2009-09-20 The Asian American church is in transition. Congregations face the challenges of preserving ethnic culture and heritage while contextualizing their ministry to younger generations and the unchurched. Many Asian American church leaders struggle with issues like leadership development, community dynamics, and intergenerational conflict. But often Asian American churches lack the resources and support they need to fulfill their callings. Peter Cha, Steve Kang, and Helen Lee, and a team of veteran Asian American pastors and church leaders offer eight key values for healthy Asian American churches. Drawing on years of expertise and filled with practical examples from landmark churches like Evergreen Baptist Church of Los Angeles, NewSong Church, and Lighthouse Christian Church, the book provides soundly biblical perspectives for effective ministry that honors the Asian American cultural context. Insights from such pioneering leaders as Ken Fong, David Gibbons, Grace May, Wayne Ogimachi, Steve Wong, Nancy Sugikawa, and Soong Chan Rah make this an essential guide for Asian American church leaders wanting to help their congregations achieve health and growth. Produced in partnership with the Catalyst Leadership Center, a resource organization for Asian American church ministry.

Doing Asian American Theology Daniel D. Lee, 2022-11-29 With insights from interpersonal neurobiology and trauma theory, Daniel D. Lee's theological methodology and vocabulary, which incorporates the need for personal integration and communal journey, offers a process of integration and reconciliation for Asian American theologies in service of Asian American communities of every kind.

Tapestry of Grace Benjamin C. Shin, Sheryl Takagi Silzer, 2016-09-13 Why do the first generation still act like that? Why can't we try some new ideas? Why are the second generation so lazy? Why are the second generation so disrespectful? Isn't it a shame how the church is split between the two generations? These and many more questions reflect the tangled conflicts within the Asian American church. Cultural differences have led to many misunderstandings and conflicts. Conflicts have created bitterness, and churches have split apart. How can these tangled threads be rewoven into a beautiful tapestry of God's grace? What would it take for the Asian American church to reflect God's grace? In Tapestry of Grace, Dr. Benjamin C. Shin and Dr. Sheryl Takagi Silzer apply their years of study and teaching to explain how the cultural complexities that occur between the different generations of the Asian American church can be untangled. Taking lessons from their own spiritual journeys, they show how each generation can experience the amazing grace of the Gospel.

Chinese Church in Context Grace Kwan Sik Tsoi, Philip Chia, 2025-09-24 Chinese Church in Context: Voices from Downunder offers an insightful exploration of the Chinese Christian experience in Australia. This compelling anthology features contributions from nine scholars who examine the intricate relationship between faith, culture, and identity within Chinese Australian churches. From historical overviews to contemporary challenges, the book addresses crucial topics such as contextualization, cultural conflicts, and the interaction between Christianity and Chinese traditions. Readers will discover invaluable insights into issues faced by Chinese churches.

in Australia including the effects of ongoing immigration the relevance of biblical narratives for Australian Chinese Christians and the delicate balance between indigenization and syncretism Each chapter provides a unique perspective tackling subjects like the theology of conservative Evangelicals the significance of politics in diasporic communities and the implications of necromancy in biblical texts With its diverse range of topics and expert contributors this volume serves as an essential resource for scholars pastors and anyone interested in the dynamic landscape of Chinese Christianity in Australia today Dive into this rich tapestry of voices and discover how faith is being redefined in a new cultural context English Ministry Crisis in Chinese Canadian Churches Matthew Richard Sheldon Todd, 2015-03-26 In this book Dr Matthew Todd looks into the anecdotal reporting of high numbers of Canadian born Chinese leaving Western Canadian Chinese churches what is termed the silent exodus Some of the fastest growing Canadian churches are Chinese yet reportedly the highest dropout rates are among Chinese and Asian church adult ministries This book recommends solutions towards the retention of Canadian born Chinese adults in Chinese bicultural churches through empowerment To address retention the key factors that contribute to a silent exodus are established through qualitative research with participants of diverse church affiliations Todd examines various models and proposed solutions the Chinese church has used to retain its English speaking congregants and gives attention to a theological basis for being inclusive in mission initiatives and for empowerment through passing the leadership baton Todd makes some recommendations on the new wave of an emerging congregational model that requires negotiation with Chinese church leadership to give power away to English ministry leaders and congregations He anticipates that this will permit transformational leadership practices that contribute to shalom community transformation and lasting congregations Finding Our Voice Matthew D. Kim, Daniel L. Wong, 2020-06-17 No one preaches in a cultural vacuum The message of what God has done in Christ is good news to all but to have the greatest impact on its hearers or even to be understood at all it must be culturally contextualized Finding Our Voice speaks clearly to an issue that has largely been ignored preaching to Asian North American ANA contexts In addition to reworking hermeneutics theology and homiletics for these overlooked contexts Kim and Wong include examples of culturally specific sermons and instructive questions for contextualizing one's own sermons Finding Our Voice is essential reading for all who preach and teach in ANA contexts But by examining this kind of contextualization in action all who preach in their own unique contexts will benefit from this approach The Identity and Mission of the Korean American Church Enoch Jinsik Kim, Sebastian Kim, 2024 In this book scholars of Korean American Protestant churches address key challenges concerning sociocultural and theological formation of identity and mission The discussions are arranged in three areas identity formation missional and spiritual formation and inter cultural formation Intergenerational Christian Formation Holly Catterton Allen, Christine Lawton, 2012-07-31 Holly Allen and Christine Lawton offer a complete framework for intentional intergenerational Christian formation in the church Providing theoretical foundations and case studies of intergenerational congregations this book offers hope that worship learning community and service can all be achieved intergenerationally

