Growing Up Harold L Schoen:

Growing Up Harold Schoen, 2015-12-15 Hal Schoen spent his childhood in the 1940s and 1950s in a large 13 children western Ohio farm family of limited economic means At first the farm had no electricity and was operated with workhorses and he recalls communal threshing rings and many chores on a farm in transition to the use of more modern methods and equipment The farm also served as a huge playground for young children and Hal relates many fond memories of play on the farm including sports that he and his siblings enjoyed baseball softball and basketball The source for another set of memories was his elementary and high school experiences including in sports No one in his family before him had attended college but as he grew older and taller circumstances fell into place that made it possible for him to attend the University of Dayton on a provisional basketball scholarship He was successful in his class work at Dayton and his basketball memories are of a journey from struggling to make the nationally prominent UD Flyers to benchwarmer to starting forward on legendary coach Tom Blackburn s first and only National Invitation Tournament NIT championship team in 1962 The following year Hal was senior captain of the Flyers

Growing Up Harold L. Schoen, 2017-01-27 FROM A FAMILY OF 15 ON A FARM WITH NO ELECTRICITY INDOOR PLUMBING OR CENTRAL HEAT TO 1962 NIT CHAMP UNDER LEGENDARY DAYTON COACH TOM BLACKBURN A story of a long gone world of working with neighbors radio entertainment few telephones unsupervised play and sports just for fun of attending college via a basketball scholarship of struggles to adjust to college life to make the team and then to win the NIT Hal was born in 1941 the family s fifth child and oldest boy From age seven or eight he milked several cows by hand every morning and evening He helped his parents and others in their neighborhood group to thresh wheat and oats and to butcher hogs among many other farm chores For entertainment the family enjoyed listening on their large battery powered radio to westerns dramas and comedies like The Lone Ranger The Shadow and Father Knows Best The barn woods and creek were good settings for imaginative unsupervised play for the Schoen children when they had leisure time Hal and many of his siblings developed a love of reading in spite of an environment in which reading and education were not always encouraged by the adults They also enjoyed playing softball baseball and basketball just for fun Hal became interested in attending college even though no one in the family before him had done so and neither parent graduated from high school A basketball scholarship to the University of Dayton provided the financial means UD was college basketball at a very high level The Flyers coached by Tom Blackburn and then Don Donohue won more games than any other Division I college basketball team in the combined decades of the fifties and sixties edging out UCLA and the University of Kentucky After a challenging freshman adjustment and warming the bench as a sophomore Hal was a starting forward on the 1962 National Invitation Tournament championship team The NIT was then a prestigious national tournament played entirely in New York s Madison Square Garden As chronicled in the book s Afterward Hal went on to a 34 year career as a Professor of Mathematics Education mainly at the University of Iowa and two of his younger brothers earned doctorates in Mathematics

Rick Schoen is internationally renowned for his ground breaking research work in Differential Geometry In 2017 he was awarded the prestigious Wolf Prize in Mathematics Hal s other siblings also did well in both their professional and personal lives The Schoen family s story is one of rising economically and educationally from humble beginnings the American Dream It is a story of the importance of family hard work tenacity patience education and a college basketball scholarship Timing too is a crucial factor as the equalizing effects of the Great Depression and World War Two made upward social mobility more common than ever in the two or three decades after the War

Growing Up, Black and White Edition Harold L. Schoen,2016-06-03 Hal Schoen grew up in the 1940s and 1950s on a farm in western Ohio the oldest boy in a family of 13 children At first the farm had no electricity and was operated with workhorses No one in his family had attended college and neither parent graduated from high school Fortunately he obtained a provisional basketball scholarship to attend UD Hal struggled to make the freshman basketball team After more challenges and some lucky breaks he became starting forward on Coach Tom Blackburn s 1962 NIT championship team and senior captain the next year Back cover