Envisioning Religion, Race, and Asian Americans David K. Yoo, Khyati Y. Joshi, 2020-08-31 In Envisioning Religion Race and Asian Americans David K Yoo and Khyati Y Joshi assemble a wide ranging and important collection of essays documenting the intersections of race and religion and Asian American communities a combination so often missing both in the scholarly literature and in public discourse Issues of religion and race ethnicity undergird current national debates around immigration racial profiling and democratic freedoms but these issues as the contributors document are longstanding ones in the United States The essays feature dimensions of traditions such as Islam Hinduism and Sikhism as well as how religion engages with topics that include religious affiliation or lack thereof the legacy of the Vietnam War and popular culture The contributors also address the role of survey data pedagogy methodology and literature that is richly complementary and necessary for understanding the scope and range of the subject of Asian American religions These essays attest to the vibrancy and diversity of Asian American religions while at the same time situating these conversations in a scholarly lineage and discourse This collection will certainly serve as an invaluable resource for scholars students and general readers with interests in Asian American religions ethnic and Asian American studies religious studies American studies and related fields that focus on immigration and race

Migration, Transnationalism, and Faith in Missiological Perspective Kirsteen Kim, Alexia Salvatierra, 2022-04-04 Los Angeles is a global crossroads of migrating communities that presents a case study of migration transnationalism and interfaith engagement with significant implications for thinking and practice in other global hubs This book weaves together contributions from internationally recognized scholars who were brought together for the 2020 Missiology Lectures at Fuller Theological Seminary They examine historical waves of migration European Protestant Asian Latino and Muslim into Southern California and use sociological missiological and theological methods to understand the experience of migration and its effects both on those who move and those who are already there The result shows how migrants are inspired and sustained by faith and spiritual resources how migration challenges faith communities about their identity and attitudes to others how faith communities in turn impact the migration landscape through immigrant integration and public advocacy and how migration forges new transnational and global ways of being in community and innovative religious movements The contributors put forward a mission theology of migration and suggest mission practices in response to the suffering caused by forced migration and the injustices of immigration systems

Emerging Theologies from the Global South Mitri Raheb, Mark A. Lamport, 2023-03-29 In recent decades there has been a seismic shift in world Christianity Whereas formerly Christianity existed as a Caucasian Euro American phenomenon the majority of Christians today reside in the Southern Hemisphere or the Global South And what is true for the demographics of Christianity has followed lockstep for its theological developments The era of German theologians setting the tone for global church are gone Today some of the loudest and most creative voices in theology speak from the emerging contingencies of the Global South for example promoting Latinx Black Caribbean and Asian theologies and their influence often influences the conversation in the United States and Europe In addition just as the center of Christianity has moved geographically from north to south so with theological seminaries in the west which have declined as training centers for clergy These events coincide with new theological centers are opening in Asia Africa Oceania and Latin America The bottom line is contemporary Christianity today looks significantly different than it did a century ago and publications have been slow to acknowledge let alone describe and elaborate upon this major shift to the largest religion in the world These shifts guide our intentions in this book Such a reference book which could also be used as a textbook therefore is very much needed In fact there is nothing like the contents of this single volume book in the publishing market which allows for high quality interdisciplinary and international dialogue

The Oxford Handbook of Asian American History David Yoo,Eiichiro Azuma,2016 The Oxford Handbook of Asian American History brings together 27 essays that engage the state of the field with historiographically informed but creative approaches to this diverse and vibrant area The chapters trace Asian American history from the beginning of the migration flows toward the Pacific Islands and the American continent to Japanese American incarceration and Asian American participation in World War II from the experience of exclusion violence and racism to the social and political activism of the late twentieth century The authors explore many of the key aspects of the Asian American experience including politics economy intellectual life the arts education religion labor gender family urban development and legal history

Tides of Opportunity Sadiri Joy Tira,Damples Dulcero-Baclagon,Lorajoy Tira-Dimangondayao,2024-05-21 Hope and Hospitality for Migrating People Never have so many people left their homes and migrated to other parts of the world as we ve seen in recent years This phenomenon creates as many opportunities as challenges We are witnessing a massive increase in urbanization pluralization multiculturalism and interfaith dialogue What are the implications for the church as it tries to reach the nations Tides of Opportunity brings together experts from diverse backgrounds to consider the practical significance of this mass migration The reasons for these population movements are as varied as the people Sadiri Joy Tira explores several causes like military conflict economic hardship and natural disasters The contributors not only explain such trends but suggest possible ways to engage with diaspora neighbors Through case studies this volume also examines lesser known dynamics such as sex trafficking and the movement of immigrants to rural areas This book challenges us to find more creative and integrated mission strategies for effectively reaching out to the various peoples on the move with the gospel How will you respond to the tides of opportunity
